New Delhi, the 16th December, 2009

S.O. 222. — Whereas the Central Government, after considering the report submitted to it by prescribed authority is satisfied that the model described in the said report (see the figure given below) is in conformity with the provisions of the Standards of Weights and Measures Act, 1976 (60 of 1976) and the Standards of Weights and Measures (Approval of Models) Rules, 1987 and the said Model is likely to maintain its accuracy over periods of sustained use and to render accurate service under varied conditions;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (7) and (8) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby issues and publishes the certificate of approval of the Model of non-automatic weighing instrument (Table top type) with digital indication of high accuracy (Accuracy Class-II) of series "STERLING" and with brand name "STERLING" (hereinafter referred to as the said model), manufactured by M/s. Anupam Aromatics, Nr. Manokameshwar Shiv Mandir, Shivpura, Durg-491001, C.G. and which is assigned the approval mark IND/09/08/437.

The said model is a strain gauge type load cell based non-automatic weighing instrument with a maximum capacity of 30kg and minimum capacity of 100g. The verification scale interval (e) is 2g. It has a tare device with a 100 percent subtractive retained tare effect. The Light Emitting Diode (LED) display indicates the weighing result. The instrument operates on 230 V, 50 Hz alternative current power supply.

Sealing can be done by making holes in the base plate and top cover of the instrument, then a seal wire is passed through these holes and a lead seal is applied. The instrument can not be opened without tampering the seal. A typical schematic diagram of sealing provision of the model is given above.

Further, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (12) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby declares that this certificate of approval of the said Model shall also cover the weighing instruments of similar make, accuracy and performance of same series with maximum capacity up to 50kg, with verification scale interval (n) in the range of 100 to 50,000 for 'e' value of 1mg. to 50mg. and with verification scale interval (n) in the range of 5000 to 50,000 for 'e' value of 100 mg. or more and with 'e' value of 1×10^k , 2×10^k or 5×10^k , where k is a positive or negative whole number or equal to zero manufactured by the same manufacturer in accordance with the same principle design and with the same materials with which, the said approved model has been manufactured.

Sealing can be done by making holes in the base plate and top cover of the indicator of the instrument, then a seal wire is passed through these holes and a lead seal is applied. The instrument can not be opened without tampering the seal. A typical schematic diagram of sealing provision of the model is given above.

Further, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (12) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby declares that this certificate of approval of the said model shall also cover the weighing instruments of similar make, accuracy and performance of same series with maximum capacity above 5 tonne and up to 100 tonne with verification scale interval (n) in the range of 500 to 10,000 for 'e' value of 5g. or more and with 'e' value of $1 \cdot 10^k$, $2 \cdot 10^k$ or $5 \cdot 10^k$, where k is a positive or negative whole number or equal to zero, manufactured by the same manufacturer in accordance with the same principle, design and with the same materials with which, the said approved model has been manufactured.

अतः, अब, केन्द्रीय सरकार, उक्त अधिनियम की धारा 36 की उप-धारा (7) और उप-धारा (8) द्वारा प्रदत्त शक्तियों का प्रयोग करते हुए, मैसर्स अनुपम एरोमेटिक्स, मनोकामेश्वर शिव मंदिर के पास, शिवपुरा, दुर्ग 491001-छत्तीसगढ़ द्वारा विनिर्मित विशेष यथार्थता (यथार्थता वर्ग 1) वाले "एस टी एम" श्रृंखला के अंकक सूचन सहित, अस्वचालित तोलन उपकरण (टेबलटाप प्रकार) के मॉडल का, जिसके ब्रांड का नाम "स्टरलिंग" है (जिसे इसमें इसके पश्चात् उक्त मॉडल कहा गया है) और जिसे अनुमोदन चिह्न आई एन डी/09/08/457 समनुदेशित किया गया है, अनुमोदन प्रमाण-पत्र जारी करती है।

उक्त मॉडल एक इलेक्ट्रो मेगनेटिक फोर्स कम्प्रेसन सिद्धांत पर आधारित अस्वचालित तोलन उपकरण है। इसकी अधिकतम क्षमता 600 ग्रा. है और न्यूनतम क्षमता 1 ग्रा. है। सत्यापन मापमान अंतराल (ई) 10 मि.ग्रा. है। इसमें एक आधेय तुलन युक्ति है जिसका शत प्रतिशत व्यकलनात्मक धारित आधेयतुलन प्रभाव है। लिक्विड क्रिस्टल डायोड (एल सी डी) प्रदर्श तोलन परिणाम उपदर्शित करता है। उपकरण 230 वोल्ट और 50 हर्ट्ज प्रत्यावर्ती धारा विद्युत प्रदाय पर कार्य करता है।

S.O. 226.—Whereas the Central Government, after considering the report submitted to it by the prescribed authority, is satisfied that the model described in the said report (see the figure given below) is in conformity with the provisions of the Standards of Weights and Measures Act, 1976 (60 of 1976) and the Standards of Weights and Measures (Approval of Models) Rules, 1987 and the said Model is likely to maintain its accuracy over periods of sustained use and to render accurate service under varied conditions;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (7) and (8) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby issues and publishes the certificate of approval of the model of non-automatic weighing instrument (Table top, type) with digital indication of special accuracy (Accuracy class-I) of series "STM" and with brand name "STERLING" (hereinafter referred to as the said model), manufactured by M/s. Anupam Aromatics, Nr. Manokameshwar Shiv Mandir, Shivpura, Durg-491001, C.G. and which is assigned the approval mark IND-09/08-457;

The said model is an electro magnetic force compensation principle based non-automatic weighing instrument with a maximum capacity of 600kg. and minimum capacity of 1g. The verification scale interval (e) is 10mg. and scale interval (d) is also 10mg. It has a tare device with a 100 percent subtractive retained tare effect. The Light Crystal Diode (LCD) display indicates the weighing result. The instrument operates on 230 V, 50 Hz. alternative current power supply.

S.O. 229.—Whereas the Central Government, after considering the report submitted to it by prescribed authority, is satisfied that the model described in the said report (see the figure given below) is in conformity with the provisions of the Standards of Weights and Measures Act, 1976 (60 of 1976) and the Standards of Weights and Measures (Approval of Models) Rules, 1987 and the said Model is likely to maintain its accuracy over periods of sustained use and to render accurate service under varied conditions;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (7) and (8) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby issues and publishes the certificate of approval of the model of non-automatic weighing instrument (Tabletop type) with digital indication of "DAT" series of medium accuracy (Accuracy Class-III) and with brand name "DARSHAN" (hereinafter referred to as the said model), manufactured by M/s. Darshan Scale Industries, 386-B, Sardar Nagar, Sindhi Colony, Nr. Water Tank, Ahmedabad, Gujarat and which is assigned the approval mark IND 09 08 515;

The said model is a strain gauge type load cell based non-automatic weighing instrument (Tabletop type) with a maximum capacity of 30kg. and minimum capacity of 100g. The verification scale interval (e) is 5g. It has a tare device with a 100 percent subtractive retained tare effect. The Light Emitting Diode (LED) display indicates the weighing result. The instrument operates on 230 Volts, 50 Hertz alternative current power supply.

For sealing holes are made in the base plate and top cover in the body of the instrument and then a lead wire is passed through these holes and sealed by a lead seal. The instrument cannot be opened without tampering the seal. A typical schematic diagram of sealing provision of the model is given above.

Further, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (12) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby declares that this certificate of approval of the said model shall also cover the weighing instruments of similar make, accuracy and performance of same series with maximum capacity up to 50kg. with verification scale interval (n) in the range of 100 to 10,000 for 'e' value of 100mg. to 2g. and with verification scale interval (n) in the range of 500 to 10,000 for 'e' value of 5g. or more and with 'e' value of 1×10^k , 2×10^k or 5×10^k , where k is a positive or negative whole number or equal to zero, manufactured by the same manufacturer in accordance with the same principle, design and with the same materials with which, the said approved model has been manufactured.

अतः, अब, केंद्रीय सरकार, उक्त अधिनियम की धारा 36 की उप-धारा (7) और उप-धारा (8) द्वारा शक्तियों का प्रयोग करते हुए, मैसर्स दर्शन स्केल इंडस्ट्रीज, 386/बी, सरदार नगर, सिंधी कालोनी, नीयर वाटर टैंक, अहमदाबाद, गुजरात द्वारा विनिर्मित मध्यम यथार्थता (यथार्थता वर्ग-III) वाले "डीएपी" शृंखला के अंकक सूचन सहित, अस्वचालित तोलन उपकरण (प्लेटफार्म प्रकार) के मॉडल का, जिसके ब्रांड का नाम "दर्शन" है (जिसे इसमें इसके पश्चात् उक्त मॉडल कहा गया है) और जिसे अनुमोदन चिह्न आई एन डी/09/08/514 समनुदेशित किया गया है, अनुमोदन प्रमाण-पत्र जारी करती है।

उक्त मॉडल एक विकृत गेज प्रकार का भार सेल आधारित अस्वचालित (प्लेटफार्म प्रकार) तोलन उपकरण है। इसकी अधिकतम क्षमता 1000 कि.ग्रा. और न्यूनतम क्षमता 4 कि. ग्रा. है। सत्यापन मापमान अंतराल (ई) 200 ग्रा. है। इसमें एक आधेयतुलन युक्ति है जिसका शत प्रतिशत व्यकलनात्मक धारित आधेयतुलन प्रभाव है। प्रकाश उत्सर्जक डायोड (एल ई डी) प्रदर्श तोलन परिणाम उपदर्शित करता है। उपकरण 230 वोल्ट और 50 हर्ट्ज प्रत्यावर्ती धारा विद्युत प्रदाय पर कार्य करता है।

उपकरण को सीलबंद करने के लिए इसके ढांचे के आधार प्लेट और शीर्ष कवर में छेद किए जाएंगे और तत्पश्चात् एक सीसा तार को इन छेदों में डालते हुए सीसा सील द्वारा सीलबंद किया जाएगा। सील को तोड़ बिना उपकरण को खोला नहीं जा सकेगा। मॉडल को सीलबंद करने का एक प्ररूपी योजनाबद्ध डायग्राम उपरोक्त दिया गया है।

और केंद्रीय सरकार उक्त अधिनियम की धारा 36 की उप-धारा (12) द्वारा प्रदत्त शक्तियों का प्रयोग करते हुए यह घोषणा करती है कि उक्त मॉडल के अनुमोदन के इस प्रमाण-पत्र के अंतर्गत उसी विनिर्माता द्वारा उसी सिद्धांत, डिजाइन के अनुसार और उसी सामग्री से जिससे उक्त अनुमोदित मॉडल विनिर्माण किया गया है, विनिर्मित उसी शृंखला के वैसे ही मेक, यथार्थता और कार्यपालन के तोलन उपकरण भी होंगे जो 5 ग्रा. या उससे अधिक के "ई" मान के लिए 500 से 10,000 तक की रेंज में सत्यापन मापमान अंतराल (एन) सहित 50 कि.ग्रा. से अधिक और 5000 कि.ग्रा. तक की अधिकतम क्षमता वाले हैं और "ई" मान 1×10^{-3} , 2×10^{-3} , 5×10^{-3} , के हैं, जो धनात्मक या ऋणात्मक पूर्णांक या शून्य के समतुल्य हैं।

New Delhi, the 18th December, 2009

S.O. 230.—Whereas the Central Government, after considering the report submitted to it by prescribed authority, is satisfied that the model described in the said report (see the figure given below) is in conformity with the provisions of the Standards of Weights and Measures Act, 1976 (60 of 1976) and the Standards of Weights and Measures (Approval of Models) Rules, 1987 and the said Model is likely to maintain its accuracy over periods of sustained use and to render accurate service under varied conditions;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (7) and (8) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby issues and publishes the certificate of approval of the model of non-automatic weighing instrument (Platform type) with digital indication of medium accuracy (Accuracy class-III) of series "DAP" and with brand name "DARSHAN" (hereinafter referred to as the said model), manufactured by M/s. Darshan Scale Industries, 386 B, Sardar Nagar, Sindhi Colony, Nr. Water Tank, Ahmedabad, Gujarat and which is assigned the approval mark JND 09 08 514;

The said model is a strain gauge type load cell based non-automatic weighing instrument (Platform type) with a maximum capacity of 1000kg and minimum capacity of 4kg. The verification scale interval (e) is 200g. It has a tare device with a 100 percent subtractive retained tare effect. The Light Emitting Diode (LED) indicates the weighing results. The instrument operates on 230 Volts, 50 Hertz alternative current power supply.

For sealing holes are made in the base plate and top cover in the body of the indicator of the instrument and then a lead wire is passed through these holes and sealed by a lead seal. The instrument cannot be opened without tampering the seal. A typical schematic diagram of sealing provision of the model is given above.

Further, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (12) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby declares that this certificate of approval of the said model shall also cover the weighing instruments of similar make, accuracy and performance of same series with maximum capacity above 50kg. and up to 5,000kg. with verification scale interval (n) in the range of 500 to 10,000 for 'e' value of 5g. or more and with 'e' value of 1×10^k , 2×10^k or 5×10^k , where k is a positive or negative whole number or equal to zero, manufactured by the same manufacturer in accordance with the same principle, design and with the same materials with which, the approved model has been manufactured.

अतः, अब, केंद्रीय सरकार, उक्त अधिनियम की धारा 36 की उप-धारा (7) और उप-धारा (8) द्वारा प्रदत्त शक्तियों का प्रयोग करते हुए, मैसर्स आईटीआई लि., (भारत सरकार का उपक्रम), मानकापुर प्लांट, मानकापुर 271 308, जिला-गोंडा, (उत्तर प्रदेश) द्वारा विनिर्मित "ईटीएम-600" श्रृंखला के अंकक सूचन सहित "डिजिटल टैक्सी फंयर मीटर (प्रिंटर सुविधा सहित)" के मॉडल का, जिसके ब्रांड का नाम "टेलेप्वाइंट" है (जिसे इसमें इसके पश्चात् उक्त मॉडल कहा गया है) और जिसे अनुमोदन निम्न आई एन डी/09/09.172 समनुदेशित किया गया है, अनुमोदन प्रमाण-पत्र जारी करती है।

उक्त मॉडल "डिजिटल टैक्सी फंयर मीटर (प्रिंटर सुविधा सहित)" मापन उपकरण है जो लगातार याग करना जाता है और यात्रा द्वारा दिये भाड़े को यात्रा के दौरान किसी भी समय दर्शाता है। सार्वजनिक वाहन के यात्रियों द्वारा दिये भाड़ा, तय की गई दूरी और निर्धारित स्पाइड में कम पर व्यतीत किए गए समय का फलन है जो प्राधिकृत शुल्क के अनुसार अनुपूरक भाड़े से स्वतंत्र है। इसमें ग्लोबल पोजिशनिंग सिस्टम (जीपीएस) है। मीटर की रीडिंग वैक्यूम फ्लोरेसेंट डायोड (वी एफ डी) द्वारा दर्शायी जाती है। टैक्सी मीटर का 'क' फ्रेक्टर 1250 प्रति किलोमीटर है और प्लज रेट 1250 प्लसिज प्रति किलोमीटर है।

सीलिंग छेद करके तथा इन छेदों में से एक तार ले जाकर की जाती है और तय तार के जॉइंट पर लीड सील लगाई जाती है। सील में छेड़छाड़ किए बिना किराया मीटर खोला नहीं जा सकता। मॉडल की सीलिंग व्यवस्था का एक विशिष्ट स्कीम आधारित डायग्राम ऊपर दिया गया है।

New Delhi, the 7th January, 2010

S.O. 231.—Whereas the Central Government, after considering the report submitted to it by the prescribed authority, is satisfied that the model described in the said report (see the figure given below) is in conformity with the provisions of the Standards of Weights and Measures Act, 1976 (60 of 1976) and the Standards of Weights and Measures (Approval of Models) Rules, 1987 and the said Model is likely to maintain its accuracy over periods of sustained use and to render accurate service under varied conditions:

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (7) and (8) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby issues and publishes the certificate of approval of the model of "Digital Taxi Fare Meter (with printer facility)" with digital indication (hereinafter referred to as the said model) of "ETM-600" series with brand name "Telepoint" manufactured by M/s. ITI Ltd., (A Govt. of India Undertaking), Mankapur Plant, Mankapur-271 308, Dist: Gonda, (U.P.) and which is assigned the approval mark IND/09/09/172;

The said model of "Digital Taxi Fare Meter (with printer facility)" a measuring instrument which totalizes continuously and indicate the fare, at any moment of journey, the charges payable by the passenger of a public vehicle as function of the distance traveled, and below a certain speed on the length of the time taken; this being independent of supplementary charges according to the authorized tariffs. It has Global Positioning System (GPS). The reading of the meter is indicated by the Light Emitting Diode (LED). The 'K' factor of the Taxi meter is 1250 per kilometer and pulse rate is 1250 pulses per kilometer.

अतः अब, केन्द्रीय सरकार, उक्त अधिनियम की धारा 36 की उप-धारा (7) और उप-धारा (8) द्वारा प्रदत्त शक्तियों को प्रयोग करते हुए, मैसर्स श्री-एल आटोमेशन, 9, फास्ट मैन रोड, नीयर वीरांजनेय टैम्पल, शिवाजी नगर, पीन्या 2 स्ट्रेज, हेग्गनहल्ली, बंगलौर-560091 द्वारा विनिर्मित मध्यम यथार्थता (यथार्थता वर्ग III) वाले “एस आर डब्ल्यू-001” श्रृंखला के अस्वचालित तोलन उपकरण (वेब्रिज टाइप) के मॉडल का, जिसके ब्रांड का नाम “श्री-एल आटोमेशन” है (जिसे इसमें इसके पश्चात् उक्त मॉडल कहा गया है) और जिसे अनुमोदन चिह्न आई एन डी/09/08/498 समनुदेशित किया गया है, अनुमोदन प्रमाण-पत्र जारी करती है।

उक्त मॉडल एक विकृत गेज प्रकार का भार सेल आधारित अस्वचालित तोलन उपकरण (वेब्रिज टाइप) है। इसकी अधिकतम क्षमता 40 टन है और न्यूनतम क्षमता 200 कि.ग्रा. है। सत्यापन मापमान अंतराल (ई) 10 कि.ग्रा. है। इसमें एक आधेयतुलन युक्ति है जिसका शत प्रतिशत व्यवकलनात्मक धारित आधेयतुलन प्रभाव है। प्रकाश उत्सर्जक डायोड (एल ई डी) प्रदर्श तोलन परिणाम उपदर्शित करता है। उपकरण 230 वोल्ट और 50 हर्ट्ज प्रत्यावर्ती धारा विद्युत प्रदाय पर कार्य करता है।

और केन्द्रीय सरकार उक्त अधिनियम की धारा 36 की उप-धारा (12) द्वारा प्रदत्त शक्तियों का प्रयोग करते हुए यह घोषणा करती है कि उक्त मॉडल के अनुमोदन के इस प्रमाण-पत्र के अंतर्गत उसी विनिर्माता द्वारा उसी सिद्धांत, डिजाइन के अनुसार और उसी सामग्री से जिससे उक्त अनुमोदित मॉडल विनिर्माण किया गया है, विनिर्मित उसी श्रृंखला के वैसे ही मेक, यथार्थता और कार्यपालन के तोलन उपकरण भी होंगे जो 5 ग्रा. या उससे अधिक के “ई” मान के लिए 500 से 10,000 तक के रेंज में सत्यापन मापमान अंतराल (एन) सहित 5 टन से अधिक और 100 टन तक की अधिकतम क्षमता वाले हैं और “ई” मान 1×10^3 , 2×10^3 , 5×10^3 , के हैं, जो धनात्मक या ऋणात्मक पूर्णांक या शून्य के समतुल्य हैं।

New Delhi, the 7th January, 2010

S.O. 235.—Whereas the Central Government, after considering the report submitted to it by the prescribed authority, is satisfied that the Model described in the said report (see the figure given below) is in conformity with the provisions of the Standards of Weights and Measures Act, 1976 (60 of 1976) and the Standards of Weights and Measures (Approval of Models) Rules, 1987 and the said Model is likely to maintain its accuracy over periods of sustained use and to render accurate service under varied conditions;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (7) and (8) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby issues and publishes the certificate of approval of the Model of non-automatic weighing instrument (Weighbridge Type) with digital indication of medium accuracy (Accuracy class-III) of series "SRW-001" and with brand name "SRI-L. AUTOMATION" (hereinafter referred to as the said Model), manufactured by M/s. Sri-L. Automation, # 9, 1st Main Road, Near Veeranjanya Temple, Sanjivini Nagar, Peenya 2nd Stage, Hegganahalli, Bangalore-560 091 and which is assigned the approval mark IND/09/08/498;

The said Model is a strain gauge type load cell based non-automatic weighing instrument (Weighbridge Type) with a maximum capacity of 40 tonne and minimum capacity of 200kg. The verification scale interval (e) is 10kg. It has a tare device with a 100 per cent subtractive retained tare effect. The Light Emitting Diode (LED) indicates the weighing results. The instrument operates on 230 V, 50 Hertz alternative current power supply.

Sealing can be done by making holes in the indicator of the instrument, then a seal wire is passed through these holes and a lead seal is applied. The indicator can not be opened without tampering the seal. A typical schematic diagram of sealing provision of the Model is given above.

Further, in exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (12) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby declares that this certificate of approval of the said Model shall also cover the weighing instruments of similar make, accuracy and performance of same series with maximum capacity above 5 tonne and upto 100 tonne with verification scale interval (n) in the range of 500 to 10,000 for 'e' value of 5g or more and with 'e' value of $1 \cdot 10^k$, $2 \cdot 10^k$ or $5 \cdot 10^k$, where k is a positive or negative whole number or equal to zero manufactured by the same manufacturer in accordance with the same principle, design and with the same materials with which, the said approved Model has been manufactured.

S.O. 234.—Whereas the Central Government, after considering the report submitted to it by the prescribed authority is satisfied that the model described in the said report (see the figure given below) is in conformity with the provisions of the Standards of Weights and Measures Act, 1976 (60 of 1976) and the Standards of Weights and Measures (Approval of Models) Rules, 1987 and the said Model is likely to maintain its accuracy over periods of sustained use and to render accurate service under varied conditions.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (7) and (8) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby issues and publishes the certificate of approval of the model of non-automatic weighing instrument (tabletop type) with digital indication of "INS-100" series of medium accuracy (Accuracy class-III) and with brand name "ISHIDA" (hereinafter referred to as the said model), manufactured by M/s. Ishida India Pvt. Ltd., 191 Udyog Vihar, Phase-IV, Gurgaon-122016 (Haryana) and which is assigned the approval mark IND/09/08/396.

The said model is a strain gauge type load cell based non-automatic weighing instrument (tabletop type) with a maximum capacity of 15kg and minimum capacity of 100g. The verification scale interval (e) is 5g. It has a tare device with a 100 percent subtractive retained tare effect. The Light Emitting Diode (LED) display indicates the weighing result. The instrument operates on 230 V, 50 Hz. alternative current power supply.

Serial No. of the Notification: 2008

S.O. 237.—Whereas the Central Government, after considering the report submitted to it by the prescribed authority, is satisfied that the model described in the said report (see the figure given below) is in conformity with the provisions of the Standards of Weights and Measures Act, 1976 (No. 1 of 1976) and the Standards of Weights and Measures (Approval of Models) Rules, 1987 and the said Model is fit for use in its accuracy over periods of sustained use and to render accurate service under varied conditions;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (1) and (8) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby issues a certificate of approval of the model of non-automatic weighing instrument (Tabletop type-dual range) of the type and make as per BIS-4000E series of high accuracy (Accuracy class-III) and with brand name "ISHIDA" (hereinafter referred to as the said model) manufactured by M/s. Ishida India Pvt. Ltd., 191 Udyog Vihar Phase-IV, Gurgaon-120165 (Haryana) and has assigned the approval mark (ND) 09/08/397;

The said model is a strain gauge type, self-powered, non-automatic weighing instrument (Tabletop type-dual range) with a maximum capacity of 15kg and minimum capacity of 100mg. The verification scale interval (e) is 2g up to 6kg and 5g above 6 kg and up to 15kg. It has a tare device with a 100 percent subtractive tare and tare effect. The Light Emitting Diode (LED) display indicates the weighing result. The instrument operates on a 230 Volt, 50 Hertz alternative current power supply.

From the left side of the platform balance, two holes are made by cutting the upper cover and bottom plate and fastened by a leaded wire through these two holes, ensuring the verification strap and seal. The weighing scale can not be opened without tampering the seal.

The instrument has external access to the data. A dip switch has also been provided in A/D card mother board to disable access to external calibration. A typical schematic diagram of sealing provision of the model is given above.

Further, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (12) of section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby declares that this certificate of approval of the said model shall also cover the weighing instruments of similar make, accuracy and performance of same series with maximum capacity up to 50kg with verification scale interval (e) in the range of 100 to 10,000 for e' value of 100mg to 2g and with verification scale interval (n) in the range of 500 to 10,000 for e' value of 5g or more and with e' value of 1×10^{-1} , 2×10^{-1} or 5×10^{-1} where k is a positive or negative whole number or equal to zero, manufactured by the same manufacturer in accordance with the same principle, design and with the same materials with which the said approved model has been manufactured.

New Delhi, the 14th January, 2010

S.O. 238.—Whereas the Central Government, after considering the report submitted to it by the prescribed authority, is satisfied that the model described in the said report (see the figure given below) is in conformity with the provisions of the Standards of Weights and Measures Act, 1976 (60 of 1976) and the Standards of Weights and Measures (Approval of Models) Rules, 1987 and the said Model is likely to maintain its accuracy over periods of sustained use and to render accurate service under varied conditions.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (7) and (8) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby issues and publishes the certificate of approval of the model of non-automatic weighing instrument (tabletop type) with digital indication of “KGI-TT” series of medium accuracy (Accuracy class-III) and with brand name “KGI” (hereinafter referred to as the said model), manufactured by M/s.K G Instruments, 2nd Floor, Ranga Reddy Complex, Above SBI, Dr. A. S. Rao Nagar, ECIL, Kapra, Hyderabad-500 062, A. P. and which is assigned the approval mark IND/09/08/273:

The said model is a strain gauge type load cell based non-automatic weighing instrument (Tabletop type) with a maximum capacity of 10kg. and minimum capacity of 40g. The verification scale interval (e) is 2g. It has a tare device with a 100 percent subtractive retained tare effect. The Light Emitting Diode (LED) display indicates the weighing result. The instrument operates on 230 Voltz, 50 Hertz alternative current power supply.

For sealing on the left side of the balance two holes are made, by cutting the outer cover and bottom plate and fastened by a leaded wire for receiving the verification stamp and seal. The balance can not be opened without tampering the seal. A typical schematic diagram of sealing provision of the model is given above.

Further, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (12) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby declares that this certificate of approval of the said model shall also cover the weighing instruments of similar make, accuracy and performance of same series with maximum capacity up to 50kg. with verification scale interval (n) in the range of 100 to 10,000 for ‘e’ value of 100mg. to 2g. and with verification scale interval(n) in the range of 500 to 10,000 for ‘e’ value of 5g. or more and with ‘e’ value of 1×10^k , 2×10^k or 5×10^k , where k is a positive or negative whole number or equal to zero, manufactured by the same manufacturer in accordance with the same principle, design and with the same materials with which, the said approved model has been manufactured.

अतः, अब, केन्द्रीय सरकार, उक्त अधिनियम की धारा 36 की उप-धारा (7) और उप-धारा (8) द्वारा प्रदत्त शक्तियों का प्रयोग करते हुए, मैसर्स के. जी. इस्ट्रूमेंट्स, दूसरा तल, रंगा रेड्डी काम्पलैक्स, एसबीआई के ऊपर, डा. ए. एस. राव नगर, इसीआईएल, कापरा, हैदराबाद-500 062 आंध्र प्रदेश द्वारा विनिर्मित मध्यम यथार्थता (यथार्थता वर्ग III) वाले “के जी आई-पी एफ” शृंखला के अंकक सूचन सहित अस्वचालित तोलन उपकरण (प्लेटफार्म प्रकार) के मॉडल का, जिसके ब्रांड का नाम “के जी आई” है (जिसे इसमें इसके पश्चात् उक्त मॉडल कहा गया है) और जिसे अनुमोदन चिह्न आई एन डी/09/08/274 समनुदेशित किया गया है, अनुमोदन प्रमाण-पत्र जारी करती है।

उक्त मॉडल एक विकृत गेज प्रकार का भार सेल आधारित अस्वचालित तोलन उपकरण (प्लेटफार्म प्रकार) है। इसकी अधिकतम क्षमता 1000 कि.ग्रा. और न्यूनतम क्षमता 4 कि.ग्रा. है। सत्यापन मापमान अंतराल (ई) 200 ग्रा. है। इसमें एक आधेयतुलन युक्ति है जिसका शत प्रतिशत व्यकलनात्मक धारित आधेयतुलन प्रभाव है। प्रकाश उत्सर्जक डायोड (एल ई डी) प्रदर्श तोलन परिणाम उपदर्शित करता है। उपकरण 230 वोल्ट और 50 हर्ट्ज प्रत्यावर्ती धारा विद्युत प्रदाय पर कार्य करता है।

तुला के बायीं और सीलबंद करने के लिए इसके बाहरी कवर और तल प्लेट को काटते हुए दो छेद किये जाएंगे तथा सत्यापन स्टेम्प और सील प्राप्त करने के लिए सीसायुक्त तार से बांधा जाएगा। तुला की सील को तोड़े बिना खोला नहीं जा सकता। मॉडल को सीलबंद करने के उपबंध का एक प्ररूपी योजनाबद्ध डायग्राम उपरोक्त दिया गया है।

और केन्द्रीय सरकार उक्त अधिनियम की धारा 36 की उप-धारा (12) द्वारा प्रदत्त शक्तियों का प्रयोग करते हुए यह घोषणा करती है कि उक्त मॉडल के अनुमोदन के इस प्रमाण-पत्र के अंतर्गत उसी विनिर्माता द्वारा उसी सिद्धांत, डिजाइन के अनुसार और उसी सामग्री से जिससे उक्त अनुमोदित मॉडल विनिर्माण किया गया है, विनिर्मित उसी शृंखला के वैसे ही मेक, यथार्थता और कार्यपालन के तोलन उपकरण भी होंगे जो 5 ग्रा. या उससे अधिक के “ई” मान के लिए 500 से 10,000 तक के रेंज में सत्यापन मापमान अंतराल (एन) और 50 कि.ग्रा. से अधिक और 5000 कि.ग्रा. तक की अधिकतम क्षमता वाले हैं और “ई” मान 1×10^3 , 2×10^3 , 5×10^3 , के हैं, जो धनात्मक या ऋणात्मक पूर्णांक या शून्य के समतुल्य हैं।

S.O. 239.—Whereas the Central Government, after considering the report submitted to it by the prescribed authority, is satisfied that the model described in the said report (see the figure given below) is in conformity with the provisions of the Standards of Weights and Measures Act, 1976 (60 of 1976) and the Standards of Weights and Measures (Approval of Models) Rules, 1987 and the said Model is likely to maintain its accuracy over periods of sustained use and to render accurate service under varied conditions;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (7) and (8) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby issues and publishes the certificate of approval of the model of non-automatic weighing instrument (Platform type) with digital indication of "KGI-PF" series of medium accuracy (Accuracy class-III) and with brand name "KGI" (hereinafter referred to as the said model), manufactured by M/s. K G Instruments, 2nd Floor, Ranga Reddy Complex, Above SBI, Dr. A. S. Rao Nagar, ECIL, Kapra, Hyderabad-500 062, A. P. and which is assigned the approval mark IND/09/2008/274;

The said model is a strain gauge type load cell based non-automatic weighing instrument (Platform type) with a maximum capacity of 1000kg and minimum capacity of 4kg. The verification scale interval (e) is 200g. It has a tare device with a 100 percent subtractive retained tare effect. The Light Emitting Diode (LED) display indicates the weighing result. The instrument operates on 230 Volts, 50 Hertz alternative current power supply.

For sealing on the left side of the indicator two holes are made at the opposite sides, by cutting the outer cover and bottom plate and fastened by a leaded wire for receiving the verification stamp and seal. The indicator can not be opened without tampering the seal. A typical schematic diagram of sealing provisions of the model is given above.

Further, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (12) of section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby declares that this certificate of approval of the said model shall also cover the weighing instruments of similar make, accuracy and performance of same series with maximum capacity above 50kg and up to 5000kg with verification scale interval (n) in the range of 500 to 10,000 for 'e' value of 5g. or more and with 'e' value of 1×10^k , 2×10^k or 5×10^k , where k is a positive or negative whole number or equal to zero, manufactured by the same manufacturer in accordance with the same principle, design and with the same materials with which, the said approved model has been manufactured.

S.O. 240.—Whereas the Central Government, after considering the report submitted to it by the prescribed authority, is satisfied that the model described in the said report (see the figure given below) is in conformity with the provisions of the Standards of Weights and Measures Act, 1976 (60 of 1976) and the Standards of Weights and Measures (Approval of Models) Rules, 1987 and the said Model is likely to maintain its accuracy over periods of sustained use and to render accurate service under varied conditions;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (7) and (8) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby issues and publishes the certificate of approval of the model of non-automatic weighing instrument (Weighbridge type) with digital indication of medium accuracy (Accuracy class-III) of Series-IFW and with brand name "IMPEX" (hereinafter referred to as the said model), manufactured by M/s. Impex Corporation, 117/799, Tulsi Nagar, Kakadeo, Kanpur (U.P.) and which is assigned the approval mark IND/09/08/503;

The said model is a strain gauge type load cell based non-automatic weighing instrument (Weighbridge type) with digital indication of maximum capacity of 30 tonne and minimum capacity of 100kg. The verification scale interval (e) is 5kg. It has a tare device with a 100 percent subtractive retained tare effect. The Light Emitting Diode (LED) indicates the weighing result. The instrument operates on 230 Voltz, 50 Hertz alternative current power supply.

Sealing is done through the holes made in the indicator, then a wire is passed through these holes and the lead seal is applied on the wire. A typical schematic diagram of sealing provision of the model is given above.

Further, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (12) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby declares that this certificate of approval of the said model shall also cover the weighing instrument of similar make, and performance of same series with maximum capacity above 5tonne and up to 100 tonne and with number of verification scale interval (n) in the range of 500 to 10,000 for 'e' value of 5g. or more and with 'e' value of 1×10^4 , 2×10^4 or 5×10^4 , k being the positive or negative whole number or equal to zero, manufactured by the same manufacturer in accordance with the same principle, design and with the same materials with which, the said approved Model has been manufactured.

S.O. 243.—Whereas the Central Government, after considering the report submitted to it by the prescribed authority, is satisfied that the model described in the said report (see the figure given below) is in conformity with the provisions of the Standards of Weights and Measures Act, 1976 (60 of 1976) and the Standards of Weights and Measures (Approval of Models) Rules, 1987 and the said Model is likely to maintain its accuracy over periods of sustained use and to render accurate service under varied conditions:

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (7) and (8) of section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby issues and publishes the certificate of approval of the model of non-automatic weighing instrument (Platform type) with digital indication of medium accuracy (Accuracy Class III) of Series "MPF" and with brand name "MARS digi" (hereinafter referred to as the said model) manufactured by M/s. Mars Digital Scales and System, Gali No. 14, Village Gopalpur, Delhi-110 009 and which is provided with approved mark IND.09/08/251.

The said model is a strain gauge type load cell based non-automatic weighing instrument (Platform type) with a maximum capacity of 200 kg and minimum capacity of 1kg. The verification scale interval is 10 g. It has a tare device with a 100 per cent subtractive retained tare effect. The Light Emitting Diode (LED) display indicates the weighing results. The instrument operates on 230 Voltz, 50 Hertz alternative current power supply.

Lead seal is affixed on the stamping plate to avoid the fraudulent use, the four corners of the indicator of the weighing scale are joined with head whole screws at the two corners of the indicator. The lead seal is made of wire passes through these holes along with the stamping plate and then sealed by the lead seal. The lead seal can now be opened without breaking the seals. A typical schematic diagram of sealing provision of the indicator is shown below.

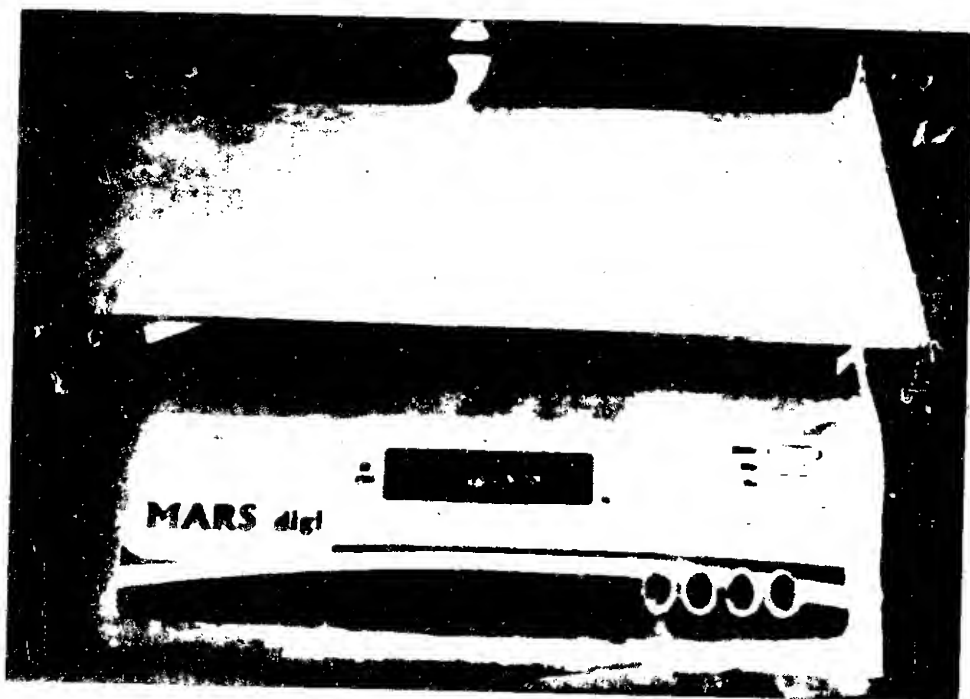

Further, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (13) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby declares that this certificate of approval of the said model shall also extend to any weighing instruments of similar make, accuracy and performance of same series with maximum capacity not less than 10 kg and not more than 200 kg, with verification scale interval (m) in the range of 500 to 10 000 for τ value of 5g or more and for τ value of 1, 10, 2, 100 or 5×10^k , where k is a positive or negative whole number or equal to zero, irrespective of the name and design, in accordance with the same principle, design and with the same materials with which the said model has been manufactured.

अतः, अब, केन्द्रीय सरकार, उक्त अधिनियम की धारा 36 की उप-धारा (7) और उप-धारा (8) द्वारा प्रदत्त शक्तियों का प्रयोग करते हुए, मैसर्स मार्स डिजिटल स्कैलिंग एंड सिस्टम, गली नं. 14, गांव-गोपालपुर, दिल्ली-110009 द्वारा विनिर्मित उच्च यथार्थता (यथार्थता वर्ग II) वाले “एम टी टी” शृंखला के अंकक सूचन सहित, अस्वचालित तोलन उपकरण (टेबलटाप टाइप) के मॉडल का, जिसके ब्रांड का नाम “मार्स डिजी” है (जिसे इसमें इसके पश्चात् उक्त मॉडल कहा गया है) और जिसे अनुमोदन चिह्न आई एन डी/09/08/252 समनुदेशित किया गया है, अनुमोदन प्रमाण-पत्र जारी करती है।

कपटपूर्ण व्यवहार को रोकने के लिए स्टैमिंग प्लेट पर लीड सील लगाई गई है, वेंडिंग मशीन का बेस और आऊटर कवर को उसके दो कोनों में से स्कू नट लगाकर जोड़ा गया है और एक विशेष धातु की तार को उसके स्टैमिंग प्लेट के छेदों में निकाल कर उसे लीड सील द्वारा सील किया गया है। मशीन को सील तोड़ें बिना खोला नहीं जा सकता। मॉडल को सीलबंद करने के उपबंध का एक प्ररूपी योजनाबद्ध डायग्राम ऊपर दिया गया है।

और केन्द्रीय सरकार उक्त अधिनियम की धारा 36 की उप-धारा (12) द्वारा प्रदत्त शक्तियों का प्रयोग करते हुए यह घोषणा करती है कि उक्त मॉडल के अनुमोदन के इस प्रमाण-पत्र के अंतर्गत उसी विनिर्माता द्वारा उसी सिद्धांत, डिजाइन के अनुसार और उसी सामग्री से जिससे उक्त अनुमोदित मॉडल विनिर्माण किया गया है, विनिर्मित उसी शृंखला के वैसे ही मेक, यथार्थता और कार्यपालन के तोलन उपकरण भी होंगे जो 1 मि. ग्रा. से 50 मि.ग्रा. तक के “ई” मान के लिए 100 से 50,000 तक के रेंज में सत्यापन मापमान अंतराल (एन) और 100 मि. ग्रा. या उससे अधिक के “ई” मान के लिए 5000 से 50,000 तक की रेंज में सत्यापन मानमान अंतराल (एन) सहित 50 कि.ग्रा. तक की अधिकतम क्षमता वाले हैं और “ई” मान 1×10^{-3} , 2×10^{-3} , 5×10^{-3} , के हैं, जो धनात्मक या ऋणात्मक पूर्णांक या शून्य के समतुल्य हैं।

S.O. 244 .—Whereas the Central Government, after considering the report submitted to it by the prescribed authority, is satisfied that the model described in the said report (see the figure given below) is in conformity with the provisions of the Standards of Weights and Measures Act, 1976 (60 of 1976) and the Standards of Weights and Measures (Approval of Models) Rules, 1987 and the said Model is likely to maintain its accuracy over periods of sustained use and to render accurate service under varied conditions;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (7) and (8) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby issues and publishes the certificate of approval of the model of non-automatic weighing instrument (Table top type) with digital indication of high accuracy (Accuracy Class-II) of series "M1 T" and with brand name "MARS digi" (hereinafter referred to as the said model), manufactured by M/s. Mars Digital Scales and System, Gali No. 14, Village-Gopalpur, Delhi-110 009 and which is assigned the approval mark IND/09/08-252;

The said model is a strain gauge type load cell based non-automatic weighing instrument with a maximum capacity of 30 kg. and minimum capacity of 100g. The verification scale interval (e) is 2g. It has a tare device with a 100 per cent subtractive retained tare effect. The Light Emitting Diode (LED) display indicates the weighing result. The instrument operates on 230 Volts, 50 Hertz alternative current power supply.

Lead seal is affixed on the stamping plate to avoid the fraudulent use, the base and outer cover of the weighing scale are joined with head whole screws at the two corners of the instrument and then a special quality metal wire passes through these holes along with the stamping plate and then sealed by the lead seal. The machine cannot be opened without breaking the seals. A typical schematic diagram of sealing provision of the model is given above.

Further, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (12) of Section 36 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby declares that this certificate of approval of the said Model shall also cover the weighing instruments of similar make, accuracy and performance of same series with maximum capacity up to 50kg. with verification scale interval (n) in the range of 100 to 50,000 for 'e' value of 1 mg. to 50 mg. and with verification scale interval (n) in the range of 5000 to 50,000 for 'e' value of 100 mg. or more and with 'e' value of 1×10^k , 2×10^k or 5×10^k , where k is a positive or negative whole number or equal to zero, manufactured by the same manufacturer in accordance with the same principle, design and with the same materials with which, the said approved model has been manufactured.

AWARD

1. Central Government, MOL, New Delhi, vide notification No. L-12012/222/97-IR (B-II) dated 31-7-98, has referred the following dispute for adjudication to this tribunal-

Whether the action of the management of Vijaya Bank in not granting the benefits of seniority and increment for the period of temporary employment with effect from 8-1-77 to 14-5-79 to Sri Rakesh Kumar Gupta, clerk-cum-Godown keeper is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the said workman is entitled?

2. Brief facts are

3. Applicant Claimant has filed statement of claim, alleging that Sri Rakesh Kumar was initially appointed as temporary peon at the bank's Saharanpur Branch on 8-1-77. Later on the workman was issued a letter No. PER-A-38-97 dated 2-2-97. In the said letter the workman was advised that he was appointed as temporary peon for a period of three months. Subsequent to the issuance of this letter, the bank issued a letter No. PER:5240:79 dated 23-5-79. In the said letter the bank advised him having appointed the workman as peon on probation of three months from 15-5-79. After completion of three months the bank confirmed the workman in the service of the bank as peon from 15-8-79 vide its letter dated 16-8-79. While confirming him, the bank did not take into account the period of the workman's temporary employment in the bank as from 8-1-77 which the bank ought to have taken into account in terms of the provisions of Para 20.8 of the First Bipartite Settlement (in short FBS) dated 19-10-66. As the bank did not reckon the period of temporary employment from 8-1-77 to 14-5-79, the workman submitted a representation dated 14-10-81 to the Regional Manager, Lucknow, of the bank. In the course of time the workman was promoted to clerical cadre from 1-1-85, but the benefit of seniority was not made available to him. It is also stated that in respect of another employee Sri Mahendra Kumar who is also working in the same branch Saharanpur, the bank has reckoned the period of his temporary employment. Sri Mahendra Kumar was engaged as temporary employee on 13-2-79. His service was reckoned with effect from 13-2-79 when Sri Mahendra Kumar was appointed, later on than this workman has been made senior to the workman. This is discriminatory approach of the bank and thus is unjustified. It is also stated that while he was appointed as a peon on 8-1-77 he was paid salary at the prescribed scale rate, though annual increment was not given to him during the period of temporary employment. In this way the bank has committed breach of the bipartite settlement dated 19-10-66. The claim of the workman is not belated.

4. Therefore, he has made a prayer that his period of temporary employment with effect from 8-1-77 to 14-5-79 be counted and he be provided consequential benefits in lieu of that.

5. Opposite party has filed the written statement. It is alleged that the claim is highly belated. It is also alleged that the interest of those employees will be adversely affected in case the claim of the workman is granted who are necessary and proper parties and they ought to have been impleaded and in their absence the claim is misconceived. It is stated that the workman's initial appointment was as peon vide letter dated 2-2-89 (it appears that they have wrongly written the year 1989 which should have been 1979). After acceptance of the appointment as such, the employee did not raise any dispute for several years and it should be deemed that the workman has waived any claim of seniority on the basis of any prior service. Appointment letter dated 2-2-79, was issued to him which was accepted by him on 15-2-79, accepting the terms and conditions stipulated in the appointment letter. The averments made by the claimant's union that the appointment letter issued to the workman was a claver attempt of the bank to overcome of the violation of Para 20.8 of the First Bipartite Settlement is false and denied. It is stated that thereafter the bank issued another letter dated 23-5-79 appointing Sri Rakesh Kumar on probation with effect from 15-5-79 and it was specifically mentioned in the letter that he had to work for three months on probation from 15-5-79 and period of probation could be extended further. Bank confirmed Sri Rakesh Kumar as peon in the service of the bank with effect from 15-8-79 vide bank letter dated 16-8-79, and papers like Provident application from etc., in respect of gratuity and PF were also enclosed and Sri Rakesh Kumar after filling the form duly submitted, therefore, Sri Rakesh Kumar was appointed in the services of the bank from 15-2-79 and he is entitled for eligible service benefits only from that date and not from 8-1-77 as contended by him. It is also stated that vide bank's letter dated 31-12-84, the workman was promoted from the cadre of peon to the cadre of clerk. He has not preferred his claim even at that time and presented the dispute after lapse of 18 years. It is alleged that the case of Sri Rakesh Kumar cannot be compared with that of Sri Mahendra Kumar Sharma. Sri Mahendra Kumar Sharma has been working in the bank with effect from 13-2-79 and the said date has been reckoned as the effective date for all the service benefits, whereas in the appointment order issued to Sri Rakesh Kumar no such mention has been made. Therefore, bank has not discriminated in between Sri Mahendra Kumar Sharma and Sri Rakesh Kumar Gupta. The case of the two workmen all together is different. As per the provision contained in paragraph 20.8 of the FBS a temporary workman may also be appointed to fill permanent vacancies, provided that such temporary appointment shall not exceed for a period of three months during which the bank shall make an arrangement for filling the vacancy on permanent basis. If such temporary workman is eventually selected for filling up the vacancy, the period of such temporary employment will be taken into account. Sri Rakesh Kumar was appointed as temporary workman with effect from 15-5-79 and eventually he was confirmed in the service of the bank as a peon and as such his temporary services shall be taken into account while fixing his seniority with effect from 15-5-79. The other assertions of the claim statement have been denied and it is prayed that the claim of the workman is liable to be rejected.

6. The claimant has also filed the rejoinder. It is stated that non mention of stipulation for counting the period of temporary employment in the letter of appointment does not mean acceptance by the workman and cannot preclude him or his union for claiming the benefits for temporary employment. Other contentions mentioned in the written statement have been contradicted and assertions of the claim statement have been reiterated.

7. Claimant has filed 5 documents vide list paper no.19/1. Paper no.19/2 is Ext.W.1, which is appointment letter dated 2-2-79 issued to Sri Rakesh Kumar, paper no. 19/3 Ext.W.2 is dated 23-5-79 which is a letter issued to Sri Rakesh Kumar to the effect that he has been on probation with effect from 15-5-79, paper no.19/4 Ext.W-3 is the confirmation of the service with effect from 15-8-79, paper no.19/5 Ext.W-4 is photocopy of letter from Regional Manager to the Branch Manager dated 2-1-81 regarding arrears of salary, paper no.19/6 Ext.W-5 is letter dated 6-6-91 which is a photocopy stated to be issued by the Divisional Manager to the Branch Manager Saharanpur, another photocopy paper no.10/2 Ext.W-6 has also been filed.

8. Opposite party has filed seniority list of clerical staff as on 31-12-98. They have also filed vide list paper no.15/2, 11 documents. These documents include paper no.15/11 which is letter dated 10-11-78 written by Rakesh Kumar to the Personnel Manager Vijaya bank, paper no. 15/12 is appointment letter dated 2-2-79, paper no.15/3 dated 15-2-79 as joining report of Sri Rakesh Kumar, Paper no. 15/13 dated 15-2-79 is the joining report of Rakesh Kumar along with secrecy declaration, paper no.15/14 is the application of Rakesh Kumar for employment dated 20-2-79, paper no.15/16 dated 23-5-79 is the letter of probation with effect from 15-5-79 paper no.15/17 dated 11-8-80 issued by Personnel Manager of the management to Sri M. K. Sharma, paper no.15/18 dated 16-8-79 issued by the bank to Rakesh Kumar regarding confirmation of service paper no.15/19, 15/20, 15/21 and 15/22 are the papers filled by Rakesh Kumar regarding his provident fund etc. paper no.15/23 is the letter issued by the bank to Rakesh Kumar regarding his promotion to the clerical cadre.

9. Both the parties have adduced oral evidence also.

10. Claimant has adduced himself as Sri Rakesh Kumar Gupta W.W.1. Opposite Party has adduced M.W.1 Sri Surya Narain Mishra, Senior Manager, Regional Office Vijaya Bank.

11. I have gone through the whole record and perused the same thoroughly and heard the arguments of both the parties.

12. Ministry of Labour has sent the reference for the period of temporary employment with effect from 8-1-77 to 14-5-79, previously though it was up to 14-8-79. In this regard I would like to say that the date in the reference 14-5-79 is not correct. Claimant has also alleged in his claim statement the date from 8-1-77 to 14-5-79. He has wrongly claimed the date to be the 14-5-79 whereas in the argument before me claimant has agreed that his services have been counted with effect from 15-2-79. Opposite party has also filed the seniority list of clerical staff in original which is paper no.4/2, wherein at serial no.4936 date of joining of the claimant has been shown as 15-2-79 and from this date his services have been reckoned for all purposes including salary and promotion, therefore, the date should be with effect from 8-1-77 to 14-2-79.

13. Now the question arises whether Rakesh Kumar Gupta has put in his services with effect from 8-1-77 to 14-2-79 as a temporary appointee. After perusing the whole evidence oral as well as documentary, W.W.1 Sri Rakesh Kumar has admitted in the chief that he used to get daily wages with effect from 8-1-77. Later on he stated that when he moved a representation then with effect from 8-1-77 to 14-2-79 he was paid full salary as paid to regular employees. But this fact has not been corroborated by other oral or documentary evidence. He has referred one paper, paper no. 19/5 Ext.W-4 in this reference. I have gone through this letter. This is a photocopy and does not give any clear indication whether Sri Rakesh Kumar was paid at scale rate during the period 8-1-77 to 14-2-79. In the cross examination he admitted that as per paper no.Ext.W-5, he had not worked during that period. Even if cognizance is taken of this letter Ext.W-5, he has not worked fully in the month of June, July, August and September, 1977. It shows that there was a clear break in his service in the year 1977. He also admitted that for the period of break he was not paid. He also admitted that he has not filed any of the copies of the representation which he has moved before the authorities. He also admitted that in the provident fund application and other application he has written his date of appointment as 15-2-79.

14. Opposite Party has clearly stated on oath that the applicant claimant was issued an appointment letter dated 2-2-79 and after acceptance of the terms and condition he joined on 15-2-79 as a temporary peon and he was kept on probation. He also stated that a seniority list has been prepared according to rules and all the workers have been provided the benefits accordingly to their date of appointment. He has stated that the worker had never worked regularly before 15-2-79. He had worked only on a casual capacity or when the regular employee went on leave in his place he worked for a short period on daily wage basis as per the rules of the bank there being break in the services of daily wagers this period is not counted in their regular service.

15. Therefore, from the facts it has been ascertained that the period with effect from 8-1-77 to 14-2-79 of the workman was only as daily wager and not as a temporary employee.

16. Now the question arises for consideration whether this period could be counted in the services of the workman as per Para 20.8 of First Bipartite Settlement dated 19-10-66

17. Para 20.8 provides that a temporary workman may also be appointed to fill a permanent vacancy provided that such temporary appointment shall not exceed for period of three months during which the bank shall make arrangement for filling of the vacancy permanently. If such a temporary workman is eventually selected for filling up the vacancy the period of such temporary employment will be taken into account as part of his probationary period.

18. Considering the plain meaning of this Para the settlement has provided that the workman should have been a temporary workman. There is no such clause in this Para which regulates the services of a daily wagers or the persons of sub staff who might have been employed in need of emergency for a short period or for the purpose when the regular employee goes on leave. Therefore, according to the facts and circumstances of the case and as contended by the opposite party claimant is not entitled to claim the benefit to the period 8-1-77 to 14-2-79 as in this period he was not a regular or a temporary employee. In this period he was not selected as per bylaws of the bank. If this seniority is given to him as is contended by the opposite party it will cause prejudice to the other employees because they have not been impleaded.

19. Claimant has also raised another issue that Mahendra Kumar has been made senior to him, whereas he has joined later on. As I have stated earlier he has not been made a party. His whole service record has not been brought before the tribunal. Moreover this was not made a issue in the reference. When this was not made a reference, this tribunal does not deem proper to go into the controversy in between Rakesh Kumar against Mahendra Kumar. In this regard opposite party has also referred and drawn the attention of the tribunal towards paper no.15/17 regarding the employment of Sri Mahendra Kumar Sharma, wherein it is mentioned that Sri. M. K. Sharma had been working in the bank with effect from 13-2-79 which date shall be computed as the effective date. But as per appointment letter of Sri Rakesh Kumar dated 2-2-79, he has been asked to join on or before 15-2-79. As per this letter Sri Rakesh Kumar could have joined before 15-2-79 also but he joined on 15-2-79. I have gone through the application dated 10-11-78 filed by opposite party which is a application written by the workman to the personnel manager. In this application also he has written that he is being paid Rs.5 as daily wager excluding Sundays and holidays. This also clearly shows that he was working on daily rate basis. Therefore, in the given facts and circumstances of the case, the services of the claimant with effect from 8-1-77 to 14-2-79 which was for intermittent period having different breaks, which does not come under temporary service is not liable to be reckoned during the continuous service.

20. Therefore, the workman is not entitled to any relief as per Bipartite Settlement. Hence the claim of the union on behalf of the workman is liable to be rejected and is accordingly rejected.

AWARD 9-12-2009

1. By order No. L -40012/159/2003-IR(DU) Dated : 19-4-2004 the Central Government in the Ministry of Labour, New Delhi in exercise of powers conferred by clause (d) of sub section (1) and sub section (2A) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) referred this industrial dispute between Shri Kuwar Singh S/o Sh. Surender Singh, R/o Village - Dungar, Post - Raduva (Pakhori), Distt. - Chamoli, Garahwal and the Post Master General, Department of Post, Head Office - Dehradun, Dehradun for adjudication.

2. The reference under adjudication is:

“Whether the action of the management of Chief Post Master General, Deptt. of Posts, Dehradun in retrenching Sh. Kunwar Singh S/o Sh. Surender Singh, Eddr w.e.f. 1-1-2003 without giving him any compensation is legal? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled to?”

3. The case of the workman in brief is that the workman, Kunwar Singh was appointed as Extra Departmental Runner in Post Office Raduva by the Sub Divisional Inspector (Post Office) vide their memo dated 6-5-2000 on his name being sponsored by the Employment Exchange and he worked as such until his services were terminated vide letter dated 10-12-2002 w.e.f. 11-1-2003 without any notice or notice pay in lieu thereof or any retrenchment compensation in violation of provision contained in Section 25 F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. Accordingly, the workman has prayed that termination of his services without paying retrenchment compensation, be declared unconstitutional; and he be reinstated with full back wages and other consequential benefits.

4. The opposite party has disputed the claim of the workman's union by filing its written statement wherein it has submitted that the workman has been paid for the entire period of his engagement as per Rules and since the workman was never been appointed in regular capacity and the department has right to terminate/retrench any such employee who is not appointed in regular capacity, therefore, the services of the workman were retrenched when his services were no more required by the department. The opposite party has also submitted that since the department of Posts does not fall within the purview of definition of 'Industry' therefore, provisions of I.D. Act are not applicable on it as such; there arise no question of violation of any of the provisions of I.D. Act, including Section 25-F. Accordingly, it has prayed that the claim of the workman's union be rejected without any relief to the workman concerned.

5. The workman has filed rejoinder whereby it has only reiterated his averments in the statement of claim and has not introduced any new fact.

6. The parties have filed documentary evidence in support of their respective cases. The workman examined himself whereas the opposite party examined Shri Kripa Ram Malgudi in support of their case and next date was fixed for arguments; accordingly, the workman filed its written submissions in support of his case whereas the opposite party sought time for the same.

7. On the date fixed for written submission of the management, the representative of the management filed (M-34), offer of appointment to the workman along with photocopy of the application of the workman. (34 3) addressed to the Superintendent of Post, Chamoli that consequent to his appointment as Branch Post Master w.e.f. 24-6-2009, he is withdrawing his industrial case pending before this Tribunal and requested the department authorities to get the withdrawn, intimating this Tribunal these facts. Subsequently the workman filed application (W-35), by post requesting for withdrawal of his present industrial dispute. Today the workman appeared, in person and moved applications W-36 & W-37, stating therein that he has been appointed as Branch Post Master w.e.f. 24-6-2009, as such, no dispute exists; and accordingly, has prayed that no claim award be passed.

8. In view of the above since the workman concerned has requested for withdrawal of case as no dispute exists and grievances of the workman stand redressed, there is no need to adjudicate on merit of the dispute. There is no grievance left with the workman. Resultantly, no relief is required to be given to the workman concerned and no claim award is passed. The reference under adjudication is answered accordingly.

9. Award as above.

Lucknow.

2. In all the above references common question of laws and facts are involved for adjudication. As such, all the references are taken up together for a common award.

3. The cases of the workmen, in short is that the workmen were engaged as casual labour on muster roll under Sub-Divisional Officer, Raigarh and again under S.D.O., Pathalgaon. The workmen Shri Sashidhar Yadav worked in 1983-259, 1984-18, 1985-107, 1986-173, 1987-122 and 1988-74 days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Raigarh (MP). Again he worked in 1991-315, 1992-319, 1993-321, 1994-328, 1995-285 and 1996-319 days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Pathalgaon (MP). Similarly the workman Shri Damroodhar Izardar worked in 1981-140, 1982-121, 1983-48, 1984-259, 1988-162, 1989-325 and 1990-339 days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Raigarh (MP). Again he worked in 1991-308, 1992-332, 1993-328, 1994-325, 1995-324 and 1996-319 days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Pathalgaon. Similarly the workman Shri Fulgence Toppo worked in 1982-72, 1983-280, 1984-201, 1985-116, and 1986-162 days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Raigarh (MP). Again he worked in 1991-323, 1992-325, 1993-320, 1994-320, 1995-324 and 1996-315 days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Pathalgaon. Similarly the workman Shri Nishtar Khalko worked in 1983-227, 1984-330, 1985-177, 1986-75, 1987-136 and in 1988-110 days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Raigarh (MP). Similarly the workman Shri Shankar Ram Yadav worked in 1983-325, 1984-344, 1985-164, 1986-50, 1987-20 days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Raigarh (MP). Again he worked in 1991-326, 1992-343, 1993-339, 1994-303, 1995-354, 1996-323 and 1998-120 days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Pathalgaon. Similarly the workman Shri Khirido Oshwal Ekka worked in 1982-72, 1983-280, 1984-207, 1985-133, 1986-199, 1987-135 and 1988-189 days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Raigarh (MP). Again he worked in 1990-336, 1991-327, 1992-320, 1993-307, 1994-312, 1995-331 and in 1996-321 days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Pathalgaon. Similarly the workman Shri Rambaran Ram worked in 1981-75, 1982-309 & 1983-171, days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Raigarh (MP). Again he worked in 1990-275, 1991-289 & 1992-254, days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Pathalgaon. Similarly the workman Shri Karuna Sagar Gupta worked in 1982-127, 1983-271, 1984-259, 1985-164, 1986-50 & February 87-20 days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Raigarh (MP). Again he worked from March-1987 to 1/1996 under SDET, Raigarh and Pathalgaon on ACG-17.

4. The further case of the workman is that those casual labours, who worked 240 days in any calendar year prior to 1988, are entitled to be regularized under the scheme known as casual labours (Grant of Temporary status and Regularisation) Scheme of the Department of Telecom, 1989. These workmen had worked for more than 240 days in a calendar year prior to 1988 but the management have not granted the said benefit to the workmen even though they have fulfilled the criteria as per the scheme. It is stated that instead of giving the benefit of the scheme, the workmen have been terminated by the managements without following the mandatory provisions of Sections 25-F and 25-N of Industrial Dispute Act, 1947 (in short I.D. Act, 1947). It is submitted that the reference be answered in favour of the workmen.

5. The management appeared in the reference and filed Written Statement in each of the references separately. The case of the management, inter-alia, is that the workmen were engaged on daily wages as casual labours on muster roll and were automatically terminated on expiry of the time stipulated or at the end of every month. They were again deployed if they so desired to work. Hence the question of termination from work doesnot arise. The workman Shri Sashidhar Yadav was engaged in the year 1983 for 259 days, 1984-18, 1985-107, 1986-162 and in 1987-122 days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Raigarh. Thereafter he left the work on his own will. Similarly the workman Shri Damroodhar Izardar was engaged in the year 1981-140, 1982-117, 1983-48 & in the year 1984-259 days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Raigarh. Thereafter he left the work on his own will. Similarly the workman Shri Fulgence Toppo was engaged in the year 1982-72, 1983-321, 1984-183, 1985-121 and in the year 1986 for 162 days under S.D.O. (Telegraphs), Raigarh. Thereafter he left the work on his own will. Similarly the workman Shri Nishtar Khalko was engaged in the year 1983 for 227, 1984-300, 1985-177, 1986-75, 1987-136 and in the year 1988 for 110 days. Thereafter he left the work on his own will. Similarly the workman Shri Shankar Ram Yadav was engaged in the year 1984 for 669, 1985-164, 1986-50 and in the year 1987 for 20 days. Thereafter he left the work on his own will. Similarly the workman Shri Khirido Oshwal Ekka was engaged in the year 1982 for 72 days, 1983-280, 1984-207, 1985-133, 1986-199, 1987-135 and in the year 1988 for 189 days. Thereafter he left the work on his own will. Similarly the workman Shri Ram Baran Ram was engaged in the year 1981 for 75 days, 1982-288, 1983-171, 1988-88 and in the year 1989 for 90 days. Thereafter he left the work on his own will. Similarly the workman Shri Karuna Sagar Gupta was engaged in the year 1982 for 127 days, 1983-271, 1984-259, 1985-164, 1986-50 and in the year 1987 for 20 days. Thereafter he left the work on his own will.

6. The further case of the management is that the Telecom Department had framed a policy for conferring temporary status to casual labours known as "Casual Labours grant of temporary status and regularization scheme 1989". The following were the conditions:-

- a. Engaged prior to 30-3-1985.
- b. Continuing as casual labour on 7-11-1989
- c. Have completed 240 days in a year

It is stated that the policy had further been extended to casual workers engaged in project/Electrification work vide 269-A/93-STN dated 25-6-1993 and also to circle vide order No. 269-4/93-STN dated 17-12-1993. The following criteria were required:-

- a. Having been engaged between 30-3-85 to 22-6-88.
- b. Still continuing in service as casual labour on the date of respective orders.
- c. Not remained absent for more than 365 days with effect from the respective orders.

It is stated that there was no provision for regularization rather the policy was to give temporary status for extending certain benefits. These workmen is said to have left the work prior to the scheme and orders. Moreover they have not submitted any document to show that they were in continuous service at the time of the orders of the said scheme. It is also stated that the workman had filed a case No. OA-279/97 before the Hon'ble Central Administrative Tribunal, Jabalpur (MP) but the same was dismissed. It is stated that the workmen were engaged in the project work on casual basis on muster roll for certain period and not on regular employment Section 25-F of the I.D. Act did not attract. They left the job of their own will and there was no termination and retrenchment by the managements. Under the circumstances, it is submitted that these workmen are not entitled to any relief.

7. On the basis of the pleadings of both the parties, the following issues are settled for adjudication-

I. Whether the action of the management of Sub-Divisional Officer (Telegraphs), Raigarh and Pathalgaon (MP) in terminating the services of the above workmen is justified?

II. If not, to what relief, the workman is entitled?

8. The following facts are admitted by the parties in their pleadings.

1. The workmen were engaged by the management as casual labours on muster roll under Sub-Divisional Officer (Telegraphs), Raigarh.

2. The department of Telecom had formulated a scheme known as "Casual Labours (Grant of Temporary status and Regularisation) Scheme" vide letter No. 269-10/89 dated 7-11-1989.

Now the important point for consideration is as to whether the workmen were terminated by the management instead of providing them temporary status under the scheme. To prove the case, the workmen have adduced oral and documentary evidence. All the workmen have deposed in their own reference cases. In reference Case No. R/108/2000, the workman Shri Sashidhar Yadav has supported his case in his evidence. In his evidence, he has specified the days he worked each year from 1983 to 1988. Similarly he has specified the days of work done by him from 1991 to 1996. His evidence clearly shows that he was not continuing as casual labour in the year 1989 which was one of the condition for extending the benefit of the scheme. In support of the case, he has filed statements of attendance record which are marked as Exhibit W/1 and W/2. These statements show that he had worked till 1987. He has further filed self made statements from 1991 to 1996. This statements are not admitted by the management not it is certified by the management. It is urged on behalf of the workman that the management had not furnished the statements of these periods. This argument of the workman is not acceptable because the management had furnished the statements of the attendance of the period of 1983 to 1987. Thus his evidence does not prove that he worked after 1987 and he was covered under the scheme of the department for granting temporary status.

10. In R/110/2000, the workman Damroodhar Izardar has also specified the days of each year for which he had worked. He has also filed photocopies of statements of attendance and photocopies of bills. The management witness has also admitted these documents. The statements of attendance are marked as Exhibit W/1 and W/2 and the bills are marked as Exhibit W/3 to W/11. These statements and bills have supported the evidence of the workman to the extent that the workman worked from 1981 to 1984 and the bills show that he worked only in the year 1991. The documentary evidence shows that he was not continuing as casual labour on the date of order issued for implementing the scheme which was prerequisite condition for granting temporary status.

11. In R/111/2000 the workman Fulgence Toppo has also supported his case that he worked from 1982 to 1986 on specified days as in his evidence. Thereafter he worked from 1991 to 1996 on specified days. To support his evidence, he has filed statement of attendance which is Paper No. 2/10. This shows that he worked from 1982 to 1986. This fact is also admitted by the management that he worked under S.D.O. (Telegraph), Raigarh. The workman has also filed self statement of the work done from 1991 to 1996. This statement is not admitted by the management. As such, there is no documentary evidence to show that he had worked from 1991 to 1996 and is not reliable. The only evidence to substantiate his case is that he worked till 1986. This shows that he did not fulfill the criteria for granting temporary status.

12. In R/112/2000, the workman Nishtar Khalko has supported his case in his evidence. He has also stated that he worked from 1983 to 1988 on specified days as has been stated in his evidence. This itself shows that he was not fulfilling the criteria of the policy for granting temporary status. He has filed statements of his work done till April 1987 and the reply of the management filed before the A.L.C. Bilaspur. These documents are admitted by the management witness and are marked as Exhibit W/1 and W/2 respectively. These documents also do not prove that the said scheme is applicable to this workman.

13. In R/113/2000 the workman Shanker Ram Yadav has stated that he worked from 1983 to 1987 at Raigarh on specified days. Thereafter he worked from 1991 to 1998 at Pathalgaon. In support the workman has filed photocopy of statement of attendance record given by the S.D.O., Raigarh that he worked from 1983 to Feb-1987. The management witness has also admitted that he had worked till 1987. There is no other documentary evidence to prove that he had worked from 1991 to 1998. As such, the oral evidence appears to be not reliable because for the work done 1983 to 1987, the management had furnished his certificate. Thus the said scheme appears to be not applicable to this workman as he was not continuous service at the time of order of the said scheme.

14. In R/114/2000, the workman Khirido Oshwal, Ekka has also stated in his evidence that he worked from 1982 to 1988 at Raigarh on specified days. Thereafter from 1990 to 1996, he worked at Pathalgaon. In support of his evidence, he has filed photocopies of statements of attendance record duly signed by the S.D.O. (Telegraph), Raigarh which shows that he worked from 1982 to 1988. The management witness has also admitted that he had worked till 1988. This evidence shows that the scheme is not applicable in his case. There is no documentary evidence for the period of 1990 to 1996 except the self statements and it cannot be relied upon in evidence.

15. In R/122/2000, the workman Rambaran Ram has also stated in his evidence that he worked from 1981 to 1983 at Raigarh. Thereafter from 1990 to 1992, he worked at Pathalgaon. He has filed photocopies of statement of the attendance of the period of 1981 to 1983. The said statement appears to have been given by the S.D.O. (Telegraph), Raigarh. These period is also admitted by the management witness. This evidence itself shows that he was not in continuous employment and the scheme is not applicable. There is no reliable documentary evidence to prove that he had worked from 1990 onward. He appears to be not entitled to get the benefit of the scheme.

16. In R/170/2000, the workman Karuna Sagar Gupta has stated in his evidence that he has worked from 1982 to February 1987 at Raigarh and thereafter till 1996 at Jashpur. The workman has filed the statements of his attendance signed by the S.D.O. Raigarh which are marked as Exhibit W/1 to W/3. These statements are admitted by the management witness. These statements only prove that he worked till Feb-87. This shows that these statements do not prove that he fulfilled the criteria of the scheme. The period after that is not supported by any documentary evidence, as such is not acceptable. Thus the evidences of the workmen as has been discussed above show that they were not in continuous service at the time of order of the said scheme rather they had already left the work of casual labours of the management.

17. On the other hand, the management has examined one same witness namely Shri Rekharaj Singh, Divisional Engineer, Telecom, BSNL in all the references separately. His evidence clearly shows that after 1988 none of the workmen had worked as casual labour under the management. He has also stated that they were casual labour on muster roll and they had left the work on their own will. He has categorically stated that they had not worked at Pathalgaon. He has also stated that the workmen were not entitled to any relief. He has been cross-examined but there is nothing to disbelieve this witness. Thus the evidence of both the parties clearly show that they were not engaged on casual labour at the time when the scheme was formulated.

18. Another point for consideration is as to whether these workmen were retrenched and the provision of Section 25-F of the I.D. Act 1947 was followed before the so called termination or not? It is an admitted fact that no compensation was paid under the provision of Section 25-F of the I.D. Act, 1947. The management has emphatically stated that the workmen do not come under the provision of Sec-2(oo) of the I.D. Act and as such there was no retrenchment. It is a case of the management that they were engaged in the project and after completion of the project, their services were not required. Moreover the workmen left the work on their own will.

19. Admittedly the workmen were casual labour and they were not engaged on regular basis. The evidence of the workmen shows that none of the workmen worked after 1988 as has been discussed above. The evidence further shows that the workmen during a period of a calendar year preceding the date with reference worked under the employer less than 240 days. This shows that they were not in continuous service under the provision of Section 25-B of the I.D. Act. As such, they were not entitled to get compensation under the provision of Section 25-F of the I.D. Act, 1947.

20. On the other hand, the management's sole witness in all the references has stated that the workmen were employed purely on casual and on need basis till the work was available on sanctioned project and their employment came to an end automatically on completion of the project work. There is no cross-examination on the above point regarding the engagement of the workmen on muster roll in the project. There is no reason to disbelieve the witness. The witness appears to be trust worthy. The evidence clearly shows that the engagement of the workmen was under a stipulation and on completion of the project their services were automatically ended. This shows that their contract of services covered under the provision of Section 2(oo)(bb) of the I.D. Act, 1947. It is clear that their disengagement from the employment was not retrenchment. Thus, this issue is decided in favour of the management and against the workmen.

21. Issue No. II-

On the basis of the discussion made above, it is clear that any of the workmen are not entitled to any relief. Accordingly the reference is answered in favour of the management.

22. Hence, the award is passed without any order to costs.

23. Let the copies of the award be sent to the Government of India, Ministry of Labour & Employment as per rules.

AWARD

A scheme, known as I.F.C.I.'s Scheme for appointment in clerical and subordinate cadres of dependents of deceased employees of the Corporation on compassionate grounds, (hereinafter referred to as the Scheme), was formulated by Industrial Finance Corporation of India Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Management) on 1-1-1979. Between June, 1981 to June 1996, 19 dependents of the employees, who died in harness, were appointed on compassionate grounds by the management. On 26-3-99 the management decided not to make any appointment on compassionate grounds. All India I.F.C.I. Employees Association (hereinafter referred to as the claimant) raised demands for giving effect to the aforesaid scheme, vide its letters dated 10-2-99, 25-10-99, 24-12-99, 24-12-2000 and 4th of September, 2000, which remained unheeded. The claimant raised a dispute before the Conciliation Officer. Since conciliation proceedings failed, the Conciliation Officer submitted its failure report to the appropriate Government. On consideration of the said report the Government declined to refer the dispute for adjudication, vide its order dated 7-11-2002. Aggrieved by the said action of the appropriate Government, three writ petitions were preferred before High Court of Delhi. Vide judgment dated 23-12-2005, High Court commanded the appropriate Government to refer the dispute for compulsory adjudication. Consequently the appropriate Government referred the dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication, vide order No. L-12011/27/2002 -IR(BII). New Delhi, dated 9-3-2006, with following terms :

"Whether the demand made by All India Industrial Finance Corporation Employees' Association for appointment of dependents on compassionate grounds by the management of Industrial Finance Corporation of India Limited in respect of 7 employees who died in harness, as contained in their demand letter dated 30-10-2000, is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the dependent union is entitled?"

2. Claimant filed its claim statement pleading that it had submitted charter of demands to the management vide letters dated 16-4-77 and 18-9-1979 and in pursuance of the said demands the scheme was introduced and circulated by the management, vide its circular dated 3-3-1979. The management confirmed introduction of the Scheme vide its letter dated 19-9-79. Between June, 1981 to June, 1996 about 19 dependents of the employees, who died in harness, were appointed by the management in pursuance of the Scheme. Shri Banarsi died on 26-4-96, Partap Singh died on 18-4-1997, Shri Jai Narain Singh died on 7-6-93, Shri K. Sampath died on 8-4-98, Shri Bhagwan Dass died on 19-11-98 and Shri C.L. Ram died on 15-5-2000, while rendering their services to the management. Due to distress and sudden deprivation on account of untimely death of the aforesaid employees, their dependents requested the management for appointment on suitable post on compassionate grounds, in pursuance of the aforesaid Scheme. Naresh Kumar, Rakesh Kumar, Mahender Singh, Mrs. K. Sampath, Vivek Kumar and Sanjay Kumar Ram, the dependents of the aforesaid deceased employees respectively, moved applications for their appointment on compassionate grounds, which applications were declined by the management and as such, present dispute arose.

3. From past seven years not a single person was appointed as Peon, Peon-cum-Chowkidar and Sweeper by the management. On 30th of June, 1981 there were 383 officers, 535 employees in clerical cadre and 214 employees in sub staff cadre working with the management. The strength of clerical cadre was decreased to 130 and that of sub staff cadre employees to 53 as on 30-9-2005. The management had engaged persons on contract for the job of sweeping, cleaning, dusting and watch and ward duties inside its office premises. It was so done with a view to avoid engagement of permanent employees, though the said jobs are of perennial in nature. The management had engaged 21 persons at its Head Office at Nehru Place, New Delhi for doing the job of sweeping, cleaning and dusting inside multi storeyed building and about 31 persons for security duties from the contractors. The aforesaid engagements of persons from contractors is violative of Government of India Notification dated 9-12-76, which prohibits engagement of persons on contract basis for the aforesaid jobs. Besides the aforesaid employees engaged by the management at its head office, 70 persons are engaged by the managements at its Regional Office, through contractors. The claimant took up the matter with the management from 1993 till September, 2000, agitating the claim of dependents of deceased employees for appointment on compassionate grounds. Instead of giving appointment on compassionate grounds the management offers financial assistances to the dependents under IFCI Staff Welfare Fund-Disability and Financial Assistance Scheme, 1985. Family benefits schemes cannot be equated with the benefit of compassionate appointments. Appointment on compassionate grounds in pursuance of the Scheme is service conditions, as per Bipartite Settlement dated 5th of September, 1990. The claimant projects that Naresh Kumar, Rakesh Kumar, Mahender Singh, Mrs. Renuka Sampath, Vivek and Sanjay Kumar Ram applied for appointment on compassionate grounds within time and their applications were discarded on extraneous considerations. They are entitled for appointment in pursuance of the Scheme. An award may be passed in that regard with further directions to the management to treat them on duty from the date of their applications.

4. The management demurred the claim pleading that the claimant is not true and sole representative of families of the deceased employees. The claimant has no authority to agitate the claim, since families of the deceased employees never approached the claimant to espouse their claim. Vivek, Rajesh and Sanjay Kumar Ram approached High Court of Delhi in their personal capacity, seeking directions against the management. It has been conceded that the Scheme was formulated and came in existence since 1st of January, 79. The management claims that the Scheme was introduced by it on its own and not at the instance of the claimant. In 1985 Disabilities and Financial Assistance Scheme was introduced, in lieu of compassionate appointments. Under that scheme financial assistance is offered to the families of the employees who died in harness, to enable them to tide over the distress. Financial assistance upto the extent of Rs. 4000 p.m. is payable for a period of 15 years or till normal age of superannuation of the deceased employee, whichever is earlier. The said assistance scheme is an alternative to compassionate gratuity. The Management provides compassionate gratuity in addition to financial assistance. The said gratuity can be subject to the maxima of Rs. 15,000. In 1994 Pension Scheme was introduced for welfare of its employees. If an employee has opted for pension scheme his wife/dependent children are eligible for family pension in case of his death. Besides the aforesaid benefits the employees get retiral dues, such as provident fund, gratuity, leave encashment etc. as per extent rules. In view of the changed circumstances the management decided on 26-3-99 not to make any appointment on compassionate grounds. Request of Naresh, Rakesh Kumar, Mahender Singh, K. Sampath, Vivek Kumar and Sanjay Kumar Ram were not conceded to, considering the manpower requirement of the organization, Financial position of the concerned family, provision of alternate financial aid by the management to the families of the deceased employee, payment made by way of provident fund, gratuity, leave encashment etc. and financial assistance available under disability and financial assistance schemes of the dependents of the deceased employee are the factors which are to be considered for eligibility towards compassionate appointment.

5. The management was over staffed in class III and IV cadres. In order to achieve optimum manpower utilization, no request for compassionate appointment was acceded to after 1996. The expert committee of the management recommended introduction of voluntary retirement scheme to bring down number of employees to desired strength. Therefore, voluntary retirement schemes for class III and IV employees were introduced in February, 2000 and again in January, 2001 to reduce staff strength. In those cadres 35 class III employees and 33 Class IV employees opted for voluntary retirement. In 2003-2004 another voluntary retirement scheme was introduced and eighty employees in class III and IV cadres opted for retirement.

6. In April, 2000 Ministry of Labour, Government of India, was apprised of facts and circumstances, claiming exemption in respect of various provisions/notifications issued under Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970 (hereinafter referred to as the Contract Labour Act). It has been claimed that cleaning and maintenance of head quarter building is outsourced and contract has been awarded to a specialized agency, which has skilled manpower to operate specialized machinery and to perform those functions. Dwindling strength of the subordinate staff has reached solely due to no recruitment in those cadres. Since dependents of the deceased employees, referred above, have been granted financial assistance as per various schemes started by the management, no case is made out for compassionate appointments. Claim put forward by the claimant is not at all maintainable. It may be dismissed.

7. Deepak Goel, authorized representative for the claimant presents that the issues referred by the appropriate Government are legal and can be adjudicated on the basis of the facts pleaded by the parties. Shri C. K. Safaya, authorized representative, for the management also conceded to the said proposition. Therefore, the parties opted not to advance any evidence in the matter.

8. Arguments were heard at the bar. Shri Deepak Goel, authorized representative, advanced arguments on behalf of the claimant. Shri C. K. Safaya, authorized representative, advanced arguments on behalf of the management. Written submissions were also filed by the parties. I have given my careful considerations to the arguments advanced at the bar and cautiously perused the record. My findings on issues involved in the controversy are as follows:

9. First and foremost contention advanced by Shri Safaya is that the claimant is not a true representative of the families of the workmen, who had died in harness. He argued that families of the deceased workmen never approached the claimant union or its authorized representative at any point of time to espouse their claim. He presents that Ved Kumar, Rakesh Kumar and Sanjay Kumar Rao, sons of the deceased employees approached Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in their personal capacity for seeking direction in the nature of mandamus for their appointment on compassionate grounds. Under these circumstances, the claimant union cannot claim itself to be the representative of the families of the deceased workmen, hence claim filed by the union is bad. Contra to it Shri Goel argued that the claimant union is the registered union of the employees of the management and has been authorized by their workers to file and prosecute the present claim.

10. To adjudicate the proposition raised by the management, it is expedient to have a glance over the reference order. As detailed above a dispute was raised by the claimant union before the Conciliation Officer. When conciliation proceedings failed, a failure report was submitted before the Central Government. On consideration of the said failure report, the Central Government declined to make a reference, vide its order dated 7-11-2002. Thereafter three writ petitions were preferred before High Court of Delhi, wherein a command was given to the Central Government to refer the dispute for adjudication to a competent court. In compliance of the said command, the present dispute was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. This history makes it clear that initially a dispute was raised by the claimant union before the Conciliation Officer and when failure report was submitted the Government refused to make a reference of the dispute. In that eventuality writ petitions were preferred and in pursuance of the missives given by the High Court of Delhi present reference was made to this Tribunal for adjudication. While making a reference the appropriate Government was moved by the proposition as to whether the demand made by All India Industrial finance Corporation Employees Association for appointment of dependents on compassionate ground, who died in harness, as contained in their letter dated 30-10-2000, is legal and justified. This situation gives confirmation to the fact that on being commanded by High Court of Delhi the Central Government took up failure report submitted by Conciliation Officer and made this reference to this Tribunal for adjudication. It is evident that it was the demand raised by the union which was bedrock of the whole controversy.

11. Provisions of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (in short the Act) make it clear that the appropriate Government may refer an existing or apprehended dispute to the Industrial Tribunal for adjudication. Industrial dispute has been defined by clause (k) of Section 2 of the Act. Definition given in the said sub-section encompasses within its sweep any dispute or difference between the employer and employers, or between employer and workmen or between workmen and workmen, which is connected with the employment or non employment or terms of employment or with the conditions of labour of any person. The Act is a legislation relating to what is known as "collective bargaining" in the economic field. This policy of the legislature is also implicit in the definition of the industrial dispute.

12. The Apex Court in Bombay Union of Journalists [1961 (II) LLJ 436] has observed that in each case in ascertaining whether an individual dispute has acquired the character of an industrial dispute, the test is whether at the date of reference, the dispute was taken up as supported by the union of the workmen of the employer against whom the dispute is raised by an individual workman or by an appreciable number of workmen. In order, therefore, to convert an "individual dispute" into an "industrial dispute", it has to be established that it had been taken up by the union of employees of the establishment or by an appreciable number of the employees of the establishment. As far as union of the workmen of establishment itself is concerned, the problem of espousal by them generally presents little difficulty, as the workmen who are members of such unions generally have a continuity of interest with an individual employee who is one of their fellow workman. But the difficulties arise when the cause of a workman, in a particular establishment, is sponsored by a union which is not of the workmen of that establishment but is one of which membership is open to workmen of their establishment as well in that industry. In such a case a union which has only microscopic number of the workmen as its member, cannot sponsor any dispute arising between the workmen and the management. Representative character of the union has to be gathered from the strength of the actual number of co-workers sponsoring the dispute.

The mere fact that a substantial number of workmen of the establishment, in which the concerned workman was employee, were also members of the union would not constitute sponsorship. It must be shown that they were connected together and arrived at an understanding by a resolution or by other means and collectively supported the dispute.

13. What a substantial or considerable number of workmen would in a given case, depend on particular facts of the case. The fact that an "industrial dispute", is supported by other workmen will have to be established either in the form of a resolution of the union of which workman may be member or of the workmen themselves who support the dispute or in any other manner. From the mere fact that a general union, at whose instance an "industrial dispute" concerning an individual workman is referred for adjudication, has on its roll a few of the workmen of the establishment as its members, it cannot be inferred that the individual dispute has been converted into an "industrial dispute". The Tribunal has, therefore, to consider the question as to how many of the fellow workman actually espoused the cause of the concerned workman by participating in the particular resolution of the Union. In the absence of a such a determination by the Tribunal, it cannot be said that the individual dispute acquired the character of an industrial dispute and the Tribunal will not acquire jurisdiction to adjudicate upon the dispute. Nevertheless, in order to make a dispute an industrial dispute, it is not necessary that there should always be a resolution of substantial or appreciable number of workmen. What is necessary is that there should be some express or collective will of a substantial or an appreciable member of the workmen treating the cause of the individual workman as their own cause. Law to this effect was laid in P. Somasundaram [1970(1) LLJ 558].

14. It is not necessary that the sponsoring union is a registered trade union or a recognized trade union. Once it is shown that a body of substantial number of workmen either acting through a union or otherwise had sponsored the workman's cause, it is sufficient to convert it into an industrial dispute. In Pardeep Lamp Works [1970 (1) LLJ 507] complaints relating to dispute of ten workmen were filed before the conciliation officer by the individual workmen themselves. But their case was subsequently taken up by a new union formed by a large number of co-workmen, if not a majority of them. Since this union was not registered or recognized, the workmen elected five representatives to prosecute the cases of ten dismissed workmen. Thus the cases of the dismissed workmen were espoused by the new union, yet unregistered and unrecognized. The Apex Court held that the fact that these disputes were not taken up by a registered or recognized union does not mean that they were not "industrial dispute".

15. It is not expedient that same union should remain incharge of that dispute till its adjudication. The dispute may be espoused by the workmen of an establishment, through a particular union for making such a dispute an "industrial dispute", while the workman may be represented before the Tribunal for the purpose of Section 36 of the Act by a number of executive or office bearer of altogether another union. The crux of the matter is that the dispute should be a dispute between the employer and his workmen. It is not necessary that the dispute must be espoused or conducted only by a registered trade union. Even if a trade union ceases to be registered trade union during the continuance of the adjudication proceedings that would not affect the maintainability of the order of reference. Law to this effect was laid by the High Court of Orissa in Ganmon India Limited [1974 (II) LLJ 34]. For ascertaining as to whether an individual dispute has acquired character of an individual dispute, the test is whether on the date of the reference the dispute was taken up as supported by the union of the workmen of the employer against whom the dispute is raised by the individual workman or by an appreciable number of the workman. In other words, the validity of the reference of an industrial dispute must be judged on the facts as they stood on the date of the reference and not necessarily on the date when the cause occurs. Reference can be made to a precedent in Western India Match Co. Ltd. [1970(II) LLJ 256].

16. It is not a matter of dispute that in the year 1977 Industrial Finance Corporation Employees Association was registered under Trade Union Act, 1926. On 16th of April, 1977 the said union served a charter of demands on the Chairman of the management. In those charter of demands, one of the demand was relating to job opportunities for the dependents of the employees dying in harness. On 18-9-79 letter was written by the President of the Union to the Chairman of the management wherein the union emphasized for resumption of talks on charter of demand, so raised. In meeting dated 31st of January, 79 the Board of Directors of the Management approved adoption of the scheme for appointment of dependents of deceased employees of the management on compassionate grounds, w.e.f 1st of January, 1979. It was circulated for information of all concerned on 3-3-1979. On 19-9-79 Shri M.N. Khushu, Deputy General Manager of the management wrote to the President of the Association wherein it was emphasized that the management has agreed to make suitable provisions in the promotion rules for creating job opportunities for the dependents of the employees who die in harness. He also made it clear that in that connection circular No. 9 of 1979 dated 3-3-1979 has already been issued. It has been subsequently detailed in the letter referred above that the management had accepted some of the demands of the association, while rest were under consideration. Consequently it has emerged that the scheme for appointment of dependents of the deceased employees on compassionate grounds was adopted by the management at the instance of the union. 19 dependents of the employees, who died in harness, were appointed by the management on compassionate grounds, between June, 1981 to June, 1996, claims the claimant union. In its written statement the management opted not to rebut these facts. Therefore, it is evident that the scheme was adopted by the management at the instance of the claimant union and a few of the dependents of the employees, who died in harness, were appointed on compassionate grounds under the scheme.

17. A shift came in the policy of the management when a decision was taken to provide disability and financial assistance to its employees in 1985. A scheme for compassionate gratuity was formulated and adopted in the year 1990. Staff Welfare Fund was created and guidelines for its administration were issued by the management on 28-12-1990, which fund was raised in 1991. Moved by the changed scenario the management decided not to make any new appointment on compassionate grounds. Jai Narain Singh expired on 7-6-93, Shri Bansu expired on 26-4-96, Partap Singh expired on 18-4-97, Shri K. Sampath breathed his last on 8-4-98, Bhagwan Singh left for his heavenly abode on 19-11-98 and Shri C.L. Ram met his death on 15-5-2000. All of them died in harness. Their dependents, namely, Mahender Singh, Naresh Kumar, Rakesh Kumar, Smt. K. Sanpath, Vivek Kumar and Sanjay Kumar Ram, who were sons and widow of the aforesaid deceased employees, made applications for appointments on compassionate grounds. Their applications were declined by the management and as such the union took up their cause and raised demand letter dated 30-10-2000 in that regard.

18. Dependents of the deceased employees filed their writ petitions before the High Court of Delhi, when the appropriate Government refused to refer the dispute for adjudication, on receipt of failure report from the Conciliation Officer. At the cost of repetition, it is said that the appropriate Government was commanded by High Court of Delhi to refer the dispute for adjudication and in compliance of the missives so given, the present dispute was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. Therefore, it is evident that when the management took a decision not to make any new appointment on compassionate grounds and rejected the applications of the aforesaid dependents of the deceased employees, the cause was taken up by the claimant union and a demand was raised in that regard before the Conciliation Officer. As referred above, the scheme for compassionate appointments was approved and adopted by the management, in pursuance of threat by the union to go on strike. Consequently it is evident that the scheme for compassionate appointment was a result of collective bargaining and not a concession given by the management. When the management took a decision not to make appointment in pursuance of the said scheme, the tension started in the circles of the union. It came to the light that a difference arose between the management and the union, who was representative of the workmen in connection with non employment of the dependents of the deceased employees, who died in harness. That dispute was also relating to the conditions of the services of the employees, who were given assurance of appointment of their dependents, on compassionate grounds in case they die in harness. That condition of service was withdrawn by the management when, it took a decision not to make new appointment on compassionate grounds. Therefore, it is evident that there were apprehension of industrial unrest. Such unrest falls within the ambit of apprehended dispute. The apprehended dispute was raised by the union before the Conciliation Officer on 30-10-2000. Consequently it is evident that when the appropriate Government took a decision not to refer this apprehended dispute for adjudication to this Tribunal, at that juncture the union was recognized union of the employees of the management. The union was competent to raise that apprehended dispute before the conciliation officer. Objection raised by the management that the union was not the representative of the families of the deceased employees is uncalled for.

19. When demand was raised by the union before the management as well as before the Conciliation Officer, at that juncture union was the recognized union of the employees of the establishment. A dispute came in forefront when the management opted not to make any appointment on compassionate grounds and rejected the application of the aforesaid claimants. That dispute was between the management and the union which was recognized union, of the employees of the establishment. Therefore, the dispute so raised was also an existing dispute, since it related to non employment of the dependents of the deceased employees who died in harness or it was relating to the terms/conditions of the employment of the employees who breathed their last, while in service of the management. Resultantly the dispute raised was an industrial dispute and the union was competent to espouse at the appropriate forum and objection so raised by the management is uncalled for on that score too.

20. It is not a matter of dispute that the Scheme was approved and adopted by the management on 1-1-79. The claimant projects that this scheme was the result of collective bargaining while the management agitates that it was its unilateral act. Contention of the management stands belied when letter dated 19th of September, 1979 written by Shri M.N. Khushu, Deputy General Manager of the management, to the President, I.F.C.I. Employees Association, is scanned. It has been high lighted in that letter that the management have already accepted a some of the demands raised by the association, including an assurance to make suitable provision in promotion rules for creating job opportunities for the dependents of the employees, who die in harness. It has been conceded that in that connection administrative circular No. 9/79 dated

3-3-79 was already issued. Circular No. 9/79 dated 3-3-79 circulates the scheme for information of all concerned. Consequently, it is evident that the Scheme was not a unilateral act of the management. It was the result of collective bargaining exercised by the claimant union.

21. The scheme came into force on 1-1-79. In clause 2 of the Scheme board, Chairman, Corporation, dependent; employee, General Manager, and Joint General Manager are defined. The word "dependent" has been defined to mean a widow, a son, a daughter, a brother, a sister or any other close relative, nominated by the widow on whom she will be wholly dependent. "Employee" has been defined to mean a regular employee whether in the subordinate, clerical or officers cadre, whether confirmed or on probation and whether working full time or part time, but will not include temporary or casual employee. Clause 3 of the Scheme contemplates that the Corporation may, at its discretion appoint the widow or a son or a daughter of a deceased employee of the Corporation or a near relative, nominated by the widow on whom she will be wholly dependent and who will give in writing that he/she will look after the family of the deceased employee, if the widow or son or daughter or near relative, as the case may be, otherwise fulfils criteria for appointment under the Scheme. The appointment under the scheme shall be made only in clerical or subordinate cadre, viz. to the post of Clerk, Typist, Stenographer Gr. II, Telephone Operator, Telephone Operator-cum-Receptionist, Peon, Peon cum Chowkidar and Staff Car Driver.

22. Method of appointment on compassionate grounds has been provided in clause 5 of the Scheme. It has been mentioned therein that request for appointment under the scheme should be received by the corporation within one year from the date of death of the employee. It has been provided therein that if the dependent is a minor or does not possess suitable minimum qualification(s), his/her case can be considered within four years of the death of the employee, to enable him/her to so qualify in terms of age and/or qualification(s), provided that the dependent has made a request to the Corporation within a year of the death of the employee. Minimum age limit in all cases will be 18 years and the upper age limited will be as per practice from time to time for general candidates. Where no dependent of deceased employee, within the prescribed age limit, is available for employment, the General Manager or Joint General Manager may, at his discretion, relax the upper age limit upto the maximum of five years. In the case of a widow of the deceased employee, there will no age limit. To qualify for appointment in the cadre of clerks, a dependent should have passed Bachelor's degree examination in Art, Science or Commerce or its equivalent. However in the case of a widow of a deceased employee, minimum qualification could be matriculate or equivalent thereto. For the post of Stenographer Gr. II and Typist, the candidate besides having passed Higher Secondary or its equivalent qualification should fulfil the other criteria regarding the speed, accuracy or technical qualification as laid down from time to time for general candidates. For appointment to subordinate staff cadre minimum qualification shall be 8th standard. The applicant would not be required to undergo any written test for appointment, save and except that they will have to undergo a test in typewriting/stenography/telephone operating etc., in case of appointment to the posts of Typist, Stenographer or Telephone Operator etc. The applicant will be interviewed by a Selection Committee, to be constituted by the General Manager/Joint General Manager, in order to assess their suitability for a particular post. Appointment could be made against existing vacancies or in expectation of vacancies. In case where widow or son or daughter are already in employment, the Corporation, at its discretion, can consider giving employment to another son or daughter, after taking into account the individual circumstance of each case, that is, income of the member of the family already employed, the size of the family, the assets and liabilities of the family and other relevant considerations. In case there is no other son or daughter eligible for such appointment, the widow or son or daughter employed elsewhere and who is otherwise eligible for appointment in the Corporation, may be given the option of joining the Corporation. No appointment on compassionate grounds shall be made in officers' cadre.

23. As emerge out, the Scheme makes provisions for appointment of the dependents of the employee, who die in harness, in case application is moved within one year from the date of death of the employee. Minimum age limit for applicant is 18 years, while upper age limited is to be taken into account as per practice from time to time for general candidates. However, no age limit has been prescribed in the case of widow of the deceased employee. Qualifications for appointment to the post of clerical cadre is Bachelor's degree in Arts, Science and Commerce. But in the case of the widow of the deceased employee it could be matriculate or equivalent. For appointment to subordinate staff cadre the minimum qualification shall be 8th standard. Appointment can be made against existing vacancies or in expectation of the vacancies. In case a widow, son or daughter of the deceased employee is already in employment, application of other son or daughter can be considered at the discretion of the management, after taking into account the individual circumstance of each case, that is, income of the member of the family already employed, size of the family, assets and liabilities of the family and other relevant considerations. In case there is no son or daughter eligible for appointment, the widow or son or daughter employed elsewhere and eligible for appointment may be given an option to join the services of the management. These facts make it clear that by adoption and circular of the Scheme, the management made it clear that in the event of a death of an employee in harness, his dependent or widow would get an employment with the management against an existing or expected vacancy. Letter dated 19-9-79 makes it clear that the management had agreed to make suitable provisions in promotion rules for creating job opportunities for dependents of the employees, who die in harness. Consequently it is evident that the scheme carved out a right in favour of the dependent/widow of the deceased employee, who die while in service of the management, for compassionate appointment.

24. Industrial Finance Corporation of India Staff Welfare Fund Disability and Financial Assistance Scheme, 1985 came in force w.e.f. 1st of July, 1985 Every permanent employee was required to subscribe to that Disability and Financial Assistance Scheme and to contribute to the Disability and Financial Assistance Fund. Financial Assistance cannot be claimed under the said Disability and Financial Assistance Scheme as a matter of right. However, the management may give assistance by monthly payment equal to last pay drawn by an employee, subject to the maximum of Rs. 2500 and a minima of Rs. 500 PM. The said assistance shall cease from the date when dependent or relative of an employee is employed in the corporation on compassionate grounds. The said scheme was reinodeled in 1990 and assistance amount was enhanced to Rs. 4000 PM. Compassionate Gratuity Scheme was formulated in the year 1990 wherein gratuity upto the maxima of Rs. 15000 could be granted in case an employee dies in harness. Pension Scheme was formulated in 1994 by the Management

25. A claim was made by the management that in view of the schemes formulated and adopted by the management, a decision was taken that no new appointment on compassionate ground could be made. Question for consideration comes as to whether the schemes, formulated and adopted by the management, which are referred above, can be equated with the benefits of compassionate appointments. Answer lies in negative. As referred above assistance in financial assistance scheme shall cease to apply from the date when any dependent or relative of an employee gets a job with the management on compassionate grounds. This proposition, which is provided in clause 8 of Disability and Finance Assistance Scheme, 1985, makes it clear that the management nowhere harps on the issue that aforesaid financial assistance scheme can be equated with the benefits of an appointment on compassionate grounds. Even otherwise the Apex Court in Balbir Kaur's case [2000(II) LLJ(1)] had ruled that family benefit scheme cannot be in anyway equated with the benefit of compassionate appointments. The sudden jerk in the family by reason of the death of the bread-earner can only be absorbed by some lumpsum amount being made available to the family. This is rather unfortunate but this is a reality. The feeling of security drops to zero on the death of the bread-earner and insecurity thereafter reigns and it is at that juncture if some lumpsum amount is made available with a compassionate appointment, the grief stricken family may find some solace to the mental agony and manage its affairs in the normal course of events. It is not that monetary benefits would be the replacement of the bread-earner, but that would undoubtedly bring some solace to the situation. As announced by the Apex Court in the precedent referred above, family benefit schemes cannot be equated to the benefit of compassionate appointments. Therefore, the contention of the management that decision was taken not to appoint anyone on compassionate grounds, in view of the family benefits schemes, detailed above, is unfortunate one.

26. Jai Narayan met his death on 6th of June, 93. His widow Risali had moved an application on 21-6-93, detailing therein that on account of sudden demise of her husband her family had lost a bread earner. Her son Mahender Singh was educated upto matriculation and about 32 years of age. She requested that he may be given suitable employment on compassionate grounds, so that grief stricken family may get a respite. General Secretary, of the union also Wrote to the management on 6th of September, 93 pleading that Mahender Singh son of Late Jai Naryan may be given appointment as sub-staff on compassionate grounds. The request so made was declined by the management.

27. Banarsi Dass was working as a sweeper-cum-farash with the management, who met an untimely death on 26-4-96. His widow, namely, Prem Devi moved an application on 13-5-96 seeking appointment of her son Naresh Kumar on compassionate grounds. It was detailed in the application that she is a poor, helpless and illiterate lady, having five children. She was having no means of livelihood. Her son Naresh Kumar was 8th standard pass. She requested that job on compassionate ground may be given to him so that her family may meet two ends. Application moved by Smt. Prem Devi was declined by the management. Letter dated 6-9-96 was addressed to her detailing therein that her application was considered and it was not possible to accept her request, in pursuance of the existing rules. Consequently it is emerging over the record that application of Smt. Prem Devi, for appointment of her son Naresh on compassionate ground, was considered and the management opted to decline it only on the ground that it was not possible to appoint her son on compassionate ground, in view of the existing rules.

28. Shri Partap Singh was employed as Subedar Gr.I with the management, who left for his heavenly above on 18-4-1997. He was survived by his widow and six children. On 19-5-97 Smt. Phoolwati widow of Partap Singh moved an application for compassionate appointment of her son Rakesh in the management. She detailed in the application that she was 50 years of age and suffering from bronchitis, asthma, besides other ailment. She was having no source of income. Her son Rakesh was aged 26 years and a non-matric. She claimed for appointment of her son on compassionate ground in sub-staff cadre. Letter dated 3-6-97 was written by the management informing her that she can be given financial assistance under disability and financial assistance scheme. It was informed that she was entitled to assistance to the tune of Rs. 2500 PM and was asked whether she was willing to seek financial assistance. Letter dated 28-7-97 was written to Phoolwati informing her that it was not possible to accept her request for appointment of her son on compassionate grounds. She again wrote to the management on 3-9-97 requesting appointment of her son on compassionate grounds, which request was declined vide letter dated 23-9-97.

29. Sampath expired on 8-4-98 due to an accident. On 27-4-98 his widow wrote to the management that she has brought up her two children aged about 11 years and 7 years respectively. She projected that she was matriculate. She sought financial assistance under disability and financial assistance scheme, besides appointment for herself on compassionate grounds. Her request was also declined by the Management.

30. Shri Bhagwan Dass expired on 19-11-98, while serving the management. He was survived by his widow, one daughter and two sons. Maya Devi widow of Bhagwan Dass moved an application for 22-3-99 for appointment of her son Vivek Kumar on compassionate grounds. She detailed therein that her daughter Monika is physically challenged, who cannot walk and eat without help of others. She claims that she herself was suffering from brain tumour and skin disease. She projects that her son Vivek Kumar was 20 years of age and educated upto 8th standard. She requested for his appointment on compassionate grounds. On 3-5-99 she was informed that it was not possible to appoint her son on compassionate grounds. She was further advised to have assistance under disability and financial assistance scheme.

31. Chotey Lal Ram was serving as Sweeper with the management, who met his death on 15-5-2000 in an accident. He was survived by his widow, his mother, three sons and one daughter. His widow Tashmani wrote a letter on 4-7-2000, seeking appointment of her son Sanjay Kumar Ram on compassionate grounds. Her son was 18 years of age and 8th standard pass, on the date of application, moved by Smt. Tashmani. On 6-9-2000 she was informed that appointment of her son on compassionate ground was not possible. However, she was advised to have assistance under disability and financial assistance scheme.

32. The object of the Scheme is to grant appointment to a dependent family member of an employee dying in harness or who retired on medical grounds, thereby leaving his family in penury and without means of livelihood. The Scheme is to relieve the family of the employee concerned from financial destitution and to help it get over the emergency. Appointment on compassionate grounds are to be made in such a way that persons appointed to the post do have essential educational and technical qualifications and experience required for the post. An application for compassionate appointment is not to be rejected merely on the ground that the family of the employee has received the benefits under various welfare schemes. While considering a request for appointment on compassionate grounds, a balanced and objective assessment of financial condition of the family has to be made, taking into account its assets and liabilities (including the benefits received in various welfare schemes) and all other relevant factors such as number of earning member, size of the family, age of the children and the essential needs of the family. Compassionate appointment should be made available to the person concerned, if there is a vacancy and he or she is found eligible and suitable under the Scheme. An application for compassionate appointment, consequent on death of a group "D" staff, is to be considered with sympathy, by applying relaxed standards, depending, on facts and circumstances of the case. Such appointments are to have precedence over absorption of surplus employees and regularization of daily wage/casual workers.

33. The Apex Court in G. Anantha Rajeshwara Rao [1994 (I) SCC 192] had considered the scheme of compassionate appointments formulated by the Government of India and ruled that appointment on grounds of descent clearly violates Article 16(2) of the Constitution, but if the appointment is confined to the son or daughter or widow of the Government servant who died in harness, who need immediate appointment on the ground of immediate need of assistance in the event of there being no other earning member in the family to supplement the loss of income from the bread winner to relieve the economic distress of the members of the family, it is unexceptionable. Again in Umesh Kumar Nagpal [JT1994(3)SC 525], the Apex Court considered the scheme and laid down following principles in that regard.

(1) Only dependents of an employee dying in harness, leaving his family in penury and without any source of livelihood, can be appointed on compassionate grounds.

(2) The posts in group "C" and "D" are the lowest posts in non manual and manual categories and hence those posts alone can be offered on compassionate grounds.

(3) The whole object of granting compassionate appointments is to enable the family to tide over the sudden crisis and to relieve the family of the deceased from financial destitution and to help it get over the emergency.

(4) Offering compassionate appointments as a matter of course, irrespective of financial condition of the family of the deceased or medically retired government servant, is legally impermissible.

(5) Neither the qualification of the applicant (dependent family member) nor the post held by the deceased or medically retired government servant is relevant. If the applicant finds it below his dignity to accept the post offered, he is free not to accept it. The post is not to be offered to cater his status but to see family through the economic calamity.

(6) Compassionate appointment cannot be granted after lapse of a reasonable period and it is not a vested right which can be exercised at any time in future, and

(7) Compassionate appointment cannot be offered by an individual functionary on an ad hoc basis.

34. In Asha Ram Chander Ambedker and others [JT1994 (2) SC 183] the Apex Court ruled that the High Courts and Administrative Tribunals cannot give directions for appointment of a person on compassionate ground but can merely direct consideration of the claim for such appointment. In Dinesh Kumar [JT 1996(5) SC 319] and Smt. A. Radhika Therumalai [JT 1996 (9) SC 197] it was announced that appointment on compassionate ground can be made only, if a vacancy is available for that purpose. In Rami Devi and others [JT 1996(6) SC 646] it was ruled that if the scheme relating to appointment on compassionate ground is accepted to all sort of casual, ad hoc employees, including those who are working as apprentice, then the scheme cannot be justified on constitutional grounds.

35. Catena of decision were considered by the Apex Court in Mohd. Rajodian [2003(7)SCC 511] and it was laid therein that the purpose of providing compassionate appointments is to mitigate the hardship, caused due to sudden death of the bread winner in the family. It is to relieve the distress of the family that such appointments are made. But these considerations cannot operate when the application is made after a long delay. In Ankur Gupta [2003 (7)SCC 704] the Apex Court reiterated that appointment on compassionate grounds cannot be claimed as a matter of right. In Somveer Singh [2007(4)SCC 778] it was laid that appointment on compassionate ground is an exception carved out of the general rule that recruitment to public service is to be made in a transparent and acceptable manner, providing opportunity to all eligible persons to participate in the selection process. Such appointments are required to be made on the basis of open invitation of applications and merit. Dependents of employees who died in harness do not have any special or additional claim to public services other than the one conferred if any, by the employer. The claim for compassionate appointment and the right, if any, is traceable only to the claimant, out of the executive instructions, rules etc. framed by the employer in the matter of providing employment on compassionate grounds. There is no right of whatsoever nature to claim compassionate appointments on any ground other than the one, if any, conferred by the employer by way of schemes or instructions, as the case may be. The court made it clear that the whole object of granting compassionate employment is thus to enable the family to tide over the sudden crisis. The object is not to give a member of such family a post much less than the post held by the deceased. In M. T. Latheesh [2006 (7)SCC 350], the Apex Court cautioned that indiscriminate grant of employment on compassionate grounds would shut the door for employment to the ever growing population of an unemployed youth.

36. Now it would be considered whether the management was justified in rejecting the applications of the aforesaid dependents of the deceased employees seeking appointment on compassionate grounds. As emerge over the record, the applications were rejected by the management simply on the ground that it was not possible to accept their request for appointment on compassionate grounds, in view of the existing rules. The management became oblivious of the fact that the Scheme for appointment of the dependents of deceased employees on compassionate ground was in existence. As detailed above, the Scheme is an integral part of the service conditions of the employees, employed with the management. At no point of time, the Scheme was withdrawn by the management. No settlement was ever arrived at between the parties to change the Scheme. No notice was ever served by the management, declaring its intention to change the Scheme. Therefore, it is evident that the Scheme is in existence and when applications of the aforesaid dependents of the deceased employees were under consideration with the management, its lost sight of that fact. Management remained oblivious of that fact and formed an opinion that appointment on compassionate grounds was not possible.

37. At no point of time, when applications of the aforesaid dependents of the deceased employees, who died in harness, were under consideration the management never considered their family background, financial position, the circumstance that the family was in crisis and there was necessity to relieve the family from reaching the stage of punity. The management was moved by the circumstance that disability and financial assistance schemes were there to relieve family of the deceased employees from distress, in which they were pushed on account of sudden demise of their bread winners. Mere receipt of usual family pension and other dues of the deceased employee by his heirs was not sufficient to deny the claim for compassionate appointments. In Kanwar Parkash Sahu [1987(55)FLR 143], High Court of Allahabad was seized with such a situation, wherein it was concluded that mere receipt of usual family pension and other dues would not come in the way of a dependent of the deceased employee seeking appointment on compassionate grounds.

38. In Jai Singh [2007 Ind. Law (Delhi) 1384] High Court of Delhi had to consider the scheme for compassionate appointments. It was ruled, relying the precedent in Govind Parkash Vartha [2005 (10) SCC 289], that the scheme of compassionate appointment is over and above whatever is admissible to legal representative of the deceased employee as benefits of service, which one gets on the death of the employee. Therefore, compassionate appointment cannot be refused on the ground that any member of the family received the amount admissible under the rules. Here in the case the management was moved by the facts that disability and financial assistance schemes were in existence and by adverting to the benefits of those schemes families of the deceased employees would have relieved themselves from the distress, occurred on account of death of their bread winners. It is evident that the management had wrongly refused compassionate appointments to the aforesaid dependents of the deceased employees. There was no substance in the action of the management when applications of the aforesaid dependents of the deceased employees were declined by the management.

39. Claimant union projected a situation that the management reduced the existing cadre of group "C" and group "D" employees working with it. It was pleaded that on 30-6-81 there were 34% employees in officer cadre, 47% employees in group "C" Cadre and 19% employees in group "D" cadre. Adopting the policy of reduction of the strength of group "C" and group "D" employees, the management succeeded in maintaining the Strength of 64% officers, 26% employees of group "C" category and 10% employees of group "D" category, as on 30-9-05. The management had failed to rebut that proposition presented by the claimant union. Therefore, it is evident that with the passage of time strength of group "C" and group "D" employees, working with the management was considerably reduced.

40. To avoid employment in group "D" cadre posts, such as peon -cum-chowkidar, sweeper and peon etc., who were to perform jobs of sweeping, dusting, cleaning and watch and ward duties at the office premises of the management, the management employed various contract labours. There were twenty two persons employed as contract labour for doing cleaning and dusting duties inside the premises of the management, at its head quarter at New Delhi. There were thirtyone persons exclusively doing watch and ward and fire fighting duties at head quarter of the management at New Delhi. It has been claimed that seven workers employed as contract labour for operation of lifts at head quarter premises of the management, here in New Delhi. Ten security guards were employed on watch and ward duties at the Mumbai Office of the managements, besides seven persons employed as peon and seven persons as sweeper, all engaged through contractor. At Ahmedabad office three security guards and two sweepers were employed as contract labour, in Hyderabad office three peon, two sweeper and four security guards were employed as contract labour. Two security guards were employed as contract labour at the Chandigarh office, while two security guards and one sweeper were employed as contract labour at Lucknow office of the management. There were two sweeper and four security guards employed as contract labour at Kolkata office, two security guards at Kochi office, three security guards and two sweepers were employed at Bangalore office of the management. There were three security guards in Chennai office, besides one sweeper employed at Bhopal office, three security guards were employed at Patna office alongwith one sweeper, one peon was employed at Panji office as a contract labour by the management. Management could not dispel these facts, presented by the claimant union, when it opted to file its written statement.

41. On 9-12-76 Government of India issued notification under sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Contract Labour Act to prohibit employment of contract labour on and from 1st of March, 1977 for sweeping, cleaning, dusting and watching the buildings owned or occupied by the establishment, in respect of which the appropriate Government was the Central Government. Issuance of that notification and its applicability to the management was not at all a matter of dispute. It is also not a matter of dispute that the aforesaid contract labours were employed by the management in contravention of the notification referred above. The management tried to present a claim that in April, 2009 Government of India was fully apprised of the facts and circumstances of their right for exemption in respect of various provisions, notified under the notification referred above. It has not been brought in fore front that any exemption was available to the management to employ contract labour for the aforesaid jobs, when employment of contract labour was prohibited by the Government of India. Therefore, it is crystal clear that the employment of contract labour on jobs which were prohibited by the notification referred above was with a view to deny the claim of dependents of the deceased employee, seeking appointment on compassionate grounds. Consequently I am constrained to conclude that applications of the dependents of the deceased employees, who died in harness were declined by the management with ulterior motive. There was no justification on the part of the management, when request of the aforesaid dependents of the deceased employees were brushed aside by the management in cursory manner.

42. Naresh Kumar, Rakesh Kumar, Mahender Singh, Smt. K. Sampath, Vivek Kumar and Sanjay Kumar Ram moved applications in time seeking compassionate appointments, as dependents of the deceased employees namely, Banarsi, Partap Singh, Jai Narain Singh, K. Sampath, Bhagwan Das and Chotey Lal Ram. All of them were eligible for appointment in group "D" cadre and their families were in crunch when bread winners were lost by them. None was there in their families to provide support. Disability and financial assistance scheme was not to be equated with the benefits of appointment on compassionate ground. As detailed above jobs of sweeping, cleaning, dusting, watching of inside office premises and peon etc. were of perennial in nature and the management had employed contract labours to perform those jobs. Consequently it is evident that there were vacant posts available with the management in group "D" cadres. All of the dependents were having requisite qualifications for appointment to group "D" posts.

43. Except Mahender Singh, all other dependents of the deceased were below the maxima age, fixed for group D posts. Mahender Singh was 32 years of age on 21-6-93 when application was moved by his mother seeking compassionate appointment for him. Upper age for a general category candidate is 25 years and it can be released upto five years for SC/ST category. Granting that relief upper age for appointment for group "D" category can be up to 30 years. Mahender Singh was over age on the date when an application seeking compassionate appointment for him was moved by his mother, widow of deceased Jai Narain. Therefore, on the date of application, Mahender Singh was not eligible for compassionate appointment. His application could not have been considered by the management under the rules. Except Mahender Singh all other dependents of the deceased employee were eligible for appointment on compassionate ground, but their applications were declined by the management on extraneous considerations, despite vacant posts lying with it.

44. Admittedly Prem Devi moved an application on 13-5-96 seeking appointment of her son Naresh Kumar on compassionate ground. Phoolwati moved application on 19-5-97 seeking appointment of Rakesh Kumar on compassionate grounds. On 27-4-98 Smt. Sampath moved an application seeking appointment for herself on compassionate grounds. Maya Devi moved an application on 22-3-99 seeking compassionate appointment of her son Vivek. On 4-7-2000 Tashmani moved an application for appointment of her son Sanjay Kumar Ram on compassionate grounds. Applications of the aforesaid dependents of the deceased employee were declined by the management. Request for appointment on compassionate grounds cannot be entertained after a long delay when a family had come out of the situation of distress. No such facts are available with the Tribunal that as and when families of the aforesaid deceased employees could get over the tide. As detailed above, on account of obstinate behaviour of the management applications of the aforesaid dependents of the deceased employees were discarded, when they made a request for seeking compassionate appointment. There was no fault on their part, when their applications were brushed aside. The management disposed of their applications on extraneous considerations, which are found to be arbitrary, unjustified and uncalled for. By now a long period has elapsed. In case the Tribunal takes the view that the distress situation is over and applications of the aforesaid dependents of the deceased employees should not be considered for compassionate appointment, in that situation management would get benefit out of its own wrong. Therefore, all these facts are sufficient to command the management to consider request of the aforesaid dependents of the deceased employees for their appointment on compassionate grounds.

45. In view of the foregoing discussions it is evident that the scheme is still in existence, which is a part of service conditions of the employees of the management. In case an employee dies in harness, his dependent is eligible for appointment on compassionate ground in group "C" or group "D" posts, in accordance with the rules contained in the Scheme. The demand made by the claimant union in respect of employment of Naresh Kumar, Rakesh Kumar, Smt. K. Sampath, Vivek Kumar and Sanjay Kumar Ram is legal and justified. The management is under an obligation to consider their request for appointment on compassionate ground in pursuance of the Scheme, within a period of 30 days from the date when this award becomes enforceable. Mahender Singh is not entitled for appointment on compassionate ground, since he was over age on the date of application. An award is accordingly passed. It be sent to the appropriate Government for publication.

AWARD

Violations of statutory norms pushed Purshotam Dass Chhokkar in legal arena, for which act he was arrested by police of police station Old Faridabad, in case FIR No.682, registered for offence under section 420, 467, 471 read with section 120 B & 511 of the Penal Code. He remained in police/judicial custody from 13-12-97 till 20-12-97. He applied for leave for that period on the ground of illness of his wife. His leave application was sanctioned vide order dated 19-1-98. Subsequently his employer came to know about falsity in the leave application. He was charge sheeted on 19-1-2000. A departmental enquiry was conducted and he was dismissed from service w.e.f. 23-6-2000. Appeal preferred by him could not evoke any response. He raised an industrial dispute before the Conciliation Officer. Since conciliation proceedings failed, the appropriate Government referred the dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication vide order No.L-12012/119/2005-IR (B-II) New Delhi dated 17-4-06 with following terms:

"Whether the action of the management of Canara Bank in imposing the punishment of dismissal from service on Shri Purshottam Dass Chhokkar S/o Shri Ram Chhokkar Clerk, vide order dated 20-6-2000 is just and legal? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled to?"

2. Failure report dated 31-8-05 was submitted by the conciliation officer before the appropriate Government. On 31st of October, 2005, Purshottam Dass expired leaving behind his wife, one son and two daughters. Thereafter the dispute, referred above, was sent by the appropriate Government to this Tribunal for adjudication on 17th of April, 2006.

3. Claim statement was filed by his widow and children pleading that Shri Chhokkar was appointed as clerk with the management bank on 1-12-97. He was working at Ghaziabad branch of the Bank and was drawing his wages of Rs. 12500 p.m. while posted at Ghaziabad branch of the bank he applied for leave from 13-12-97 to 20-12-97 as his wife was not keeping well. Leave application was sanctioned vide proceedings dated 19-1-98. Incidentally he was taken into custody by the police for interrogation in a case registered at police station Old Faridabad. The leave application was supported by a medical certificate, which fact was accepted by the management bank, when leave was granted. On 19-1-2000 a charge sheet was served alleging therein that he sought leave on the ground of sickness of his wife, which leave was granted. It was further alleged that he was detained in police custody during that period. Allegations in the charge sheet were disputed by deceased workman, vide reply dated 25-2-2000. Enquiry Officer was appointed, who held proceedings on 22-3-2000 and 6-4-2000 and submitted his report dated 2-5-2000. It was claimed that deceased workman had not committed any misconduct, as alleged. He had submitted medical certificate alongwith leave application, which was acted upon and leave was granted. The doctor, who issued medical certificate, was not produced by the bank during the course of enquiry, to prove that the certificate was false or wife of the workman was not sick. No reasonable opportunity to defend was granted to the deceased workman. Procedure of enquiry was not explained to him. He opted to have assistance of Mr. Kalra, as his defence representative, who was working at Rohtak main branch. Shri Kalra was not relieved from duty to defend him and as such grave prejudice was caused to him. Complaint, which was received by the bank, was not supplied to him. He was not paid any subsistence allowance as per rules. For want of money, he could not effectively defend himself in the enquiry proceedings. Enquiry was completed in two sittings and procedure adopted was violative of principles of natural justice. The presenting officer prepared a statement and got it confirmed from the management witnesses instead of recording their evidence in presence of the workman. Statements were made by the witnesses behind his back. The Enquiry Officer did not act impartially. The order of the Disciplinary Authority as well as Appellate Authority were without application of mind. Findings of the Enquiry Officer were perverse. Appeal filed by the deceased workman was dismissed without application of mind. It was claimed that order of the Disciplinary Authority dated 20-6-2000 as well as of the Appellate Authority dated 19-12-2000 may be set aside and punishment awarded may be declared as null and void, as a consequence of which heir of the deceased workman may be declared as entitled to consequential benefits of full back wages from the date of punishment till the date of death of the workman.

4. Contest was given to the claim petition pleading that the industrial dispute is liable to be rejected, since it was referred after the death of Purshottam Dass Chhokkar. It has been pleaded that Shri Chhokkar moved an application for privileged leave for 8 days from 13-12-97 to 20-12-97 on the ground of alleged sickness of his wife. Subsequently it came to the notice of the bank that in that period he was under police custody in case FIR No. 682/97, registered at police station Old Faridabad for offences punishable under sections 420, 467, 468 read with sections 120B and 511 of the Penal Code. He availed leave on the ground of sickness of his wife, while he was under police custody. He was placed under suspension and charge sheet dated 19-10-2000 was served upon him for concealing material facts/making a false statement for availing leave. A domestic enquiry was conducted and full opportunity of being heard as well as to defend himself was given. The Enquiry Officer conducted the enquiry in accordance with the principles of natural justice and recorded his report on the basis of evidence produced before him. The deceased employee was supplied report of the Enquiry Officer to comment upon it but he could not give satisfactory reply. The Disciplinary Authority considered the grave misconduct and imposed punishment of dismissal from service. Appeal preferred was dismissed, since it was devoid of merits. It has been denied that documents were not supplied to the deceased workman and procedure was not explained to him by the Enquiry Officer. Full opportunity was given to him to defend himself. Subsistence allowance was paid to him, besides T.A. and D.A. for attending the enquiry. He was given an opportunity to produce his witnesses in defence, which opportunity was not availed by him. On 22-3-2000 he projected before the Enquiry Officer that Shri Kalra, his defence representative was unwell, hence, he could not attend the enquiry proceedings. Claim of the workman that enquiry was conducted in violation of the principles of natural justice was controverted by the management. It was projected that the enquiry was fair. Punishment awarded to him was proportionate to his misconduct. His appeal was considered and rejected, being devoid of any merit. The management claimed that the claim statement deserves dismissal and it may be dismissed.

5. On pleadings following issues were settled :

1. Whether there was no industrial dispute, since workman left for his heavenly abode before the reference was made?
2. As in terms of reference .
3. Relief.

6. Ashu Chhokkar, (WW1) tendered his affidavit in evidence. He was cross examined by and on behalf of the management. Shri Rajender Prashad (WW2) was also examined in support of claim. No other witness was examined on behalf of the deceased workman. Shri D.K.Sandhir (MW1) tendered his affidavit on behalf of the management. He was cross-examined on behalf of the workman. Shri B.B.Jha (MW2) also tendered his affidavit in evidence, who too was cross examined on behalf of the workman. No other witness was examined by the management.

7. Since virus of the enquiry was assailed on behalf of the deceased workman, it was thought expedient to hear the parties about legality and fairness of the enquiry. Vide order dated 22-9-09 enquiry was held to be fair, proper and in consonance of the principles of natural justice.

8. Parties were heard on above issues as well as on the proposition as to whether the punishment awarded to the workman was commensurate to his misconduct. Shri J. Buther, authorized representative, advanced arguments on behalf of the workmen. Shri V. P. Gaur, authorized representative, advanced arguments on behalf of the management. I have given my careful consideration to the arguments advanced at the bar and cautiously perused the record. My findings on the issues involved in the controversy are as follows :

9. It is an admitted case of the claimants that Purshottam Dass Chhokkar expired on 31-10-05. The present dispute was referred to this Tribunal on 17-4-2006. Therefore it is evident that Purshottam Dass Chhokkar met his death much prior to the dispute, being referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. Question for consideration comes as to whether there was any dispute existing or apprehended, which could be referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. For an answer to this proposition one has to see the definition of "industrial dispute". Clause (k) of section 2 of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (in short the Act), defines industrial disputes, which definition is extracted thus :

"Industrial dispute" means any dispute or difference between employers and employees, or between employers and workmen, or between workmen and workmen, which is connected with the employment or non-employment or the terms of employment or with the conditions of labour, of any person.

10. The definition of "Industrial dispute" referred above, can be divided into four parts, viz (1) factum of dispute, (2) parties to the dispute, viz.(a) employers and employees, (b) employer and workmen, or (c) workmen and workmen, (3) subject matter of the dispute, which should be connected with—(i) employment or non-employment, or (ii) terms of employment, or (iii) condition of labour of any person, and (4) it should relate to an "industry".

11. The decision of industrial dispute is worded in very wide terms and unless they are narrowed by the meaning given to word "workman" it would seem to include all "employers", all "employments" and all "workmen", whatever the nature or scope of the employment may be. Therefore, except in the case where there can be a dispute between the employers and employees and workmen and workmen, one of the parties to an industrial dispute must be an employee or a class of employees. The first point, therefore, to be noted, perhaps self evident, is that the phrase "employer and workmen", the plural may include singular on either side or any permutation of singular or plural, the masculine including the feminine. In order, therefore, to determine as to whether a controversy or difference or a dispute is "an industrial dispute" or not, it must first be determined whether the workman concerned or workmen sponsoring his cause satisfy the conditions of clause (s) of section 2 of the Act.

12. Clause (s) of section 2 of the Act defines the workman as follows :—

(s) Workman means any person (including an apprentice) employed in any industry to do any manual, unskilled, skilled, technical, operational, clerical or supervisory work for hire or reward, whether the terms of employment be express or implied, and for the purposes of any proceeding under this Act in relation to an industrial dispute, includes any such person who has been dismissed, discharged or retrenched in connection with, or as a consequence of that dispute, or whose dismissal, discharge or retrenchment has led to that dispute, but does not include any such person :—

- (i) who is subject to the Air Force Act, 1950 (45 of 1950), or the Army Act 1950 (46 of 1950) or the Navy Act, 1957 (62 of 1957), or
- (ii) who is employed in the police service or as an officer or other employee of a prison, or
- (iii) who is, employed mainly in a managerial or administrative capacity, or
- (iv) who, being employed in a supervisory capacity, draws wages exceeding one thousand six hundred rupees per mensem or exercises, either by the nature of the duties attached to the office or by reason of the powers vested in him, functions mainly of a managerial nature;

13. The first part of the definition gives the statutory meaning of the workman. This part of the definition determines a workman by reference to a person (including an apprentice) employed in an "industry" to do any manual, unskilled, skilled, technical, operational, clerical or supervisory work for hire or reward. This part determines what a "workman" means. The second part is designed to include something more in what the term primarily denotes. By this part of the definition, person (i) who have been dismissed, discharged or retrenched in connection with an industrial dispute, or (ii) whose dismissal, discharge or retrenchment has led to an industrial dispute, for the purposes of any proceedings under the Act in relation to such industrial dispute, have been included in the definition of "workman". This part gives extended connotation to the expression "workman". The third part specifically excludes the categories of persons specified in clauses (i) to (iv) of this sub-section. The third part connotes that even if a person satisfies the requirements of any of the first two parts but if he falls in any of the four categories in the third part, he shall be excluded from the definition of 'workman'. Not only the persons who are actually employed in an industry but also those who have been discharged, dismissed or retrenched in connection with or as a consequence of an industrial dispute, and whose dismissal, discharge or retrenchment has led to that dispute, would fall within the ambit of the definition. In other words, the second category of persons included in the definition would fall in the ambit of the definition, only for the purpose of any proceedings under the Act in relation to an industrial dispute and for no other purposes. Therefore, date of reference is relevant and in case a person falls within the definition of workman on that day, the Tribunal would be vested with jurisdiction to entertain it and the jurisdiction would not cease merely because subsequently the workman ceases to be workman.

14. For an existing or apprehended industrial dispute it must be between an employer and the workman. Clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Act empowers the appropriate Government to refer the dispute or any matter appearing to be connected with or relevant to the dispute whether it relates to any matter specified in the second schedule or third schedule to a Tribunal for adjudication. Sub-section (8) of the said section contemplates that no proceedings pending before a Labour Court, Tribunal or National Tribunal in relation to the industrial dispute shall lapse merely by reason of a death of any of the parties to the dispute being a workman, and such Labour Court, Tribunal or National Tribunal shall complete such proceedings and submit its award to the appropriate Government.

15. The provisions of sub-section (8) of section 10 of the Act gives effect to the proposition that the maxim 'actio personalis moritur-cum-persona' has limited application. The applicability of that maxim depends upon the relief claimed and the facts of each case. In the event of the death of the workman, during the pendency of the proceedings, relief of reinstatement, obviously cannot be granted. In V. Bhaskaran [1982 (1) L.J. 485] Kerala High Court has taken a view that if after having closed the dispute, the workman dies, his legal representative can further agitate and prosecute the dispute before the industrial authorities because, in law a legal representative is not a different person from the deceased, but only continues the person of the deceased. In Delhi Cloth and General Mills Limited [1985 (1) L.L.J. 36] the Apex Court ruled that when a workman dies during the pendency of the proceedings, his reinstatement becomes impossible. However, the Court can grant the appropriate relief by ordering the employer to pay his wages till the date of his death. Therefore, it is evident that on the date of the death of workman proceedings before any adjudicating authority, in relation to an industrial dispute, shall not lapse merely by reason of death of any of the parties to the dispute being a workman and the adjudicator is enjoined with a duty to complete such proceedings and submit his award to the appropriate Government.

16. However, the proposition is different when the workman expires even prior to the date when the dispute was referred for adjudication. When a workman dies while the dispute is in the conciliation stage before the Conciliation officer, the dispute will abate by reason of his death, since for raising a dispute it should be between an employer and a workman. On the death of a workman, dispute relating to his dismissal, discharge or retrenchment can be espoused by a union, since issues relating to his discharge, dismissal or retrenchment may affect the other workmen of the industry. In that situation when the dispute is espoused by a union, it can be referred by the appropriate Government and not otherwise. Here in the case the dispute under reference was not espoused by any union. It was raised under section 2-A of the Act. On account of death of Purshottam Dass Chhokkar, provisions of section 2A of the Act ceased to operate in his favour. Therefore, without espousal of the dispute by the union, the appropriate Government was not competent to refer it to the Tribunal for adjudication, on account of death of the workman. Provisions of sub-section (8) of Section 10 of the Act would apply to the reference and other proceedings, which are pending on the date of death of the workman before a Labour Court Tribunal or a National Tribunal and not before a Conciliation Officer. Consequently it is apparent that when Purshottam Dass Chhokkar met his death relationship of employer and employee between the parties came to an end and there was no dispute much less an industrial dispute, which can be referred for adjudication. The appropriate Government lacked jurisdiction to refer this dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication after the death of Purshottam Dass Chhokkar, for want of espousal by a union. The issue is accordingly answered against the claimants.

Issue No. 2 and 3.

17. First and foremost contention advanced on behalf of the workman is that charges against him were that he availed leave on false ground by suppressing the factum of his detention in police/judicial custody. Vide order dated 20-6-2000 punishment of dismissal from service was imposed upon him. It has been contended that the Disciplinary Authority did not consider as to how punishment of dismissal was just, reasonable and rational. Shri Buther argued that the order of the Appellate Authority, which is dated 19-10-2001, simply state that punishment awarded was proportionate to the charges. Though the Appellate Authority differentiated the precedent relied by the workman, yet he had not given reasons as to why his dismissal was proportionate to his misconduct. It has been agitated that the workman joined the management bank as a clerk on 1-12-97 and was dismissed from service w.e.f. 23-6-2000, vide order dated 20-06-2000. Criminal case launched against him resulted in his acquittal. Shri Buther argued that false ground of leave is not such a grave misconduct which may warrant dismissal, thereby depriving source of livelihood of the workman. He contends that misconduct of speaking lie and seeking leave on false ground will not justify punishment of dismissal. Contra to it Shri V. P. Gaur argued that the workman was arrested by police of police station old Faridabad on the evening of 13-12-1997 in case FIR No.682/97 registered for offences punishable under section 420, 467, 468, 471, 120B and 511 of the Penal Code. He remained in police custody upto 20-12-97 and thereafter he was remanded to judicial custody. He applied for privilege leave for 8 days from 13-12-97 to 20-12-97 on the ground of sickness of his wife. He presents that his leave was sanctioned vide proceedings dated 19-1-98. However, factum of his arrest and detention in police as well as judicial custody came to light subsequently. He presents that since the workman remained away from his duties on account of his arrest and detention in the said criminal case, it was incumbent upon him to inform his employer about that fact. Instead of informing his employer about his arrest and detention, he tried to justify his leave of absence on the ground of sickness of his wife. The employer believed workman and granted the leave. Subsequently when it came to light that he was detained in jail and he opted not to inform his employer about his detention in the said case, charge sheet was served upon him. He presents that bank is a service industry where services are rendered to its customers. Faith and confidence are of utmost importance for employees of the bank to render effective service to its customers. When employees opt to conceal factum of arrest and detention in a criminal case, they take their employer to ransom by concealing those facts. That conduct make them unworthy of reliance and the employer loses confidence in them. An employee handles money of the customers of the bank and in case he is not trustworthy then he may put the bank to loss and harm its reputation. It was contended by Shri Gaur that when confidence was lost by the bank in the workman under these circumstances punishment of dismissal from service was justified.

18. Right of an employer to inflict punishment of discharge or dismissal is not unfettered. The punishment imposed must be commensurate with gravity of the misconduct, proved against the delinquent workman. Prior to enactment of section 11-A of the Act, it was not open to the industrial adjudicator to vary the order of punishment on findings that the order of dismissal was too severe and was not commensurate with the act of misconduct. In other words, the industrial adjudicator could not interfere with the punishment as it was not required to consider propriety or adequacy of punishment or whether it was excessive or too severe. The Apex Court, in this connection, had, however, laid down in Bengal Bhatdee Coal Company (1963(I)LLJ 291) that where order of punishment was shockingly disproportionate with the act of the misconduct which no reasonable employer would impose in like circumstances, that itself would lead to the inference of victimization or unfair labour practice, which would vitiate order of dismissal or discharge. But by enacting the provisions of Section 11-A of the Act, the Legislature has transferred the discretion of the employer, in imposing punishment, to the industrial adjudicator. It is now the satisfaction of the industrial adjudicator to finally decide the quantum of punishment for proved acts of misconduct, in cases of discharge or dismissal. If the Tribunal is satisfied that the order of discharge or dismissal is not justified in any circumstances on the facts of a case, it has the power not only to set aside order of punishment and direct reinstatement with back wages, but it has also the power to impose certain conditions as it may deem fit and also to give relief to the workman, including award of lesser punishment in lieu of discharge or dismissal.

19. It is established law that imposing punishment for a proved act of misconduct is a matter for the punishing authority to decide and normally it should not be interfered with by the Industrial Tribunals. The Tribunal is not required to consider the propriety or adequacy of punishment. But where the punishment is shockingly disproportionate, regard being had to the particular conduct and past record, or is such as no reasonable employer would ever impose in like circumstance, the Tribunal may treat the imposition of such punishment as itself showing victimization or unfair labour practice. Law to this effect was laid by the Apex Court in Hind Construction and Engineering Company (1965 (I) LLJ 462). Likewise in Management of the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (1971 (II)LLJ 630) the 'Apex Court ruled that the employer made a mountain out of a mole hill and had blown a trivial matter into one involving loss of prestige and reputation and as such punishment of dismissal was held to be unwarranted. In Ram Kishan (1996 (I)LLJ 982) the delinquent employee was dismissed from service for using abusive language against a superior officer. On the facts and in the circumstances of the case, the Apex Court held that the punishment of dismissal was harsh and disproportionate to the gravity of the charge imputed to the delinquent. It was ruled therein, "when abusive language is used by anybody against a superior, it must be understood in the environment in which that person is situated and the circumstances surrounding the event that led to the use of abusive language. No straight-jacket formula could be evolved in adjudicating whether the abusive language in the given circumstances would warrant dismissal from service. Each case has to be considered on its own facts."

20. In B.M.Patil (1996(I)LLJ 536), Justice Mohan Kumar of Karnataka High Court observed that in exercise of discretion, the disciplinary authority should not act like a robot and justice should be moulded with humanism and understanding. It has to assess each case on its own merit and each act of fact should be decided with reference to the evidence recorded on the allegations, which should be basis of the decision. The past conduct of the worker may be a ground for assuming that he might have a propensity to commit the misconduct and to assess the quantum of punishment to be imposed. In that case a conductor of the bus was dismissed from service for causing revenue loss of 50 p to the employer by irregular sale of tickets. It was held that the punishment was too harsh and disproportionate to the act of misconduct.

21. After insertion of Section 11-A of the Act, the jurisdiction to interfere with the punishment is there with the Tribunal, who has to see whether punishment imposed by the employer is commensurate with the gravity of the act of misconduct. If it comes to the conclusion that the misconduct is proved, it may still hold that the punishment is not justified because misconduct alleged and proved is such as it does not warrant punishment of discharge or dismissal and where necessary, set aside the order of discharge or dismissal and direct reinstatement with or without any terms or conditions as it thinks fit or give any other relief, including the award of lesser punishment, in lieu of discharge or dismissal, as the circumstance of the case may warrant. Reference can be made to a precedent in Sanatak Singh (1984 Lab.I.C.817). The discretion to award punishment lesser than the punishment of discharge or dismissal has to be judiciously exercised and the Tribunal can interfere only when it is satisfied that the punishment imposed by the management is highly disproportionate to the degree of the guilt of the workman. Reference can be made to the precedent in Kachraji Motiji Parmar (1994(II)LLJ 332). Thus it is evident that the Tribunal has now jurisdiction and power of substituting its own measure of punishment in place of the managerial wisdom, once it is satisfied that the order of discharge or dismissal is not justified. On facts and in the circumstances of a case, Section 11-A of the Act specifically gives two folds powers to the Industrial Tribunal, first is virtually the power of appeal against findings of fact made by the Enquiry Officer in his report with regard to the adequacy of the evidence and the conclusion on facts and secondly of foremost importance, is the power of reappraisal of quantum of punishment.

22. Power to set aside order of discharge or dismissal and grant relief of reinstatement or lesser punishment is not untrammelled power: This power has to be exercised only when Tribunal is satisfied that the order of discharge or dismissal was not justified. This satisfaction of the Tribunal is objective satisfaction and not subjective one. It involves application of the mind by the Tribunal to various circumstances like nature of delinquency committed by the workman, his past conduct, impact of delinquency on employer's business, besides length of service rendered by him. Furthermore, the Tribunal has to consider whether the decision taken by the employer is just or not. Only after taking into consideration these aspects, the Tribunal can upset the punishment imposed by the employer. The quantum of punishment cannot be interfered with without recording specific findings on points referred above. No indulgence is to be granted to a person, who is guilty of grave misconduct like cheating, fraud, misappropriation of employers fund, theft of public property etc.. A reference cannot be made to the precedent in Bhagirath Mal Rainwa (1995 (I)LLJ 960).

23. Now I would turn to the facts of the present controversy, to assess as to whether punishment of dismissal awarded to the workman was commensurate to his misconduct. As emerge out of the record Purshottam Dass Chhokkar joined the management bank as a clerk on 1-12-97. He was dismissed from service w.e.f. 23-6-2000, vide order dated 20-6-2000. The workman was under custody/remand during the period 13-12-97 to 20-12-97 in case FIR No.682 of 1997 registered for offences punishable under Section 420, 467, 468, 471, 120B read with Section 511 of the Penal Code. He remained in police custody for 8 days. He moved an application for leave for 8 days for the period w.e.f. 13-12-97 to 20-12-97, on the ground of ailment of his wife. His leave was sanctioned vide letter dated 19-1-1998. Admittedly the management bank is a service industry which caters financial needs of its customers, handles their money in saving, current and fixed deposit accounts etc., issues negotiable instruments at their request, accepts negotiable instruments for its customers and makes advance of loan to them. Customers repose faith and confidence in a particular banks; before banking with it. In case that faith and confidence withers away, the customer will not deal with the bank, which will have prejudicial effect on the bank's business. Consequently a banking company has to maintain standards of its ethics and service, to serve its customers in a better manner. Employees of the bank have to adhere to high standards of conduct and work culture. Bank has also to maintain faith and confidence in its employees, with a view to inculcate work culture, efficiency, honesty, sincerity and devotion to duties. They have to maintain their work and conduct as punctilio of higher code in order to give efficient service to its customers and that too to their satisfaction.

24. Purshottam Dass Chhokkar served the Bank as a Clerk. He was arrested in a case of forgery and cheating relating to the business transactions of a bank. He opted not to inform his employer when a criminal case was lodged against him at police station old Faridabad, Haryana. Involvement of a bank employee in a criminal case like forgery and chreating may project to its customers that it is not safe to deal with such an official and the bank where he is serving. Not only that a criminal case was registered against him. Shri Chhokkar was arrested and detained by the police. His arrest was found to be justified and allegations against him was taken to be well founded by the Magistrate, when he was produced before him. He was remanded to police custody for 8 days and subsequently was sent to judicial custody. These facts are suggestive that accusation against Purshottam Dass Chhokkar were of alarming in nature. He was not granted bail for a considerable long period. On his release on bail, he concealed those facts from his employer. He moved an application for grant of privileged leave for 8 days on a false ground of ailment of his wife. He was believed and his leaves were sanctioned. Later on Bank came to know about falsity in getting the leave sanctioned and Purshottam Dass Chhokkar was charge sheeted. Question for consideration comes as to whether bank can repose confidence in such an employee. Answer lies in negative. The circumstances in which Purshottam Dass Chhokkar was arrested, detained and those which led to moving of application for privileged leave are suggestive that Shri Chhokkar had not been true in his dealing with his employer. Instead of informing his employer about his arrest and detention in jail, he misrepresented facts and claimed that for a long period his wife was ill. These facts are suggestive that he is not man on whom confidence can be reposed. Therefore, it is a case of loss of confidence.

25. Since Purshottam Dass Chhokkar was holding a position of trust, it can not be a case of reinstatement. It is not expected from his employer to repose confidence in him. It would be dangerous and harmful for the bank to have such an employee in its service. Therefore, it is evident that the circumstances surrounding the case are not such where reinstatement of Purshottam Dass Chhokkar can be ordered.

26. Whether this Tribunal can proceed with a proposition that dismissal of Purshottam Dass Chhokkar can be converted into a punishment of discharge simplicitor? For answer to this proposition facts are to be appreciated again. Purshottam Dass Chhokkar joined service of the bank on 1-12-97. He rendered services with the Management bank for a small period. In December, 97 he was arrested which fact was concealed by him. He prompted his employer to sanction privileged leave to him on a false ground. His misconduct resulted in loss of service. Pushottam Dass Chhokkar died on 31-10-2005. These circumstances make me to think that it is not a fit case to convert his dismissal in a punishment of discharge simplicitor. Therefore, on merits too no indulgence is called for. Claim petition filed by his widow and children is liable to be dismissed. The issues are accordingly answered in favour of the management.

27. In view of above discussions, no relief can be granted in favour of the claimants. Their claim is rejected. An Award is accordingly passed.

AWARD

A scheme was formulated by Andhra Bank in 1983 to reimburse salary of a driver employed by the officers of the bank on their cars. On 1st of September, 2003 said scheme was substituted with a new scheme, under which an officer was entitled to get reimbursement at the rate of Rs. 5 per km. for a total 1000 km., travelled in a car to perform official duties. In pursuance of those schemes, the officers of the bank appointed personal drivers. Jagdish Kamat was employed as a personal driver by one of the officers of the Andhra Bank. He served that officer till 23-10-2001. When services of Shri Jagdish Kamat were dispensed with, he raised a demand for reinstatement. Ultimately he raised an industrial dispute before the Conciliation Officer. Since conciliation proceedings failed, the appropriate Government referred the dispute to this Tribunal, vide order No. L-12012/106/2005-IR(B-II), New Delhi, dated 30th of September, 2005, with following terms:

“Whether the action of the management of Andhra Bank for terminating services of Shri Jagdish Kamat, Driver w.e.f. 23-10-2003 is just, fair and legal? If not, so to what relief workman is entitled and from which date?”

2. Claim statement was filed by Jagdish Kamat pleading therein that he was employed as a driver by the management bank on 1-9-92 at its Zonal Office at Pusa Road, New Delhi. He used to drive the vehicle owned by the bank. At the time of joining his services with the bank, he was required to fulfil various requirements as to age and qualification etc. He inferred that he was employed as a regular driver. He performed duties with the management bank to their entire satisfaction. As and when senior officers of the bank visited Delhi he was put on duty with those officers. His work and conduct were supervised by the management bank. On 23rd of October, 2003 his services were orally terminated. No notice or pay in lieu thereof was given to him. No retrenchment compensation was paid to him. He presents that his termination amounts to retrenchment, which is in violation of the provisions of Section-25 F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (in short the Act). According to him management has also violated the provisions of Section -25G and H of the Act. He claimed reinstatement of his services with continuity and full back wages.

3. Contest was given to his claim by the management pleading that there was no employer and employee relationship between the claimant and the management bank. An officer of the bank was at liberty to engage a driver and get reimbursement of his wages in pursuance of the scheme formulated in 1983. Subsequently when the said scheme was substituted with a new scheme on 1-9-2003 the officers were entitled to get reimbursement @ Rs. 5 per km. for a total of 1000 km. Services of a drivers are utilized by the officers purely in their personal capacity, as their personal drivers. The drivers are paid by the officers out of allowance drawn by them. They are being reimbursed for the said amount. Under these circumstances there was no industrial relationship between the claimant and the management, entitling the workman to raise a demand of his reinstatement in services. It is pleaded that there was no question of terminating the services of the claimant by the bank, at any point of time. When the scheme of reimbursement was substituted, the officer, who engaged Jagdish Kamat as a personal driver, had dispensed with his services. Under those circumstances Jagdish Kamat is not entitled to claim that dispensation of his service amounted to retrenchment. There was no liability on the part of the bank to follow the provisions of the Act. It is pleaded that claim of the workman for reinstatement with continuity and full back wages is liable to be dismissed.

4. Management abandoned the proceedings w.e.f. 2-5-2006. For various dates none appeared on behalf of the management. Hence management was proceeded ex parte vide order dated 12-2-2007.

5. Workman tendered his affidavit as his evidence. He had relied on documents Ex.WW1/1 to EX.WW1/4 in support of his case. No other witness was examined by the workman to substantiate his claim.

6. Arguments were heard at the bar. Workman presented facts in person. None was there on behalf of the management to raise submissions. I have given my careful considerations to the arguments advanced at the bar and cautiously perused the record. My findings on issues involved in the controversy are as follows:

7. Workman swears in his affidavit that he was employed by the management bank as a driver on 1-9-92. against a vacant sanctioned post. Prior to his appointment, his eligibility for being appointed as a driver was duly verified and ascertained by the management. Since the date of his appointment, he remained in continuous service with the management and drove its vehicles bearing registration numbers DL-6A 9403, DL-2CF6845 and DL2CB5862. The aforesaid vehicles are registered in the name of the management bank. During the course of his service, he was working under direct supervision and control of the management bank, through its officers. His leave was sanctioned by the officers of the management bank. He was under disciplinary control of the management bank. He was paid his wages in cash through vouchers, debited in the account of the management bank. He was also paid overtime allowance for out station trips by the management. He discharged his duties efficiently. He worked under Shri A.R.Murthy, Deputy General Manager and his successors, namely, Shri N.Narsimha, Shri S.K.Goel, Shri R.K.Reddy, Shri A.Murlidhar, Shri Subhash Chander Reddy and Shri A.B.S.N.Murthy. The job of driver is of perennial nature. He request the management for regularisation of his seervices, but his request was not considered. With a view to punish him, his services were dispensed with on 23-10-2003 orally. Prior to that he was transferred to Karol Bagh branch in March,2003, where he drove vehicle No.DL2J-7082. He rendered continuous service for 240 days in each calendar year. At the time of termination of his services no notice or pay in lieu thereof was given to him. No retrenchment compensation was paid to him. Termination of service was illegal and malafide. After termination of his services he could not secure an alternative employment despite his best efforts.

8. To get a relief, it is incumbent upon the workman to establish relationship of employer and employee between the parties. In order to prove that relationship, he testified that he was appointed by the management bank as a driver on 1-9-92 against a vacant and sanctioned post. When facts are appreciated, it emerged that the management bank is a nationalized bank, where appointments are made in accordance with the recruitment rules and procedure provided therein. Vacancies are advertised in newspaper for general public or requisition is made to employment exchange to sponsor names of suitable candidates. It is not case of the claimant that the management bank advertised vacancy for recruitment to the post of driver or his name was sponsored by the employment exchange. He nowhere claims that he took a test to secure employment with the management bank. It is not his case that an appointment letter was issued to him for his engagement as driver by the management.

9. He had proved document Ex.WW1/1 which is a visitors pass. It nowhere specifies that the workman was an employee of the bank. Letter Ex.WW1/2 was written by the claimant detailing therein that car No.DL2CJ 7082 met with an accident and he requested for supply of a claim form for getting it repaired. That document gives an inference that the aforesaid car was being driven by the workman. Assuming that the said car was registered in the name of the management bank, even then it does not specify that the workman was employed as a driver on the said car by the management bank. It is a matter of common knowledge that the bank reimburses salary of a personal driver engaged by an officer of the bank. In such a situation a personal driver, engaged by an officer of the bank, gets opportunity to drive car of the bank. It would not create any evidence in favour of a driver to make a claim that he was employee of the bank. The documents placed by the workman over the record simply give an inference that he drove the car registered in the name of the management bank.

10. In the month of February, 2003 a sum of Rs.4000 was paid to the driver working on car No.DL6CG6622, which was registered in the name of the bank. The claimant had relied photo copy of the voucher in that regard. That proposition simply suggests that a sum of Rs.4000 was paid towards salary of the driver who drove the car in the month of February,2003. It nowhere suggest that the said amount was paid to the claimant. This document nowhere espouse the claim of the workman. Assuming, though not admitting that this document suggest that in the month of February, 2003 claimant drove car No.DL6CG6822. Even that fact will not confer status of a driver, on the claimant as employed by the management. Therefore, the said document nowhere provide accolade to the workman.

11. The workman could not project that he was in the employment of the bank. Despite the fact that he could not establish his case, he placed reliance on precedents in E.Hussainbhai (1978 LIC 1264), Shivanandan Sharma, [1955(1) LLJ 688], Punjab Sugar Mills Company, [1955(2) LLJ 454], J.K.Cotton Spinning and Weaving Mills, [1955(2) LLJ 734], National Engineering Workers' Union, [1960(1) LLJ 659], Gammon India Limited, [1984(1) SCC 509], J.K.Cotton Spg. & Wvg Co. (AIR 1964 SC 737), Silver Jubilee Tailoring House [1973(2) LLJ 495], M/s. Shining Tailors [1983 (4)SCC 464], Narotam Chopra [1989 (2) SCC 97], Dhani Ram and Ors. [2007(8) SLR 131], Yamuna Shankar Sharma [2007 (3) SLR 450] and Municipal Board, Lakheri [2008(5)SLR 192]. Facts of the present controversy are different and distinct than the facts of the precedents relied by the claimant. It is not the case that his services were engaged by the bank through a contractor. To prove a relationship of employer and employee between the parties, the claimant ought to have established that he was employed by the bank. No such evidence came over the record, either through ocular facts or documents proved over the record. Consequently, the claimant cannot claim accolades out of the precedents referred above. Not to talk of absorption in the service of the bank, he is not entitled for any relief. An Award is accordingly passed. It be sent to the appropriate Government for its publication.

Passed on 16-12-09

Government of India vide Notification No. L-15012/8/97/IR(M) Dated 29-06-1998, by exercising its powers under Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (hereinafter referred to as the Act) referred the following Industrial dispute for adjudication of this Tribunal:—

“Whether the action of management to terminate the services of Shri Surmukh Singh by one month notice is illegal or justified? If not, to what relief the concerned workman is entitled to and from what date?”

The main dispute before this Tribunal is whether the law protects the services of the workman, who was appointed on adhoc basis with the determined nature and period of services? It is the admitted case that workman was appointed on-adhoc basis as L.D.C. As per the appointment letter issued to him, terms and conditions were very well mentioned in the letter. He was asked to opt to join the services on adhoc basis as per the terms and conditions of the letter. Thereafter, he consented to the terms and conditions of the appointment letter. On the consent of the workman, he was appointed on adhoc basis as L.D.C. When the regular recruitments as per the policy of the department, strictly under the rules were made, the services of the workman were terminated after one month notice as per the terms and conditions of the appointment letter. The workman challenged his termination on the grounds that one month notice for termination of his services was illegal and he was illegally terminated. I have perused the entire materials on record. It is the settled principle of service jurisprudence that adhoc appointment is as good appointment as the permanent appointment subject to the period for which it is appointed and any condition imposed on such appointment. The appointment letter, which was given to the workman and is Ex. M-1 on the file shows that appointment of the workman was on adhoc basis as a stop gap arrangement for the period till new incumbent have not joined the services. It was also made clear in the appointment letter that appointment is being made on ad hoc basis and there is no chance of his appointment being made on regular basis. This condition was also accepted by the workman before joining the services. Thus, there are two limitations on the ad hoc appointment. Firstly, the limitation of period for which this appointment is made and secondly any other reasonable lawful condition imposed in the appointment. When the lawful incumbent on the post joined, the adhoc appointment suo-moto terminated. The management has given one month notice and also shows the reasons for termination of the services as the new incumbent was selected by Staff Selection Commission and was provided with to the management for regular appointment. On his appointment, the services of the workman automatically terminated. Thus, there is no illegality in terminating the services of the workman after giving one month's notice on the joining of new incumbent, who was selected by Staff Selection Commission as per the rules. The workman is not entitled to any relief. Let Central Government be approached for publication of Award, and thereafter, file be consigned to record room.

AWARD

The matrix of the facts as culled out from the proceedings are as under :

1. The Government of India, Ministry of Labour by its Order No. L-31011/7/2001-IR(M) dated 10th August, 2001 in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub section (1) and sub-section 2(A) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 have referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication:

"Whether the action of the management of Mumbai Port Trust in staggering the weekly day of rest and also changing the shift timings of the workmen employed in Mobile Crane Section of Chief Mechanical Engineering Department w.e.f. 26-8-2001 is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the said workmen are entitled? and from which date onwards?"

2. To substantiate the subject matter made out in the reference, Claims Statements are filed by various Unions more precisely by Transport & Dock Workers Union, Mumbai, at Exhibit 11 stating and contending that, change made by 1st Party regarding service conditions in respect of working hours i.e. in respect of shift duty hours and weekly in respect of workers employed in Mobile Crane Section of Chief Mechanical Engineering Department of Mumbai Port Trust w.e.f. 26-8-2001 by notice dated 8th May, 2001 is illegal. According to this Union, duty hours were changed which affected on the service conditions with effect from 26-8-2001. Notice of change dated 11-1-2001 under Section 9(A) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 was given. Said notice was intended to effect change in Deployment pattern, weekly day of rest in respect of persons employed in Mobile Crane Section of Chief Mechanical Engineering Department. It is stated that, it was going to affect on weekly off by which all employees working in the Mobile Crane Section of Chief Mechanical Engineering Department shall observe staggered weekly off rest in 3 months -Roster in place of existing fixed weekly off rest of Sunday. Said notice was opposed by the Union as it was affecting on service conditions of the employees working in that section. It is stated that, Union by letter dated 25-1-2001 approached the Regional Labour Commissioner (Centre), Mumbai and requested him to consider the protest of the Union. According to Union Assistant Labour Commissioner/Conciliation Officer (Centre) called the parties and fixed date for discussion of the proposed change. According to Union without following due process of law 1st Party put a notice on the Notice Board dated 8-5-2001 informing Mobile Crane Section of Chief Mechanical Engineering Department (Operational/Repairs/Maintenance) that, their working hours and weekly off rest will be changed i.e. Sunday erstwhile fixed week day of rest was proposed to be staggered. It is stated that, this change in service conditions will be effected from 1-6-2001. It is stated that, said letter was received by the Union which according to Union is illegal change and Union by letter dated 11-5-2001 addressed to the Regional Labour Commissioner (Centre), Mumbai, and decided to oppose the said proposed change in service conditions by 1st Party and requested Regional Labour Commissioner (C) to advise Mumbai Port Trust not to introduce the said changes. On receipt of the said letter Assistant Labour Commissioner (C) informed all the concerned Unions and 1st Party that, he will hold Conciliation proceedings on 1st June, 2001 on the dispute raised by the Union and called them to attend it. 1st Party attended the Conciliation proceedings. However, when said was under consideration the change was communicated by 1st Party in service conditions in respect of weekly off rest and shift timings w.e.f. 26-8-2001 which according to Union is illegal change. So it is prayed that the said be declared as illegal and request to direct 1st Party to withdraw the said change in service conditions which is brought into effect from 26-8-2001 in Mobile Crane Section of Chief Mechanical Engineering Department of Mumbai Port Trust.

3. Other Claim Statements are filed by Secretary of Mumbai Port Trust General Workers Union at Exhibit 15 rather making out similar type of case and contending that, said decision taken by 1st Party in effecting change while Conciliation proceedings were going on, is illegal and pray to direct 1st party to withdraw it and direct 1st Party to give the benefit of the said change notice to the workers, in terms of money.

4. Another Union by name Mumbai Port Trust Dock and General Employees Union filed. Claim Statement at Exhibit 14 on similar lines and contentions and request to direct 1st Party not to effect the said illegal change as well as request to direct 1st Party to withdraw it and declare it as illegal change.

5. This is disputed by 1st Party and filed Written Statement at Exhibit 16 stating and contending that, it has introduced the said change by following due process of law. It is stated that, notice of change was given. It is stated that, it has prerogative to introduce the change for the benefit of it. It is stated that, the Union cannot challenge the said decision. It is denied that, it is illegal change. It is denied that, this Tribunal can direct 1st Party to withdraw it. It is denied that, 1st Party cannot introduce the change has happened in this case.

6. Rejoinder is filed by the Transport & Dock Workers Union at Exhibit 17 denying the contentions taken by the 1st party in the written statement.

7. In view of the above pleadings Issues were framed by my Ld. Predecessor at Exhibit 18 which I answer as follows:

| 1. Whether the action of the Management of Mumbai Port Trust, Mumbai, in staggering the weekly day of rest and also changing the shift timings of the workmen employed in Mobile Crane Section of Chief Mechanical Engineering Department w.e.f. 26-8-2001 is legal and justified? | No |
| 2. What relief the said workmen are entitled? | Change brought w.e.f. 26-8-2001 is declared as illegal change. |

REASONS:

ISSUE NO.1:

8. By this all the 3 Unions challenged the decision of change effected by the 1st Party which is Introduces with effect from 26-8-2001 regarding shift timings of the workmen employed in Mobile Crane Section of Chief Mechanical Engineering Department and staggering weekly off rest. According to 1st Party it has prerogative to make such change for its benefits. Whereas case of the Unions is that, since it affect on the service conditions of the employees working in that section, and since it is affecting on the workers, this change cannot be effected without following due process of law.

9. It is a matter of record that, said change was brought into effect from 26-8-2001 by which shift duty hours were going to change vis-a-vis weekly off rest was staggered. It is a matter of record that, before that, every Sunday was given as weekly off and there was different time schedule the workers working in that section. It is admitted fact that, as a result of said change weekly of was staggered and change was made in the working hours in shift timings of the workmen employed Mobile Crane Section and admittedly all the Unions challenged the said notice of change. Initially notice was given to 1st Party and on receipt of the said notice Unions approached Regional Labour Commissioner (C) who issue notice to all to hold discussions on it and call all to decide the said change. Accordingly, the Assistant Labour Commissioner (C), Mumbai, called the parties and fixed the date for conciliation. As far as this position is concerned it is not disputed by any side. Vague statement is made by 1st Party that it followed the procedure and has given notice of change and that, they have prerogative to make such change.

10. As far as notice of change is concerned we find it was given by 1st Party. However, decision was not taken by Chairman, MbPT while said notice was under challenge by the Unions and for that Central Labour Commissioner (Centre) held a meeting. For that Unions examined 3 witnesses viz. Nandkur D. Bhatkar at Exhibit 28, Chandrakant V. Joshi at Exhibit 31 and Jawant S. Ghat at Exhibit 34. All the 3 witnesses state that, notice of strike was given on 9-5-2001. They made out the case that, after strike notice, Conciliation proceedings started. Unions made out the case that, since notice of change given by 1st Party was challenged question of introducing change w.e.f. 1-2-2001 does not arise. All the Unions deny that, 1st Party has right to effect change in their service conditions. On that, 2nd Party closed evidence by filing Exhibit 35. Against that, Management examined its witness by filing affidavit his of its witness S.V. Salvi who narrates all the story as stated in the written statement. In the cross he admits that, it is true that letter dated 25-5-2001, produced with Exhibit 29(5) for effecting change was withdrawn. That means notice of change introduced by notice dated 11-1-2001 was withdrawn. Even he admits that, by letter dated 20-8-2001 change was introduced from 26-8-2001. He admits that, till that time workers were working from 8.00 a.m. to 1.00 p.m. and there after they were getting over time from 1.00 p.m. to 5.00 p.m. He admits that, as a result of said change it affected on over time given to the workers. He admits that, prior to that workers were enjoying Sunday as a week off. He also admits that by affecting that, Sunday as a weekly off were discontinued. He admits that, no additional work force was recruited to coupe up the work and on that 1st party closed evidence by filing closing purshis at Exhibit 37.

11. Written arguments are filed by 2nd Party at Exhibit 38, 40 and 41 by these Unions respectively which are replied by 1st Party by filing the same at Exhibit 42.

12. Gone through all those and the case made out by both.

13. Here evidence of 1st Party's witness and admissions given by him are worth to consider. The witness of the 1st party admits that, letter dated 20-8-2001 by which change was effected was withdrawn. That means there is no notice of change in existence when change was introduced. When there was no notice of change question arises, how change is legal one? Besides admittedly by letter dated 20-8-2001 change was introduced w.e.f. 26-8-2001 while the conciliation proceedings were going on and was fixed by Conciliation officer on 1-6-2001 though notice of change was displayed on Notice Board on 8-5-2001. That means said notice of change of proposed change was given by 1st Party on 8-5-2001 before the Conciliation proceedings were concluded by Conciliation Officer since he has fixed the date on 1-6-200. All this reveals definitely the said change is effected before Conciliation proceedings were concluded.

14. Besides the working schedule and staggering weekly day off is changed and it changes in service conditions of the employees working in Mobile Crane Section of Chief Mechanical Engineering Department. When said change is effected which affect on the service conditions of the employees working in Mobile Crane Section w.e.f. 26-8-2001 by which they are going to loose weekly off as well as overtime, in my considered view it is illegal change. According to me said change affect in service conditions and it cannot be changed unless decision of it was discussed by 1st Party with the Union and employees give consent or agree to that change. However, in the instant case though notice was given it was withdrawn and before Conciliation Officer who fixed it for discussions, change was introduced which is illegal change which going to affect in service conditions of the concerned employees working in that section. So I conclude that, it was illegal change. Even witness of the 1st Party admits that, notice was withdrawn and even he admits that, it affected on the service conditions of the employees who were working in Mobile Crane Section of Chief Mechanical Engineering Department. He admits that, they are going to loose over time and holiday on Sundays. So all this change which affects in employees working, in that Department, is definitely illegal change. So I conclude that, it is illegal change and answer this issue in negative.

15. When it is illegal change, it will be appropriate to direct 1st Party to withdraw it. However, it appears that, 1st Party introduced it w.e.f. 26-8-2001. It is not the case of the 1st party that, they have withdrawn the said change and have given benefits to the affected workers. So definitely said decision deprived the facility of weekly off and shift timings which is illegal which require to withdraw by 1st Party. So I direct 1st Party to withdraw the same and give benefit of it to the employees working in the Mobile Crane Section of Chief Mechanical Engineering Department by awarding monetary benefits against change in timings and weekly off which they were getting as per the service conditions before change under challenge was introduced.

16. So I conclude that, employees involved in the Reference working in the Mobile Crane Section of Chief Mechanical Engineering Department of Mumbai Port Trust who were affected by change notice dated 20-8-2001 are entitled to get benefit of working, as if they worked, as per terms and conditions which were prevailing before effecting the change under the challenge before effecting change w.e.f. 26-8-2001.

17. In view of the discussions made hereinabove I conclude that, Reference require to allow. Hence, the order:

ORDER

- a) Reference is allowed;
- b) it is declared that, the change notice of 1st party w.e.f. 26-8-2001 in staggering the weekly off rest and changing the shift timings of the workmen working in Mobile Crane Section of Chief Mechanical Engineering Department is illegal and not justified;
- c) I direct 1st Party to give benefit of overtime which was prevailing before change of the working conditions of the workers working in Mobile Crane Section of Chief Mechanical Engineering Department;
- d) No order as to its costs;

AWARD

National Medicinal Plant Board (hereinafter referred to as the management) was established in November, 2000. At the time of its establishment only one post of Chief Executive Officer was created. The work of the management was being managed through temporary deployment of officers and staff from Research Councils, established under the Department of Ayush, besides employment on short term contract and through outsourcing agencies. A staff car was purchased in March, 2002. However, no post of driver was created. The management engaged services of some supporting staff, besides a driver on daily wages/ on contractual basis. Abhey Kumar Singh was initially engaged as driver on daily wages and subsequently on contractual basis. On 26-9-2005 one driver was posted from Central Council for Research in Unani Medicine, on loan basis. Services of Abhey Kumar were dispensed with. He raised an industrial dispute before the Conciliation Officer. Since the conciliation proceedings failed, the appropriate Government referred the dispute for adjudication to this Tribunal, vide order No. L-42012/70/2006 -IR(DU), New Delhi, dated 19-3-2007, with following terms:

"Whether the action of the management of National Medicinal Plant Board in terminating the services of their workman Shri Abhey Kumar w.e.f. 29-9-2005 is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled to?"

2. Claim statement was filed by the workman pleading therein that he was appointed as driver by the management on 23-4-02. He worked there upto 31-8-2003. He was again appointed on 1st of October, 2002 for a period of three months. His services were extended from time to time and he worked with the management upto 31st of August, 2003. A driver came to serve the management from Ghaziabad and his services were dispensed with. After about 16 months, he was again employed on 27-1-2004 for a period of 89 days. His services were extended from time to time and he worked with the management upto 26-9-2005. He worked continuously for that period. He has completed continuous service for more than 240 days in a calendar year. On 26-9-2005 his services were terminated without any rhyme or reasons. No termination order was given to him. On that date a regular driver was employed and his services were dispensed with. At the time of termination of the services nothing was paid to him. He knocked the door of the Labour Department but adamant behaviour of the management resulted into failure of conciliation proceedings. He is unemployed since the date of his termination. He seeks reinstatement of his services with continuity and full back wages.

3. Contest was given to his claim by the management pleading that the workman was working on contractual/daily wage basis. He was employed by the management from time to time w.e.f. 23-4-2002 till 30-6-2003. He was again employed on 27-1-2004 on contractual basis. His services were extended from time to time and he last served the management till 24-9-2005, as detailed in annexure "A" filed alongwith the written statement. On 29-10-2007, services of Naseer Ahmad, a regular staff Car driver, was taken on loan from the Central Council for Research in Unani Medicine. Thereafter services of Abhey Kumar Singh were not required any further. The Department of Expenditure has not sanctioned permanent post of driver. It had given an approval for obtaining services of a driver from outsourcing agency. Since services of Naseer Ahmed were obtained the claimant left the job of his own. In case the management will fill up the post of driver from outsourcing agency in future and name of the claimant would be sponsored by outsourcing agency, the management will have no objection to engage him as a driver. The claimant is not entitled for any relief. His claim petition may be dismissed.

4. On pleadings of the parties following issues were settled:—

1. Whether there was no permanent post of driver with the management.?
2. Whether the action of the management in terminating services of the workman is legal and justified?
3. If not to what relief the workman is entitled.

5. Workman has examined himself in support of his claim. Prehlad Rai, Deputy Secretary, was examined by the management. No other witness was examined by either of the parties.

6. Arguments were heard at the bar. Workman had presented facts in person. Shri Neeraj Kumar A/R had advanced arguments on behalf of the management. Written submissions were filed by and on behalf of the parties. I have given my careful considerations to the arguments advanced at the bar and cautiously perused the record. My findings on issues involved in the controversy are as follows:

Issue No. 1.

7. Shri Prehlad Rai, Deputy Secretary swears that National Medicinal Plant Board was established in November, 2000. At the time of its establishment only one post of Chief Executive Officer was created. The work is being managed through temporary deployment of officers and staff from Research Councils, established in the Department of Ayush, on short term contract, besides engaging staff through outsourcing agency. The Department of Expenditure, Ministry of Finance, has given approval for outsourcing the services of driver and messenger vide I.D. No. 569/E-Coord.1/2004 dated 22-3-2004, conveyed by the Government of India, vide letter

No. A-11019/4/2003-M.R.Cell dated 6th of April, 2004. When Prehlad Rai was cross examined by the workman to purify his testimony, no questions were put to him to dispute the proposition that the Department of Expenditure, Ministry of Finance, Government of India, had only conveyed its approval to outsource the position of a driver. Consequently it is emerging over the record that testimony of Prehlad Rai remained unassailed on that issue.

8. Letter No.A-11019/4/2003-M.P.Cell dated 6-4-04 have been placed on record by the management. When this letter is perused it came to light that the Department of Expenditure, Ministry of Finance, had only granted approval to the management to out source the position of a driver. Only one driver could be outsourced by the management. Thus it is emerging over the record that Government of India had not permitted the management to recruit a driver in its services permanently. Only sanction was conveyed to them to outsource the position of a driver. It is crystal clear that under these circumstances the management was unable to employ a driver permanently.

9. Whether provisions of the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970 (hereinafter referred to as the Act) are applicable to the present controversy. For an answer it is expedient to have a glance over the provisions of Section 1 of the Act. Section 1 of the Act speaks of application of the Act to an establishment in which twenty or more workmen are employed or were employed on any day of the preceding twelve months as contract labour, or to every contractor who employs or employed on any day of the preceding twelve months twenty or more workmen. It has been provided therein that the appropriate Government may, after giving not less than two months notice of its intention so to do, by notification in the official gazette, apply the provisions of the Act to any establishment or contractor employing such a number of workmen less than twenty as may be specified in the notification. Therefore, it is emerging over the record that for applicability of the Act it is incumbent upon the workman to show that in the period when he was employed with the management, there were twenty or more persons employed as contract labour or the contractor from whom the services of the workman was outsourced, had employed twenty or more workmen, whose services were lend to the management and other establishments. No such evidence has come over the record. There is a vacuum of evidence on that issue that there were twenty or more workmen employed on contract basis with the management or the contractor, who gave the services of the workman to the management, had employed twenty or more workmen with the management or the like establishments. Consequently it is evident that provisions of the Act were not applicable to the management. It is not the case of the workman that by a notification under sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Act, the appropriate Government had prohibited employment of contract labour in the works of the management. Consequently, it is evident that the provisions of the Act are not applicable to the management.

10. As detailed above the Department of Expenditure, Ministry of Finance, Government of India, had only accorded sanction to the management to have service of a driver from out source agencies. No permanent post of driver was created. Under these circumstances it is evident that the management was not having a permanent post of driver. The issue is, therefore, answered in favour of the management and against the workman.

11. Shri Prehlad Rai concedes, during the course of his cross examination that the workman joined services of the management on 23-4-2002 and worked continuously till June, 2003. He further admits that initially the workman was paid his wages @ Rs.3412 PM for a period of six months and thereafter he was paid @ Rs.4500 PM. He further concedes that the workman again joined services of the management as driver on 27-1-2004. He remained in the services of the management till 24-9-2005. He admits that the workman worked continuously for a period of more than 240 days in a calendar year. He does not dispute the documents Ex. WWI/I to 52. He explains that no permanent driver could be employed since no post of driver was sanctioned. The workman rendered services honestly. No notice or pay in lieu thereof besides retrenchment compensation was paid to him.

12. Out of facts projected by Prehlad Rai it is emerging over the record that services of the workman were dispensed with on 26-9-2005. He explains that on 26-9-2005 a driver was borrowed from Central Council for Research in Unani Medicines on loan basis. When the said driver joined the services of the management, services of the workman were no more required. Consequently it is evident that the services of workman were dispensed with by the management on 26-9-2005. As admitted by Shri Rai workman had rendered continuous service for more than 240 days in preceding 12 months.

13. Shri Abhey Kumar Singh projects that initially he was engaged as a contractual driver by the management on 27-1-2004 for a period of 89 days. His services were extended from time to time and he worked with the management till 26-9-2005, the date when his services came to an end. He nowhere deposed that there was a selection committee, who conducted his interview in accordance with rules. It is not his case that permanent vacancy was available when he was called for selection for the post of driver. Not an iota of fact has been testified by him to the effect that post of driver was advertised in a newspaper or names were called from employment exchange. He nowhere speaks that at the time of his recruitment as driver, norms of reservation policy were followed. It has also not been shown that candidates of minority communities were considered, when his name was selected for appointment as a driver. Therefore, out of facts projected by Shri Abhey Kumar Singh, it has not come over the record that procedure prescribed for appointment to the post of a driver was followed.

14. A 'seasonal workman' is engaged in a job which lasts during a particular season only, while a temporary workman may be engaged either for a work of temporary or casual nature or temporarily for work of a permanent nature, but a permanent workman is one who is engaged in a work of permanent nature only. The distinction between permanent workman engaged on a workman of permanent nature and a temporary workman engaged on a work of permanent nature is, in fact, that a temporary workman is engaged to fill in a temporary need of extra hands of permanent jobs. Thus when a workman is engaged on a work of permanent nature which lasts throughout the year, it is excepted that he would continue there permanently unless he is engaged to fill in a temporary need. In other words a workman is entitled to except permanency of his service. Law to this effect was laid by the Apex Court in Jaswant Sugar Mills [1961 (I) LLJ 649].

15. As per facts detailed by Shri Abhey Kumar Singh, neither the vacancy was advertised in newspaper nor his name was called from an employment exchange. He admits that initially he was appointed for 89 days as a driver and thereafter he was appointed time and again against the said post. The Government of India had not sanctioned a permanent vacancy of driver. Consequently it is evident that he was appointed against a work of temporary nature only. A temporary workman would not acquire permanency of tenure merely because he is employed in a permanent department or given some benefit ordinarily enjoyed by a permanent workman. Such a proposition was laid in Rohtak Industries Limited Vs. Brij Nandan Pandey [1956(II) LLJ 444].

16. Some casual workmen employed in a Canteen, raised demand of permanency in service. The Tribunal directed that from particular date they should be treated as probationer and appointed in permanent vacancy without going into the question as to whether more than permanent workmen were necessary to be appointed in the canteen, over and above the existing permanent strength to justify the making of the casual workman as permanent, where they were working. Neither there was any permanent vacancy in existence nor the Tribunal directed for creation of new posts. When the matter reached the Apex Court, it was announced that the Tribunal was not justified in making these directions. The workman may be made permanent only against permanent vacancies and not otherwise, announced the Apex Court in Hindustan Aeronautics Limited Vs. their workmen [1975(II) LLJ 336].

17. In Uma Devi [2006(4) SCC 1] the Apex Court considered the proposition as to whether the persons who got employment, without following of a regular procedure or even from the back door or on daily wages can be ordered to be made permanent in their posts, to prevent regular recruitment to the posts concerned. Catena of decisions over the subject were considered and the Court declined the submissions of the workmen to be made permanent on the posts which were held by them in temporary or ad-hoc capacity for a fairly long spell. The Court ruled thus :

"With respect, why should the State be allowed to depart from the normal rule and indulge in temporary employment in permanent posts? This Court, in our view, is bound to insist on the State making regular and proper recruitments, and is bound not to encourage or shut its eyes to the persistent transgression of the rules of regular recruitment. The direction to make permanent—the distinction between regularization and making permanent, was not emphasized here—can only encourage the State, the modal employer, to flout its own rules and would confer undue benefits on a few at the cost of many waiting to compete. With respect the directions made in Piara Singh [1992(4) SCC 118] is to some extent inconsistent with the conclusion in para 45 of the said judgement therein. With great respect, appears to us that the last of the directions clearly runs counter to the constitutional scheme of employment recognized in the earlier part of the decision. Really, it cannot be said that this decision has laid down the law that all ad-hoc, temporary or casual employees engaged without following a regular recruitment procedure should be made permanent."

18. Taking note of some of recent decisions, the Apex Court held that the State does not enjoy a power to make appointments in terms of Article 162 of the Constitution. The Court quoted its decision in Girish Jyanti Lal Vaghela [2006 (2) SCC 482] with approval, wherein it was ruled thus.

"The appointment to any post under the State can only be made after a proper advertisement has been made inviting applications from eligible candidates and holding of a selection by a body of experts or a specially constituted committee whose members are fair and impartial through a written examination or interview or some other rational criteria for judging the inter se merit of candidates who have applied in response to the advertisement made. A regular appointment to the post under the State or Union cannot be made without issuing advertisement in the prescribed manner which may in some cases include inviting applications from the employment exchange, where eligible candidate get their names registered. Any regular appointment made on a post under the State or Union without issuing advertisement inviting applications from eligible candidates and without holding a proper selection where all eligible candidates get a fair chance to compete would violate the guarantee enshrined under article 16 of the Constitution."

19. In P. Chandra Shekhara Rao and Others [2006 (7) SCC 488] the Apex Court referred Uma Devi's Case (supra) with approval. It also relied the decision in Uma Rani [2004 (7) SCC 112] and ruled that no regularization is permissible in exercise of statutory powers conferred in Article 162 of the Constitution, if the appointments have been made in contravention of the statutory rules. In Somveer Singh [2006(5) SCC 493] the Apex Court ruled that appointment made without following due procedure cannot be regularized.

20. Here in the case workman was appointed as a driver for 89 days on contract basis. His appointment was extended from time to time. However, his appointment was not in consonance with the prescribed procedure, followed by the management in recruitment of a regular driver. The Apex Court in Uma Devi (supra) has ruled that "public appointment, unless it is in terms of relevant rules and after a proper competition among qualified persons, would not confer any right on the appointee. If it is a contractual appointment, the appointment comes to an end at the end of the contract, if it were an engagement or appointment on daily wages or casual basis, same would come to end when it is discontinued. Similarly, a temporary employee could not claim to be made permanent on the expiry of his term of appointment. It has also to be clarified that merely because a temporary employee or a casual wage worker is continued for time beyond the term of his appointment, he would not be entitled to be absorbed in regular service or made permanent, merely on strength of such continuance, if original appointment was not made by following due process of selection as envisaged by the relevant rules. It is not open to the court to prevent regular recruitment at the instance of temporary employees whose period of employment has come to an end or of ad hoc employees, who by the very nature of the appointment do acquire any right".

21. As detailed above Shri Abhey Kumar Singh was not employed in consonance with the rules. His appointment was on contractual basis, which was extended from time to time. Such an appointment comes to an end at the end of the contract or when it is discontinued. The workman had not acquired any right either to be reinstated or to be absorbed, merely on the strength of his continuation in the job. Therefore, it is evident that discontinuance of Shri Abhey Kumar Singh by the management cannot be faulted. In view of the law laid by the Apex Court in Uma Devi (supra) he cannot claim reinstatement in services on the strength of his continuing on the post of a driver. The issues are answered in favour of the management and against the workman.

22. Since Shri Abhey Kumar Singh was a contractual employee, whose contract was extended from time to time, that fact had not matured into a right for continuance in the service as a driver. He is not entitled for reinstatement in the service. No relief much less the relief of reinstatement can be granted in his favour. His claim is liable to be dismissed. The same is dismissed. An Award is accordingly, passed.

AWARD

Passed on 17-12-09

Government of India vide Notification No. L-4201-2/150/2000/IR(DU), dated 25-9-2000 referred the following industrial dispute under Section 10 of the Industrial

Disputes Act, 1947 (the Act in short) for adjudication to this Tribunal :—

“Whether the action of the Principal, Kendriya Vidyalaya No. IV, Mamun Cantt., Pathankot in terminating the services of Shri Baldev Raj, Mali S/o Shri Piarey Lal, w.e.f. 15-11-98 is just, fair, and legal? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled and from which date?”

After receiving the reference, parties were informed. Parties appeared and filed their respective pleadings. On perusal of the pleadings of the parties, the case of the workman in nut-shell is that he was appointed by the management as ‘Mali’ on 1-12-97 through an interview. His name was sponsored by employment exchange. He was getting Rs. 920 per month at the time of his appointment. His services were terminated without notice, or one month wages in lieu of the notice or other terminal dues. The termination of his services was against the provisions of the Act. On the basis of the above, the workman has requested for setting aside the termination order along with consequential relief for restoration of his services. The workman has also prayed for protection of his seniority and back-wages.

The management of Kendriya Vidyalaya appeared and contested the petition of the workman by filing written statement. It is denied by the management that workman was appointed after conducting the interview and his name was sponsored by employment department. The interview was scheduled to be held on 26-6-97. But one Baldev Raj filed a court case against Kendriya Vidyalaya. The interview was cancelled and no appointment was made on the basis of the interview held on 26-6-97. The services of the workman were taken as casual labour on daily waged basis. He was engaged by then Principal on 15-11-98. His services were terminated as the same were no longer required. Management has also challenged the nature of establishment of management as industry. Number of Apex Court judgements have been mentioned in affidavit to show that workman was not entitled for regularization of services.

Parties were afforded the opportunity for adducing evidence. Oral evidence was recorded and parties also preferred to file the documentary evidence.

On perusal of the oral evidence, it is clear that certain issues have been admitted by the management. It is admitted that workman had worked for 240 days in the preceding year from the date of his termination. It is also admitted that no notice or one month wages in lieu of the notice or retrenchment compensation was paid to the workman. The nature of work of the workman was need basis and the need was over. It was also stated by the witnesses of the management that need was over because the policy of the Government has been to take the services of group D on outsourcing. Army personnel were engaged on outsourcing at the place of the workman.

Date of appointment and termination are not disputed. The dispute for the procedure for selection as daily waged worker. The workman failed to file any appointment letter. He also failed to file any interview letter. On perusal of the entire materials on record including the documents filed by the management, it is evidently clear that interview for group D post was scheduled to be held on 26-9-97. Document also reveals that this interview could not be held because of court case filed by another Baljeet. The cumulative effect of oral and documentary evidence of both of the parties is that workman worked as a daily waged worker with the management. He completed 240 days of work in the preceding year from the date of his termination. His services were terminated because of the Government policy for having the work of group D employee on outsourcing. Before termination of his services no notice was given nor one month wages in lieu of the notice were paid. He was not paid lawful dues as well. The reasons for non paying the terminal dues, one month wages in lieu of notice as stated by the management is the change of Government policy. Now the question arises whether the policy of the Government can overrule the effect of legislation? The provisions of the Act require termination of any daily waged worker by giving a month notice or one month wages in lieu of notice and lawful terminal dues. These provisions of law cannot be by-passed by the departmental policy. If the department has adopted a new policy for having the services of group 'D' workman on outsourcing, it was condition precedent to retrench the services of the workman lawfully. The provisions of the Act does not bar the retrenchment of daily waged worker but regulates the termination. The termination of daily waged worker is regulated in the way that management can terminate the services of workman by giving a month notice, or one month wages in lieu of notice along with lawful terminal dues. If it is not done the termination of the workman will be illegal being against the provisions of the Act. As stated earlier, the provisions of the Act cannot be suppressed by the Government policy of outsourcing. Government can implement the policy but after lawful terminating the services of the workman. The services of the workman were not lawfully terminated, hence, the termination of the workman was illegal and void.

Whenever, the termination of any workman has been held to be illegal and void being against the provisions of the Act, there are two possible remedies available. The first remedy is reinstatement of the workman into the services with or without back wages. Another remedy may be a reasonable compensation. No doubt as per the settled principle of service jurisprudence, priority should be given for reinstatement of the services of the workman. But in this case I am of the view that a reasonable compensation is the only remedy. These Tribunal should not also by-passed the Government policy of taking the work of group 'D' employees from the outsourcing. The workman filed the document obtained from the department under the Right to Information Act. These documents shows that vacancies are still available with the management but the last question which is supplied by the management is clear that group 'D' work as per the policy of the Government is taken on outsourcing. This Tribunal cannot act as the appointing authority and if the violation of the rights of the workman can possible be remedied without violating the policy of the Government as well as the law, it should be preferred. If it is the policy of the Government to have the services of the group 'D' employee on outsourcing, the only remedy available in this reference is a reasonable compensation. Accordingly, the workman is entitled for a reasonable compensation. The compensation should be calculated on reasonable criteria. I think the basis for reasonable criteria should be the wages which the workman was drawing at the time of his retrenchment, retrenchment compensation, interest thereon, depreciation in money, inflation in Indian economy and the cost of litigation which the workman has incurred to redress his lawful right before this Court. Considering all these criteria, I am of the view that Rs. 1,50,000/- (one lakh fifty thousand only) will be a reasonable compensation to be awarded to the workman. The management is hereby directed to pay/ deposit Rs. 150,000/- (one lakh fifty thousand only) as compensation to the workman within one month from the date of publication of the award. Reference is accordingly answered, Let Central Government be approached for publication of award, and thereafter, file be consigned to record room.

Passed on 18-12-09

Government of India vide Notification No. L-42012/160/99/IR(DU), dated 16-12-1999 referred the following industrial dispute under Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (the Act in short) for adjudication to this Tribunal :—

“Whether the action of the management of Director, Wheat Research, Karnal in terminating the services of Shri Rampal w.e.f. 01-06-90 is legal and justified? If not, to what relief he is entitled?”

After receiving the reference, parties were informed. Parties appeared and filed their respective pleadings. From the pleadings of the workman, the case of the workman in nut-shell is that he was engaged as casual worker by Regional Station, Indian Agriculture Research Institute, Karnal on 01-07-87 and he worked as such till 31-05-90. He has completed 240 days of work with the management of respondent in the preceding year from the date of his termination. No notice or one month wages in lieu of notice and legal terminal dues were provided with to him before terminating his services which renders his termination null, illegal and void being against of the provisions of the Act. Persons juniors to him were retained in the services. After his termination new hands were engaged without affording him the opportunity to work. On the basis of the above facts, the workman has prayed for setting aside the termination order and for a consequential order directing the management for reinstatement the services of the workman with consequential benefits.

The management appeared and opposed the contention of the workman by filing written statement. It is denied by the management that workman has completed 240 days of work in the preceding year from the date of his termination. It is also contended by the management that the workman was working in the establishment of Barley Project which was transferred to Wheat Research Project. The permanent employees of the Barley Project were accommodated in Wheat Research Project. Shri Sukh Ram, Shri Roonak Ram, Shri Harinder Kumar and Smt. Savitri Devi were permanent employees of the Barley Project and they were accommodated in the Wheat Research Project. Apart from it, preliminary obligation have also been raised by the management about its industrial character. Both of the parties were afforded the opportunity for adducing evidence. Affidavits were filed by both of the parties. Opportunity for cross-examination was also given to the parties. Order dated 21-10-08 reveals that in presence of workman opportunity for cross-examination of the workman was closed because no one was present to cross-examine the workman on behalf of the management. Likewise, opportunity for adducing evidence of management was also closed and the file was reserved for arguments.

Parties were heard at length. The main issues for adjudication before this Tribunal are:

- (1) Whether the management of Wheat Research Institute is an industry?
- (2) Whether the workman has completed 240 days of work in the preceding year from the date of his termination?
- (3) Relief, if any.

So far as the issue No. 1 is concern the definition of industry has been given in Industrial disputes Act and Hon'ble the Apex Court in Bangalore Water Supply and Sewerage Board Vs. A. Rajappa and others 1987 Supreme Court 548 has elaborately discussed the nature of industry. In this judgment, Hon'ble the Apex Court has held that all the Research Institute on the basis of the fact that they are conducting research cannot seek exemption from the definition of industry. It has also been held by the Apex Court that a particular organization may seek exemption to be an industry but if there are units in the organizations which on the basis of the functions discharged and work carried on complied the triple test given by the Apex Court in the said judgment and are separable from other units they may come within the preview of industry.

Thus, the issue of industry has to be decided by this Tribunal on the basis of work entrusted by the management to the workman and discharged by the workman. The management has failed to adduce any evidence on the issue of industry. The affidavit filed by the management cannot be read into evidence because vide order dated 21-10-08 the evidence of the management was closed. The person who filed the affidavit on behalf of the management was not subjected to the cross-examination by the workman; hence, the affidavit filed by the management shall not be read into the evidence. On the basis of the fact and circumstances of the case, it comes before this Tribunal that workman was working as daily waged worker, I am of the view that respondent-management is an industry and for the purpose of this reference workman and the management have the industrial relations. Accordingly, this Tribunal has jurisdiction to answer this reference.

So far as issue No.2 is concerned, I am of the view that workman has completed 240 days of work in the preceding year from the date of his termination. There is a certificate on record provided by Shri Mahabalam, Project Co-ordinator, Barley Project dated 31-05-90, which shows that in the preceding year from the date of his termination workman has worked 252 days. The Project Co-ordinator has not counted Sundays and other holidays while calculating the working days of the workman. Apart from it in the preceding year from the date of his termination the workman has worked 252 days.

The workman moved an application for filing the original documents relating to his services. The management did not comply with the order. Learned Counsel for the management gave a statement on 09-11-06 that the record required by the workman which includes the vouchers for the years 1987 to 1999 are not traceable. Being very old documents the same have been destroyed and cannot be reproduced. Workman be allowed to lead secondary evidence. Thus, the documents provided with by the workman shall be read over in secondary evidence. The genuineness of the documents have not been challenged by the management. Accordingly, there is no bar and hesitation to this Tribunal to accept documents regarding its authenticity and contents. Thus, I am of the view that workman has completed 252 days of work from the date of his termination.

The management has taken one plea without adducing any evidence that the Barley Project was amalgamated with Indian Wheat Research Institute and on merger of Barley Project with Wheat Research Institute Project, the services of the workman were not required. The employees of the Barley Project were accommodated in Wheat Research Project, whereas, the services of daily wagers were retrenched because the services were not more required.

Order dated 07-09-90, regarding transfer of Barley Project to Wheat Research Institute is on record. I have gone through the entire circular letter. It is clear that the Barley Project was not closed, but was transferred to Wheat Research Institute with certain directives. It was an administrative arrangement made by the management which has no concern with the termination of daily waged worker working in Barley Project. After this notification dated 07-09-90, Project Director, Wheat Research Institute was the administrative head of the Barley Project as well and the land with other infrastructure was also under the administrative control of the Project Director, Wheat Research Institute, Karnal. Accordingly, on transfer of Barley Project to the Project Directorate, Wheat Research Institute at Karnal there was no affect at all on the service conditions of the daily waged worker working in Barley Project. It is not the case of the management that there was no work to do or there were such other situation in which it was not possible for the management to continue the services of daily waged workers.

The services of daily waged workers are also protected by the provisions of the Act. There is no prohibition of termination of the services of daily waged worker but the Act regulates the termination. It regulates in the way that one month notice or one month wages in lieu of the notice and lawful terminal dues are the precondition of termination of the services of a daily waged worker. Admittedly, in this case it was not done. No notice or one month wages in lieu of the notice or terminal dues were given to the workman which renders the termination of the workman illegal and void being against the provisions of the Act.

Whenever termination of any daily waged worker is declared illegal and void being against the provisions of the Act there are two possible remedies available. The first remedy is the reinstatement of the workman into the services and another remedy is a reasonable compensation. It is a settled law of service jurisprudence that priority should be given for reinstatement of the workman into the services. In exceptional cases where there is no work to do, there is no vacancy or there is another circumstance in which the work cannot be provided with to the workman the Tribunal can opt the second remedy for granting the compensation. The compensation to be granted should be based on reasonable criteria. The work of the management is continuously available. The management has not denied that no vacancy is available as well. In absence of any evidence of the management regarding the availability of work, I am of the view that reliance have not made on the affidavit filed by the workman. It is true that provisions of the Evidence Act are not applicable in the proceedings before this Tribunal but principles of Evidence Act are to be adopted while answering any reference on the basis of enquiry, justice and good conscious. Justice requires that when any party is sleeping reliance has to be made on the statement of parties awoken. The management in spite of more than adequate opportunity failed to adduce any evidence. Thus, I am of the view that the work is available with the management and workman has a right of reinstatement into the services with immediate effect. Considering the fact and circumstances of the case and of the fact as well that workman has not worked with the management for a long time (no doubt, he had a right to work and the opportunity was not provided by the management), I am of the view that he is also entitled for 50 per cent of the back wages. Accordingly, the management of Wheat Research Institute is directed to reinstate the services of the workman and to pay him the 50 per cent of the back wages within one month from the date of publication of this award. This reference is accordingly answered. Let Central Government be informed for publication of award, and thereafter, file be consigned to record room.

Industrial Dispute No. 55/2006

BETWEEN

Sri Hira Lal son of Late Govind,
1045 Kachhi Basti, Govind Nagar,
Kanpur.

And

The Divisional Operating Manager (M)
North Central Railway, DRM Office,
NC Railway, Allahabad.

AWARD

1. Central Government, MOI, New Delhi vide Notification No. L-41012/185/2005-IR(B-II) dated 20-07-06 has referred the following dispute for adjudication to this Tribunal:

2. Whether the action of the management that is Divisional Operating Manager (M) N.C. Railway, Allahabad in removing the services of Sri Hira Lal son of Late Govind with effect from 24-08-98, is justified? If not to what relief the workman concerned is entitled to?

3. Brief fact are—

4. Applicant claimant Sri Hira Lal has filed his claim statement praying that the order of removal of service dated 24-08-98, being illegal be set aside and he should also be provided all the reliefs and the back wages.

5. He stated that he was working with the opposite party under CYMC Juhi Kanpur, on the post of Shuntman Grade A and he was provided with a accommodation in railway colony Tejab Mill. During working he was sent to Chandigarh by the opposite party during this period the constable of RPF forcibly occupied his quarter. As soon as he got the information, he informed the railway administration CYMGMC. He made written complaints also. When no action was taken he made a complaint through the Territorial Army Chandigarh. After receipt of the letter they immediately wrote a letter to the railway administration for necessary action and on the basis of the same unauthorized occupation was removed but no action against the guilty person was taken. They started threatening the workman for dire consequences and threat to the life of the workman. Being afraid from the threat the workman after giving application to the railway administration went to his village. Along with workman certain other employees for different reasons also proceeded on leave after moving applications before the railway administration. Workman become sick and he informed the administration accordingly. The workman also informed about his illness to the Chief Yard Master regularly. It is stated that on 23-10-96, the railway administration issued a SF-5, but did not inform the workman about the same. No preliminary inquiry was ever conducted before issuing SF-5, although the department was having his permanent address in their record and he ought to have been informed through registered post. It is alleged that due to his illness he could not appear and the administration concluded the inquiry in a hasty manner. He was not issued second show cause notice before passing removal order. Even charge sheet has not been published in the News Paper nor was sent at the address of the workman through registered post. It is alleged by the workman that he was removed by the railway administration on 24-08-98 but removal order was not provided to him nor the same was sent through registered post at his residential address. Workman requested repeatedly to join his duty by presenting him but neither he was not provided duty nor he was provided with the order of removal of his service. Ultimately the removal order was provided to the workman on 31-12-03, where after the workman preferred an appeal before the Divisional Railway Manager which was rejected. It is stated that he was never informed about the inquiry proceedings and the enquiry was concluded in hasty manner by the inquiry officer. It has been claimed by the workman that the entire action in the name of the disciplinary action against the workman is illegal, arbitrary violating the service rules and rules of natural justice. Accordingly he has prayed that removal order dated 24-8-98 be declared illegal and he be also allowed his back wages for the period he remained jobless along with other consequential benefits.

6. Opposite party stated that this is wrong to say that the petitioner had informed to the management about the forceful occupation of his quarter. It is stated that the real fact is that the petitioner was indebted and the quarter was let out by the petitioner himself time to time to some other employees which is illegal and against the rule. It is also wrong to say that he went to his village after moving the application for leave. Simply moving an application for leave should not be presumed that his application for leave has been accepted. No information about his illness was received in the office of the Chief Yard Master, Kanpur. The so called receipts which have been enclosed by the petitioner with his petition are not the registry receipts. If actually the claimant has posted the application to CYM, there should have been an acknowledgement. Claimant was habitual in remaining unauthorized absent from duty the details are given below :—

4-9-92 to 22-3-93 for 412 days

20-5-93 to 11-7-93 for 53 days

19-7-93 to 9-9-93 for 53 days

23-10-93 to 31-10-93 for 9 days

1-11-93 to 9-1-94 for 70 days

12-2-94 to 4-9-94 for 174 days

5-9-94 to 7-9-94 for 3 days

8-9-94 to 5-12-95 for 462 days

23-12-95 to 30-4-97 for 594 days

7. S.F. 5 was issued to the claimant as per railway rules. SF-5 was issued to the claimant at his address quarter no. 69-J Tejab Mil Colony the quarter which was allotted to him. An enquiry officer Sri A.K. Mishra was appointed to conduct DAR inquiry against the petitioner. A letter No. C-2/DAR/HEE-LA/97 dated 29-9-97 was issued by the inquiry officer to the claimant. This letter was duly received by the claimant. In this letter it was asked by the inquiry officer from the claimant whether he will defend himself his case or he would engage some defence helper. Show cause notice was issued to the claimant, inquiry report and findings was duly received by the petitioner on 10-8-99. In the inquiry report it was specifically mentioned that the claimant is free to prefer an appeal to the disciplinary authority within 15 days from receipt of the report. Sufficient opportunity was given to the claimant to defend his case. SF-5 along with index I, II, III was duly received by the petitioner on 8-1-97 and the same was duly acknowledged. The order of removal from service was duly posted on the notice in the presence of witnesses Bajrangi and two other witnesses on 3-9-98. Appellant authority after considering the entire facts of inquiry report after considering the statement of witnesses, the appellate authority being satisfied with the inquiry report and findings dismissed the appeal. Therefore, the services of the claimant were terminated as per rules. There is no illegality or irregularity and the principles of natural justice have been fully followed by the inquiry officer.

8. Claimant has filed certain papers as annexure with the claim statement.

9. He filed paper no. 4/6 a photocopy of the letter written by Lt. Coln. to Chief Security Commissioner regarding the unauthorized occupation of the quarter of the claimant, paper no. 4/7 is a photocopy of the application of the claimant dated 22-12-03 given to Chief Yard Master Kanpur, showing prayer that if he had been removed from the service then he may be given a copy of that otherwise he may be taken in service, paper no. 4/8 is a photocopy given by the applicant to the DRM Allahabad dated 24-1-01, regarding transfer /posting, paper no. 4/9 is a photocopy written by the railway administration to the claimant Sri Hira Lal dated 24-10-98 on the subject that he had been removed from service, paper no. 4/10 is a photocopy of a letter written railway administration to Chief Yard Master, paper no. 4/11 is a photocopy of a letter written by administration regarding revision petition on the point of removal of service in the year 2004, paper no. 4/13-14 is a photocopy of the applications of the claimant dated 15-2-04 given to DRM making a prayer that an ex-parte inquiry was conducted and he was removed from services illegally and his appeal be decided, paper no. 4/15 is photocopy of the railway administration given to the claimant regarding his disposal of appeal against the order of removal from service, paper no. 4/16 is a photocopy written by Chief Yard Master to Sri Hira Lal dated 31-12-03, paper no. 4/17-18 are photocopy of an application given by the applicant to the railway administration regarding his absence with effect from 23-12-95, paper no. 4/19-21 are the photocopies of the registry as claimed by the claimant sent to the railway administration, paper no. 4/22 is photocopy of the claimant dated 7-11-97, paper no. 4/23-24 photocopy of the applicant given to the railway administration regarding reconsideration on the inquiry, but it does not show any date, paper no. 4/25-26 is a photocopy of the claimant given to the railway administration dated 29-3-04.

10. No other paper have been filed either by the claimant or by the opposite party.

11. Claimant has adduced himself in oral evidence as WW 1 Hira Lal.

12. Opposite party despite sufficient opportunities has not adduced any documentary or oral evidence in support of their pleadings.

13. I heard the arguments perused the record thoroughly and gone through the evidence adduced by the claimant.

14. WW1 stated on oath stated that he was sent to Chandigarh on duty. When he returned after a month he found that one Sri Phool Chand who was a constable in RPF has forcibly occupied his quarter then he made a complaint to the DRM but no action was taken. Then he made a Complaint to the Coln., at Chandigarh and the Coln., made a report and on this, the quarter was vacated by those persons but this quarter was not given to him. Those persons who had occupied the quarter used to threaten him and continued to threaten. On this he went to his village after giving an application. When he came back from his village, he went to DRM Office. He was not provided with the duty. On 31-12-03 he was handed over the termination order, whereas in that order the date of termination was shown as 24-10-98. There was no inquiry; no papers were given to him.

15. This witness was thoroughly cross-examined by the opposite party. He stated in the cross that he does not know that the copy of charge sheet SF-5 was given to him. He does not remember now whether the information of inquiry was sent to his house or not but he was not given any papers regarding inquiry. But he was served with the termination order on 31-12-03. He stated that he is not literate and he puts his thumb impression.

16. In these circumstances, I examined the whole case. It cannot be denied that the whole inquiry proceeding in original lies with the opposite party. It is in their custody and despite sufficient opportunity they did not file either photocopy or in original. They did not file copy of charge sheet SF-5 which they claim that it has been served along with index 1,2 and 3 on the claimant. It is true that the claimant is illiterate in such circumstances a heavy burden lies on the shoulder of the opposite party to prove the fact that a fair and thorough inquiry was conducted against the claimant and a fair and sufficient opportunity was given to the claimant to defend his case. But no such evidence either oral or documentary has been filed by the opposite party for the reasons best known to them. It is said by the opposite party in the written statement that the SF-5 was duly acknowledged by the claimant but this has not been proved by the opposite party. It is also stated by the opposite party in the written statement that the removal order was pasted on 3-9-98 on the notice board, in the presence of witnesses Bajrangi and others but no such evidence has been filed by the opposite party which was in their possession. Whereas the claimant claims that he has been served with the order of removal from service on 31-12-03 in his statement and as per paper no. 4/9. This fact appears to be believable and this fact has not been contradicted otherwise by the opposite party. It is stated that a letter dated 29-9-97 was issued by the inquiry officer to the claimant, but this letter has not been filed by the opposite party.

17. Therefore, from the facts and circumstances of the case it is clear that if any inquiry was conducted by the opposite party that was either ex-parte and it was not a fair and justified inquiry. It is also clear that no sufficient opportunity was given to the claimant applicant to defend his case. It appears that there is a clear violation of principles of natural justice. Therefore, if any inquiry has been conducted, the findings of the inquiry are vitiated as such the order of the removal of the service of the claimant dated 24-8-98 does not appear to be justified and bona-fide.

18. Claimant has also prayed that he should be provided with the back wages and other consequential reliefs.

19. I have analyzed this issue also. Opposite party has contended that the claimant is habitual of remaining on unauthorized absence and they have given the description in Para 7 of written statement. He was put to cross examination on this point by the opposite party and he had admitted that he had been absent during that period. I think it is a long long absence from the years 1991 to 1997. The claimant has not explained fully about his unauthorized absence. In such circumstances, I feel if he is paid back wages for the period he remained on unauthorized absence it will be a burden on the public exchequer and will cause prejudice to the opposite party. Therefore I feel that the claimant is not entitled for the back wages for the period he remained unauthorized absence as detailed in Para 7 of the written statement.

20. I have gone through this aspect also whether he should be given the back wages from the date of removal to the date of raising the industrial dispute. It appears that a long delay has been caused by the claimant in raising the dispute, therefore, in such circumstances I feel that he would be provided with 50% of Back wages together all consequential benefits.

21. No other issue has been pressed before me.

22. Therefore, the award is decided in favour of the claimant and against the management.

The Station Director All India Radio Varanasi

AWARD

1. Central Government, MoI., New Delhi, vide notification No. L-42012/98/92-IR (DU) dated 12-4-04 has referred the following dispute for adjudication to this Tribunal.

2. Whether the action of the management of All India Radio, Varanasi, in terminating the services of Sri Lalman Ram with effect from 16-6-90 is legal and justified. If not to what relief he is entitled to?

3. Brief facts are—

4. Applicant claimant has filed his claim statement praying that his services be regularized with effect from 15-6-90 and he should be paid salary and other benefits. He alleged that he was appointed as a casual labour on 10-10-80 on the post of Beldar with the opposite party department. This post was of a regular nature but he was given different breaks as exception. Thereafter there was a notification from Government of India dated 4-7-86, to regularize the services of casual labours and on that basis the applicant was called for interview on 17-9-86 but the opposite party instead of appointing him, appointed another junior employee Sri Prabhu Nath and he was made permanent and he was given assurance that when the next vacancy fall vacant he will be regularized but the opposite party has not complied with the circular of the GOI.

5. When he raised the dispute and wrote a letter to the Director General, Akashwani, New Delhi, on 3-2-90, the opposite party getting aggrieved terminated his services on 15-6-90.

6. He had been in regular service. The breaks which were made in his service were artificial breaks. He has regularly worked for 240 days in each year. While removing him from the service he was not given any notice or salary in lieu of notice or retrenchment compensation. Opposite party has committed the breach of section 25F of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. Therefore, he has prayed that he opposite be directed to regularize his services.

7. Opposite party has filed the written statement. It is stated that claimant was engaged as a casual labour Beldar on 10-10-80, by Installation Officer and he worked as such in broken spells till 15-5-82. Again the claimant was engaged to work in the same capacity up to 15-5-90 in broken spells and thereafter the petitioner was not required to work. Name of the petitioner was never forwarded from the employment exchange. The other candidate who was appointed at the post of peon was given compassionate appointment under the dying in harness rules. The petitioner has not completed 240 days in any calendar year; therefore, the petitioner cannot claim his appointment either under the memorandum or under any law. Prabhu Narain's case is different from the case of the petitioner. He was appointed at the posts of Khalasi. It is stated that the petitioner was engaged on casual basis for limited purposes and when the work was completed then there was no need of his further engagement. Opposite party has contradicted the other aversions of the claimants and prayed for the rejected of the claim.

8. Claimant filed a rejoinder. In the rejoinder he stated that Sri Chaturi Ram and Mr. Ram Dular Singh Yadav were not appointed on compassionate grounds. He reiterated the versions of the claim statement and denied the aversions made in the written statement.

9. Applicant claimant has filed photocopies of certain documents. Paper no. 8/11 is a letter inviting applicant Lalman Ram for the post of peon in the interview on 10-2-84. Paper no. 8/12 is also a photocopy of the letter dated 17-9-86, inviting applicant in the interview for the post of Farrash on 6-10-86, paper no. 8/13 is the photocopy of the letter issued to whom so ever may concern wherein it is stated that Sri Lalman Ram has worked at this installation (All India Radio) as a Beldar on casual basis at a daily rate of Rs. 6/7 during the period from 10-10-80 to 15-5-82.

10. Other papers are the photocopies of the litigation which went in between the parties, but not material now for the purpose of deciding the case on merits.

11. Opposite party has not filed any evidence either documentary or oral.

12. Claimant has filed oral evidence as W.W. 1 Sri Lal Man Ram. No other witness has been adduced.

13. I have gone through facts, perused the record thoroughly and heard the arguments of the claimant. Opposite party did not appear at the time of arguments also.

14. This fact has been stated and admitted by the opposite party that the petitioner was engaged as a casual labour/Beldar on 10-10-80 by the Installation Officer and he worked as such in broken spells till 15-5-82, photocopies of the certificate paper no. 8/13 has been filed by the claimant in this respect. It is also admitted by the opposite party that he worked up to 15-5-90 in the broken spells, but it is stated by the opposite party in written statement that he was engaged on casual basis for limited purposes and when the work was completed then there was no need of his further engagement.

15. Now it has to be seen whether any right has been accrued to the workman under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

16. Opposite party has specifically stated that the claimant has not worked for 240 days in a calendar year preceding 12 months from the date of his termination. I have gone through the statement of the claimant W.W. 1. He has been put to cross examination by the opposite party. He admitted that after the year 1982, he has not been engaged for more than 3 or 4 months in a year as the department did not take the work. In the year 1986 he did not work. In the year 1987 he worked only for 3 days, in the year 1989 he worked for 75 days and worked for only 98 days in the year 1990. Therefore, if I count the period of 1989 and 90 he did not work for 240 days as is the requirement under Section 25 F of Industrial Disputes act, 1947.

17. Section 25 F of the Act provides "no workman employed in any industry who has been in continuous service for not less than one year under an employer shall be retrenched by that employer until—

- (a) the workman has been given one months notice—
- (b) the workman has been paid compensation—
- (c) Notice in the prescribed manner is served—

Therefore, my view the mandatory requirement that is putting in continuous service for not less than one year which could be up to 240 days as provided under Section 25-B of the Act has not been completed by the claimant, before his disengagement in the year 1990.

18. Claimant has filed certain rulings which are given below—

(i) 1985 Lab IC 1733 Supreme Court H. D. Singh versus Reserve Bank of India and others. In this case the Hon'ble Apex Court held if there is a violation of mandatory provision of Section 25F of the Act then termination of service will amount to retrenchment. But here in this case the facts are not similar and the claimant cannot take the benefit of this ruling.

(ii) LLR, 1992, P 671 Allahabad High Court in between Surendra Nath Rai versus The Managing Director U. P. Cooperative Union and others page 671.

19. I have gone through the principles laid down by the Hon'ble High Court and respectfully agree.

But the fact of the instant case are not the similar therefore the claimant cannot take the advantage of this ruling.

20. Claimant has also raised another issue in his claim statement that one Sri Prabhu Nath who was junior to him has been made regular and in the rejoinder he has referred another applicant Mr. Chaturi Ram and Mr. Ram Dular Singh Yadav. In this regard I would like to say first of all there is no reference on this issue and this tribunal cannot travel beyond the scope of reference.

21. Even though I have to analyze this issue also. In his oral statement he mentioned that Sri Prabhu was appointed who junior to him. This fact has been opposed by the opposite party. It is stated that the case of Sri Prabhu Narain is different from the case of the claimant. Prabhu Narain was appointed at the post of Khalasi and not as a peon. No such evidence has been brought forward before the tribunal that Prabhu was junior to the petitioner and he had been engaged or appointed on a regular post, while denying the right of the claimant.

22. Therefore, according to the facts and circumstances of the case and evidence adduced by the claimant, he has not been able to prove that he had worked for a continuous period of one year within meaning of Section 25-B of the Act, therefore, he cannot be granted protection of the benefits of Section 25F of the Act. Therefore there is no breach of Section 25 committed by the management and the action of the management is not found to be illegal.

23. Therefore, the award is decided against the claimant.

AWARD

Passed on : 18-12-09

Government of India vide notification No. L-40012/324/2000-IR(DU), dated 28-09-2000, referred the following industrial dispute under Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (the Act in short) for adjudication to this Tribunal :—

“Whether the action of the Senior Superintendent, Post Offices, Hamirpur (HP) in terminating the services of Shri Anil Kumar S/o Shri Lal Singh w.e.f. 22-10-1996 is just and legal? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?”

The main dispute between the parties is whether the services of the workman were rightly terminated? It is admitted case of the parties that workman was provided with the services for stop get arrangement as EDDA on account of the disciplinary proceedings against the regular EDDA for misconduct. It is also admitted that the workman joined the services on the terms and conditions of the letter which is on record as annexure MI. The regular EDDA was reinstated into the services and the services of the workman automatically terminated. After 3 years the services of the regular EDDA were terminated because of his life term conviction in a murder case. The management initiated the procedure for appointment and the post was declared reserved for OBC. One OBC candidate was selected. The workman raised an industrial dispute on two accounts namely, the management has wrongly reserved this post for OBC because the regular EDDA whose services were terminated was the candidate of general category and secondly, the workman has work for more than 240 days while working as EDDA and his services were terminated without notice or retrenchment compensation.

Parties were afforded the opportunity for adducing evidence. In evidence the nature of appointment and its tenure are admitted. The reference in question is regarding the termination of the services of the workman w.e.f. 22-10-96. So far as the termination of the workman w.e.f. 22-10-96 is concern there is no illegality because para no. 3 of the appointment letter specifically reveals that if the regular employee Shri Khushi Ram is taken back into the services, the provisional appointment will be terminated without notice. It was a provisional appointment subject to the conditions mentioned in the letter itself. Ratio of the letter is not in question but admitted to the parties. It is also admitted that workman has joined as EDDA as temporary employee subject to the conditions laid down in annexure MI, the appointment letter. It was one of the condition that on account of the joining the services by permanent employee, the services of the workman shall stand terminated without notice. Thus, on account of joining by the permanent employee, the services of the workman were rightly terminated by the management of the Post Office without notice, and there was no illegality in terminating the services of the workman. As per the plain reading of the reference referred by the Central Government, another issue raised by the management is not in question. The termination of the services of the regular employee on account of his life term imprisonment is a different issue and has no nexus with the termination of the workman on 22-10-96. Instead of it, considering it ancillary issue, I am also answering it against the workman because it is the policy of the management to reserve any post for OBC. Any post is reserved for OBC cannot be declared to be illegal just on the ground that the person retired/terminated from the post belongs to the general category. While calculating the post for reservation, the category of the employee who retires or terminated is not to be seen but the strength of the reservation is to be seen by the management. Accordingly, the reference is answered on the finding that there is no illegality in the termination of the services of the workman on 22-10-96 and he is not entitled for any relief. Let Central Government be informed for publication of award, and thereafter, file be consigned to record room.

The Divisional Railway Manager (Personnel),

AWARD

1. Central Government, MOL, New Delhi, vide notification No. L-41012/162/2005-IR(B-II) dated 22-05-06, has referred the following dispute for adjudication :

2. Kya prabandhak Uttar Madhya Railway, Kanpur Central द्वारा कर्मकार श्री चण्डी प्रसाद पाथक को दिनांक 2-1-86 से नौकरी से डिचार्ज कर दिया जाना न्यायोचित तथा न्यायसांगत है? यदि नहीं तो कर्मकार कि अनुतोष का अधिकारी है? (Whether discharging the services from 2-1-86 of Sri Chandi Prasad Pathak by Uttar Madhya Railway is legal and justified? If not what relief he is entitled to?)

3. Brief facts are—

4. It is alleged by the claimant Sri Chandi Prasad Pathak (ticket no.363) that he was appointed under Divisional Railway Manager, NCR, on 7-7-78 at Carriage and Wagon Northern, Railway Kanpur Central. He had been a regular employee. After putting about 7 years of regular service he was sent to Divisional Medical Officer Northern Railway Kanpur, for examination of his chest X-ray vide letter no. E/4/Ka/85 dated 3-11-85 and he was discharged by Divisional Medical Officer on 2-1-86. Then he requested the opposite party department to permit him to join duty, but he was not given any duty. Medical certificate no.813588 was given by enquiry officer on 29-5-90, which is a photocopy enclosed with the statement. On 31-5-88, there was an inspection of the office by vigilance inspector and it was found that there were 8 employees who were absent, wherein the claimant Sri Chandi Prasad at serial no. 8 was shown to be absent with effect from 1-1-86, photocopy enclosed. On the basis of inspection, the claimant was served with SF-5 dated 6-12-88, which was given by A.M.E. Allahabad and it was alleged that he remained absent with effect from 2-1-86. The copy of the charge sheet was sent to the claimant vide registered post at his address on 31-1-89, copy enclosed. Before giving reply to the charge sheet the claimant vide his application dated 6-2-89 requested to the enquiry officer to provide copies of six relevant documents so that he may reply properly but the enquiry officer did not provide any document and not replied thus the claimant did not submit any reply to the charge sheet. Then the claimant also made a request vide letter dated 4-3-89, to the Divisional Railway Manager, Allahabad and DME, Allahabad, but no action was taken. Again made a request on 1-4-89 to AME to provide the proper documents and to permit him to and to join the duty. Photocopy of these relevant documents along with A/D has been enclosed along with statement of claim. Sri G N Dubey vide letter dated 13-6-90 issued by AME was appointed as enquiry officer but no enquiry was conducted, photocopy annexure 14 is enclosed. After waiting for a long period he again moved an application dated 19-2-90 to AME Kanpur and a copy was sent to the higher officials of the railway Allahabad and a request was made to permit to take on duty and provide the copies, photocopy of necessary documents enclosed. First date of hearing was fixed as 15-3-90 by the enquiry officer vide his letter dated 28-2-90. On that date the claimant has moved an application for making the defence. Thereafter the dates 16-4-90, 6-5-90, 13-5-90, 19-5-90, 26-5-90, and 6-6-90 were fixed by the enquiry officer, but the enquiry was started only on 6-6-90. Again he made a request to provide him the relevant documents. Enquiry Officer vide his letter dated 29-5-90, provided him the copy of medical memo dated 3-11-85, by which he was sent for chest X-ray to the Medical Officer and also medical fitness certificate 813588, which shows that he has been with doctor with effect from 18-11-85 to 2-1-86. On that date statement of the claimant was recorded, whereas on that date no evidence from the management was recorded and no relevant documents were produced by the management. Claimant has given an application dated 6-6-90 to the enquiry officer that the enquiry is being conducted illegally and he stated that even after making request no witness from the opposite party has been called for the evidence. He could not get the opportunity to cross examination of the witness of the opposite party which is a violation of principle of natural justice. Even then the claimant was not found guilty and no charge was found proved by the enquiry officer though the enquiry officer himself conducted the cross examination of the claimant and put question to the claimant which is not justified. The claimant has moved numerous application dated 1-6-86, 11-9-86, 3-12-86, 10-1-87, 26-8-87, 24-11-87 and prayed to permit him to join his duties and prayed that he be paid the wages. Photocopies of these letters have been enclosed as annexure. After 6-6-90 another dates 10-6-90 and 16-6-90, were fixed by the enquiry officer and enquiry officer himself cross examine the claimant, thereafter, the enquiry officer submitted his enquiry report dated 19-6-90, wherein he stated that no charge has been found to be proved. Copy of the enquiry report is paper no. 18. It appears that by the disciplinary authority again direction were given to Sri Dubey enquiry officer to conduct further inquiry, he again fixed dates as 5-2-91, 13-5-91, and on that date he recorded the statement of Sri Manmohan Singh, CDO, and he was cross examined and thereafter, the enquiry officer asked the claimant to produce his defence and the claimant produce, his defence note on 21-12-91, copy of the defence note is annexure 19. Thereafter, Sri D. S. Saxena was appointed as enquiry officer and enquiry proceedings continued for a long time but the claimant was not found guilty in any of the enquiry, but he was not taken on duty and he was also not informed about the further proceedings. After a long time in the year 1997 he was called in the office of Carriage and Wagon and he was forced to sign certain blank papers and sent to the Divisional Medical Officer, Kanpur. After that Doctor Sri Jauhari also asked him to sign some blank papers and sent to Allahabad. Clerk Sri Mishri Lal put these documents in an envelope and sealed them and gave it to CMO Northern Railway Allahabad. Claimant was sent three or four time to CMO Allahabad and he was asked to sign certain papers every time of which the claimant does not have any knowledge. He inquired from the Medical Officer and other persons but not given any information.

5. Claimant was appointed on 7-7-78 at the post of Safaiwala after medical examination and he was declared by the railway doctor under B-1 category and after that he was appointed and given work. As per rules medical examination has to be done at the time of appointment whereas when he was sent on 3-11-85 for medical examination he was not at all sick and he was not declared unfit by the railway doctor. Under these circumstances the claimant is sitting idle, without being taken on duty whereas he has not yet been served with any written order or he has not been punished till today by any officer. He still is living in railway quarter which was allotted to him. Department has not given any letter. His services have been removed without any order in writing therefore, all the proceedings conducted by the management are mala fide, illegal and unjustified and the claimant has been put to torture.

6. Therefore, he made a prayer that he be reinstated with effect from 2-1-86 with continuity of service and he be given all the back wages and consequential benefits during this period he has not been in any other job and he did not work on any post of profit and he is a very poor man.

7. Opposite party filed the written statement. It is admitted and submitted that the claimant was sent to DMO, Loco Kanpur for examination of the Chest X-ray vide letter no. E/4/Ka/85 dated 3-11-85 and as per discharge certificate no. 813588 issued by ADMO he was sick and under treatment from 8-11-85 to 1-1-86 and due to non attendance he was discharged and thereafter the concerned employee did not appear in the office. It is stated that in pursuant to the preventive check report dated 12-9-88 of the vigilance SF-5 dated 5-12-88 was issued to the concerned employee by ATE, Allahabad, which was acknowledge by the employee on 31-1-89. It is stated that due to not found medically fit he was not allowed for the duty and he has been informed accordingly vide letter dated 30-5-90. It is stated that as the claimant was not found medically and physically fit so he was not allowed to join the duty. It is also stated that the claimant was employed as substitute safaiwala on the basis temporary medical fitness and, the said medical examination was made on 4-7-78 and the claimant was temporarily fit on 4-7-78 and his chest X-ray examination was pending as such he was sent for X-ray examination to DMO Kanpur from where due to not attendance he was discharged. It is stated that he has committed gross negligence as he went away from duty since 2-11-86 without any information and remained absent. Other aversions of the claim statement has been denied and prayed that the claim petition be rejected.

8. Claimant has filed Annexures 1 to 19 along with the claim statement.

9. Claimant has also adduced an oral evidence as a witness W.W.1 Sri Chandi Prasad Pathak.

10. Despite giving sufficient opportunities and the case lingering on since 2006, management did not file documentary or oral evidence. Even the management was debarred for producing evidence by my learned predecessor.

11. I have perused the whole facts and the evidence adduced by the claimant and heard the arguments. I examined the statement of the claimant given on oath.

12. He stated that he was appointed on 7-7-78 as safaiwala and he was a regular employee and at the time of appointment he was medically examined and found fit under B-1 category. He was sent for medical examination by the railway vide letter dated 3-11-85 for the reasons known to them on 3-11-85 and remained there up to 1-1-86, after medical officer discharged him he went to his office on 2-2-86 to join the duty but he was not allowed. He was asked to go again to the hospital. He again went to the hospital. He did not get any reply. He again went to the office to join duty but he was not taken on duty. During an inspection by the vigilance he was shown to be absent. He was served with a charge sheet. Whatever the documents he received during the inquiry he has filed the same along with his statement of claim. He was examined as a witness but no witness was produced by the management. He raised an objection in this connection when the inquiry officer submitted his report he was not found guilty. Again an enquiry was conducted and in that enquiry he was found innocent. He is not a literate person. Again the enquiry was entrusted to one Saxena. In that enquiry also he was not found guilty and no charges have been proved. Whenever he went to the office to join the duties he was not allowed and he was asked to go from one place to other and did not give any order. Thereafter he raised the dispute.

13. I examined his statement in the light of the contentions raised by the opposite party in their written statement. As per contention of the opposite party it clearly appears that no specific order of either discharge or removal has been given to the claimant. Claimant has filed the enquiry report vide annexure 18 dated 19-6-90. In this enquiry it has been clearly found—

Findings of E.O.- going through the record and papers submitted by the delinquent employee charges of unauthorized absence are bad in law. Not tenable and does not come in premises of railway conduct rules, 1966, Para 3(ii) and (iii) and thus not proved as levelled in SF-5 under reference

Sd/E.O.

Dated 19-6-90.

14. It is true that all the original papers regarding sending him for medical examination and thereafter conducting an enquiry are lying with the opposite party. They have not filed any single document. They were duty bound to file the original documents. They have withheld it for the reasons best known to them. Inference can be made if the documents have been produced it must have gone against them. WW-1 has also not been put for cross examination by the opposite party. Contention raised by the opposite party in their written statement does not appear to be natural and some time appears to be self contradictory and not supported with the documents. Opposite department being public department a heavy duty lies on their shoulder and it was not expected from them as they have done with the employee. If claimant was absent the enquiry was conducted by the opposite party. Enquiry officer did not find him guilty. There is no finding of the disciplinary authority that the employee was wrong or he has committed gross misconduct or he has been on unauthorized absence. He has not been given any order in writing which shows very very high handedness of the officers of the opposite party N.R. Railway.

15. It is true that the claimant was appointed on 7-7-78 on a regular post. It is also stated by the claimant that he was found medically fit and unnecessarily he was sent for X-ray test. A copy of discharge certificate annexure 2 has been filed. It also shows that - Sri Pathak is now fit for his duties. Discharged from 2-1-86 due to non attendance simultaneously it is written that he was under treatment from 18-11-85 to 1-1-86. It also corroborates the assertions of the claimant. It is stated that he is illiterate and poor man.

He has not been working on any post of profit during this period.

16. Therefore after going through the whole case and evidence and after hearing the arguments that the claimant has been able to prove his case and the evidence adduced by him is believable.

17. Claimant has produced certain rulings—

- (a) 1979 FLR page 874 (Bombay High Court) MAHAMADSHA GANISHAH PATEL AND OTHERS and others Versus Mustand Baug Consumers Cooperative Limited and others, 'Whole' Sale Retail Store wherein it has been held Even in the case of abandonment of service the employer has to give notice to the employee. If fails to turn up, the employer should hold a enquiry then to pass appropriate orders of termination- Abandonment of service by an employee cannot be presumed.
- (b) In another ruling 1999(3) AWC 2681, All India High Court between Ram Bachan Maurya versus District Magistrate Ghazipur and others held appointment by written order appointment was not fixed or for short period- service of the petitioner of the could not be terminated orally- Respondents taking self contradictory stand to deprive petitioner. of the service- actions of the respondents in orally preventing petitioner from performing his duties as Chowkidar is illegal and arbitrarily. Petitioner to be reinstated in service. Also to be paid entire arrears of salary.

18. I respectfully agree with the decisions and the principles laid down.

19. In the present case also the claimant was not removed or discharged from service after passing any order in writing. He was being orally prevented to join his duty which is a very illegal and unjustified act of the opposite party and his officials. It has been found that he has not been unauthorizedly absent from the duty. It was the management which has sent him for medical examination wrongly or otherwise. It was incumbent upon the management to take him back on duty after his discharge. It is also pertinent to mention that he has been permitted to live in the government accommodation whereas if he had been discharged lawfully he would not have been permitted to occupy the railway quarter since 1986.

20. Therefore from the facts and circumstances of the case, the action of the opposite management in discharging the claimant from service with effect from 2-1-86 orally or otherwise is illegal and unjustified. Therefore, the claimant is entitled to be in service and to be reinstated with effect from 2-1-86. He is also entitled whole back wages with effect from 2-1-86 as there was no fault of the claimant. He is also entitled for continuity of service and all the consequential benefits therefore; the award is decided in favour of the claimant and against the opposite party.

AWARD

The matrix of the facts as culled out from the proceedings are as under :

1. The Government of India, Ministry of Labour by its Order No. L-12012/287/2002-IR(B-1) dated 18th December, 2002 in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) and sub-section 2(A) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 have referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication :

"Whether the action of the management of Development Credit Bank Ltd., Mumbai, in terminating the services of Smt. Rukiya Khatoon w.e.f. 1-12-98 is justified? If not, what relief the workman Smt. Rukiya Khatoon is entitled to?"

2. Claim Statement is filed by the concerned workman at Exhibit-7 stating and contending that, she worked with the 1st Party as a Sweeper from 1978 and was doing said work for 1st Party for which she was paid accordingly. She claims that, she is a permanent employee of the 1st Party and the work of sweeping is available with 1st Party. Though it periodical work of 1st Party she was told not to report on duty with effect from 1-12-1978. She challenged said illegal termination by filing Complaint under MRTU & PULP Act before the State Labour Court, Mumbai, where 1st Party raised the point of jurisdiction in which State Labour Court, Mumbai, observed that, Central Government is the 'Appropriate Government'. After approaching Assistant Labour Commissioner (Central) in 2000 who sent failure report in 2002 which she claims that, she be declared as permanent employee of the 1st Party and request to direct the 1st Party to reinstate her with benefit of back wages and continuity of services.

3. This is disputed by the 1st Party by filing Written Statement at Exhibit 16 stating and contending that, 2nd Party was not appointed by it. She was not employee of the 1st Party. She was working for 2 hours with 1st Party and doing work of sweeping for which she was paid Rs. 900 per month. It is contended that, dispute is raised in 2002 and delay is not explained as to why she challenges the decision of 1978. It is denied that, she worked with 1st Party as its employee and she was appointed by 1st Party. It is denied that, she is a permanent employee of the 1st Party. It is denied that, she require to reinstate with benefits of back wages and continuity of service.

4. It view of the above pleadings Issues were framed at Exhibit 20 which I answer as follows :

Issues

Findings

- | | |
|--|----|
| (1) Is Second Party a employee of the First Party? | No |
| (2) Does she prove that, she was Illegally terminated? | No |

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------------|
| (3) Is she entitled for reinstatement? | No |
| (4) If yes, with what benefit? | Does
Not arise |
| (5) What order? | As per order
Passed

Reasons :Issue No. 1 :

5. 2nd Party claims that, she was working with 1st Party. She claims that, she worked with 1st party for 21 years without interruption. She claims that, since she worked continuously for 21 years she become permanent employee. It is her case that, without following due process of law she was terminated. This is disputed by the 1st Party stating that, she was neither appointed by the 1st Party nor she is employee of 1st Party cannot claim any relief. According to 1st Party she worked for it for 2 hours daily for which she was paid Rs. 900 per month.

6. To prove that, 2nd Party filed affidavit at Exhibit 21 in lieu of his examination-in-chief where she narrates all the story. However, in the cross she admits that, no appointment letter was given to her by 1st Party. She admits that, she was doing work of sweeping and cleaning of the Branch. She admits that, she was working from 8.00 a.m. to 12 noon. She admits that, she was doing work in that building for other offices also. She admits that, other offices were paying her for cleaning work attend for them. She states that, others were paying her Rs. 350 per month for cleaning work done by her for them. She admits that, she was stopped to work 4 years back by 1st Party. She admits that, she has no evidence to show that she was terminated by 1st Party. She admits that, she was caught by the Watchman while taking old papers. On that, 2nd Party closed evidence and filed closing purshis at Exhibit 22. Against that, no evidence is lead by 1st party.

7. Written arguments are filed at Exhibit 24 by the 2nd Party and by 1st Party at Exhibit 26. Gone through those and evidence lead referred above.

8. 2nd Party admit that, she was not appointed by the 1st Party and she was not appointed exclusively for 1st Party. She admits that, she was doing work for other offices in the same building and getting wages for the said work from others. In this situation question arises, how she can be declared as employee of the 1st Party only?

9. Here no exclusive work was done by her for 1st Party though work of sweeping is on perennial nature and it is available with the Bank. Besides she claims that, she worked for 21 years. She admit that, she was doing that work for particular hours and for which she was paid. Even it is the case of the 1st Party that, she was not doing work exclusively for the Bank but she was doing for other offices also which are located in the same building. When no appointment order is given by 1st Party and when she was not working there for 1st Party only as well as and when no termination is given by 1st Party in my considered view 2nd Party cannot be treated as employee of the 1st Party. All this reveals that, she is unable to establish her relations with 1st Party as employee of the 1st Party. So I conclude that, evidence lead by 2nd Party does not prove that, she is the employee of the 1st Party. So I answer this Issue in negative.

Issue Nos. 2 to 4

10. When 2nd Party fail to establish her relations with 1st Party and when 1st Party succeeds in showing that, she was not doing work exclusively for 1st Party by attending work of sweeping, in my considered view question of following procedure by 1st Party to terminate her services does not arise. When all that have no scope her prayer of reinstatement with benefit of back wages and continuity of service does not arise. No doubt part-time employees can claim permanency as referred in various judgments produced by 2nd Party still it is not her case that, she worked exclusively for 1st Party. She admits that, she worked for others also and others were paying her. When that is the position and when she was not doing work exclusively for 1st Party in my considered view, 1st Party cannot be treated as its employer nor it is expected from 1st Party to follow the provisions of termination treating her as its employee.

11. When she is not employee of the 1st Party question of following provisions of termination by 1st Party while terminating her services does not arise and when question of following provisions by 1st Party does not arise, in my considered view she is not entitled for any relief.

12. Considering all this and considering work done by her and the type of work done by her, I am of the considered view that, employee of this type is not entitled for any reliefs as claimed by her as such this Reference require to reject. So I answer these Issues in the negative and passes the following order :

ORDER

Reference is rejected with no order as to its cost.
